Want to spice up your Sabbath School discussion?
Want to spice up your Sabbath School discussion? Get the new Sabbath School Companion Book for second quarter, Laying Down the Law by Keith Burton.

In this book you'll find insights you can share to inspire and enlighten your fellow class members. Through verses, personal stories, and insights into the biblical culture, you'll learn about the role of the law and what it reveals about God.

Also available from Keith Burton, The Compassion of the Christ. How can we practice the mission of Christ in the twenty-first century? Do Christians have a right to condemn those trapped in sinful habits? Be motivated to an active participation in His compassionate ministry!

Regularly $10.99, on sale for only $6.97!

Stay Socially Connected to

AdventistBookCenter

Review and Herald

Pacific Press