Importance: High

Once again, the Adventist Child Care Network will be at the annual conference of the National Association for the Education of Young Children. Here are two sessions we’d like to bring to your attention.

Thursday, November 21

Dr. Christine Gillan Byrne will be presenting: “Essential Spiritual Concepts for Young Children”. This session will provide detail regarding the most important concepts necessary for spiritual development, how to identify various indicators of spiritual development in young children, how to scaffold learning opportunities for the various developmental ranges of children and specific teaching methods successfully used to enhance the affective domain of young children, and hence, the spiritual dimension.

1:00 PM - 2:30 PM
Washington Convention Center, Room 158AB

Friday, November 22

Seventh-day Adventist early childhood professionals are welcome to join the Adventist Child Care Network for sundown worship and fellowship. Come and join us for updates regarding Adventist early childhood education initiatives and then welcome the Sabbath together. For more information, contact Christine Gillan Byrne at 805-490-6055 or Christine@puconline.org.
