“Serving Communities in Christ’s Name”
North American Division Philanthropic Service for Institutions (PSI) released the brand-new Successful Fundraising handbook designed for churches, pastors, and church-related organizations, including Adventist Community Services. Many thanks to Dr. Lilya Wagner, Director of PSI and Nikolaus Satelmajer for producing such a beneficial fundraising resource.

Letter from PSI

Read this handbook to find:
- Tips for grounding fund-raising in good stewardship
- A basis and fundamental understanding of fund-raising for faith-based organizations
- Articles on specific strategies and campaigns
- Fund-raising components and principles that are the basis of successful campaigns—worksheets included
- Guidelines for conducting a building or renovation campaign
- When to use a fund-raising consultant and how to select one
- A careful look at the legal aspects of raising funds for project

If you have just purchased the volume, Successful Fundraising, you now have a fundraising resource prepared especially for you. If you are planning a building project—a new church, renovation, school building, addition, or other type of building campaign—this volume will assist you in planning and implementation of your project or building.

However, please notice in the "Introduction to the Handbook," page iii, this book comes with PSI assistance. We sincerely request that you contact us to discuss your plans. The handbook is not designed to be a stand-alone resource but one that entitles you to seek PSI’s assistance (for more of an introduction to PSI, please see chapter one.).

We encourage you to take advantage of this no-cost offer. We will talk to you by phone, send additional materials, make referrals to other professionals or organizations as feasible (such as consultants), and even come on-site if desired and possible. We want to help you maximize the use of this volume.

So please contact PSI at Lorena.Hernandez@nad.adventist.org and we will respond as soon as possible. Also, please look at our website, www.philanthropicservice.com for much more information.

Thank you for purchasing this one-of-a-kind, customized fundraising handbook, and please write or call us ASAP! We look forward to hearing from you.

Dr. Lilya Wagner, Director, Philanthropic Service for Institutions

P.S. We hope that this and much more in the handbook, Successful Fundraising, will be of benefit.

Welcome to PSI

Workshop Track Descriptions

Six Tracks:

1. Community Development/Financial Resource Development
   a. To understand biblical concepts to improve participants' abilities to minister in a dynamic environment.
   b. To learn about community needs assessment and program development.
   c. To learn about financial resource development and basic grant writings.

2. Crisis Care – Spiritual & Emotional
   Pastoral/Spiritual Crisis Intervention (Requires 13 hours to meet requirements for continuing education units): For pastors, professionals and lay volunteers involved in more intensive individual crisis intervention and crisis response teams.

3. Disaster Response (Certification)
   a. Introduction to Disaster Preparedness
   b. Donations Operations

4. Elder Care
   This ministry promotes Christ-centered, practical and sustainable solutions to successful holistic aging. It coordinates education and services related to aging, health, finance and social issues for seniors in the church and community in collaboration with community-based elder care and caregiver programs.

5. Tutoring & Mentoring
   ACS Tutoring & Mentoring Program offers comprehensive leadership training for those with an interest in organizing a community-based tutoring and/or mentoring program.

6. Youth Empowered to Serve (YES!)
   YES! aims to promote established service ministries developed by young people through social networking, multi-media, and youth conferences, while at the same... time fostering a healthy environment for developing Creative Ministries of Compassion among young people.
