Right now is your opportunity to make a major impact in this world where one in nine people go hungry every day. Each donation during this matching opportunity will be multiplied by seven!

One way ADRA helps families stay nourished is to teach them to grow their own food, even in difficult conditions. Multi-story gardens are a great example. They grow in a bag, are easy to maintain, don't require much water, and are portable in an emergency. Families can even sell extra produce for income.

Last year, the ADRA network helped 7 million people through nutritional and agricultural programs and I hope that you will help us reach even more.

Your gift will be matched-every dollar will turn into seven to keep families fed

Gratefully yours,
