Esther: A Story of Courage
by Trudy J. Morgan-Cole

"The story was beautifully weaved. It was masterfully written. I could not wait to read page after page."

"A Biblical story of love for men and women."
narrative tells the tale of two people chosen by Yahweh to step outside the boundaries of the usual and the expected and dare to trust in a God who always thinks outside the box.

Take an intimate look at the early life of one of the most amazing men who ever lived.

He saved the kingdom. He was Israel's beloved champion. Yet Shaul took away his freedom. A bittersweet reward for Yahweh's chosen one.

Esther's amazing story shows how God turns women with common fears, struggles, and identity crises into heroines of faith.
