A Taste of Spring:
This past month has seen a taste of spring in the lovely warm weather we have been having. It has been nice and I have been able to get out to parks and enjoy the sun!

A note from the staff:
As you may know, all of the staff have had time off over the last month. I (Anna) did a practical component of my course as did Laurel from the photo department. We are all back and running.

Audio Cassettes Tapes:
Here at the heritage Centre, we collect Audio Cassette Tapes that people donate to us. We have 2,376 tapes to date that have been repaired, databased and stored. It is a time consuming job to database one tape. We search on the database and check whether we already have the tape. If we have multiple copies, we compare them and select the best quality tape. It can take 15 minutes to half an hour to database just one tape. Think how many hours it has taken us to store and database over 2,000 tapes! That is over 1,000 hours to process these tapes. They provide a unique aspect to our churches’ history.

100 Years Ago:
August editions of the “Australasian Record”, 1911 State:
- Brethren Dirksen and Oster were the First Seventh-Day Adventist Missionaries ever to cross the borders into Tabriz, Persia.
- Mr. and Mrs. Carr were thanked for the great work in using their plantation, Bisiatabu, in Papua New Guinea for God. They contracted native workers for one year and showed them God’s love. This ministry was called a seed-sowing ministry as it positively effected the people who came to live and work with them.

Instrument:
This is a ukulele type instrument from the pacific islands. Can anyone tell us anything about it?
Wise words 100 years old:
“He only is rich who owns the day and no one owns the day who allows it to be invaded with worry and fret in anxiety.” Emerson
