Winter:
Winter has finally reached us after a very cold May. The snow on the mountains is blowing cold wind over us here at The Adventist Heritage Centre. I (Anna) know it must be very cold when I start feeling that our Centre is warm!

I would like to take the time now to introduce myself to you. I am a student at Avondale College and I recently started working here at The Adventist Heritage Centre taking over from Cherith. So far it is very interesting and I am learning a lot about our history.

Heritage News:
- I (Anna) am pleased to say that The Adventist Heritage Centre is open again as our director, Rose-lee, is back with us.
- This month we received two large boxes of Samoan artefacts.
- We are currently working on a new brochure with the Ellen G. White Research Centre which should be printed soon.
- It is time to say goodbye. I (Bethany) have enjoyed working in the AHC and especially interacting with you through our newsletter. But this semester I'm working on an honours thesis which needs more of my time, so I've had to leave. It is sad to go, but I know I have learned a lot. Here, I have personally discovered the real value and richness of the ‘old’ which the newest and best can’t compete with. So long!
- Good-bye from Cherith: It's been great getting to share with you various thoughts and tidbits from the Serial department of the Adventist Heritage Centre. As the Bible says, there is a season for everything. I'm sad to have to say goodbye to Rose-lee our wonderful Adventist Heritage Centre director and I've treasured being to help preserve our heritage: but life changes. Wishing all of our faithful readers the best. Cherith.

Antique Filmstrip Projector
Recently we have received an antique 35mm projector from the Boelm Family. This projector was used to take Bible studies. Did you ever use one like this?

A Note From Laurel:
As an assistant of AHC I look after where I have to keep up to date with daily photo enquiries, photograph, number and incoming artefacts and so on. It’s so amazing history of our church by looking at all these photographs. At times the job is quite frustrating especially try to verify the background of the materials but its great eventually putting things together.

Wise Words 100 Years Old
“Remember that there is a better thing than making a living- making a life”. Governor Russell.

100 Years Ago
From the June 1911 issues of the ‘Australasian Record’:
- “The Health Food and Café work have grown from previous years. There are now cafes and depot every state of Australia. Instead of piling up huge debt as in former years, we are able to meet our expenses and pay off some of our indebtedness created under the old system of working. God has is richly blessing us, for which we praise Him.” How sad they have disappeared.
