AHC Newsletter Nov. No. 11 2011

Summer:
Wow! With the start of November, it seems summer has hit. Yesterday outside The Heritage Centre the temperature reached into the mid/late thirties. I must say that I (Anna), am really enjoying the warm weather as it is perfect for the beach, and/or swimming.

News:
We just processed two photo collections. The first (1914 – 27, 30-31) is the O.P. Broard Collection that relates to the second superintendent of Mona Mona Mission in Kuranda north QLD. The second is a personal collection (c1980s-1940s) from A.L. Hindson. We also just received a large document collection from Kevin Silva. It contains photos of youth and Pathfinder work relating to PNG.

100 Year old Recipe:
Published in Life and Health Magazine, Oct-Nov 1911.
Gluten Layer Cake- Five eggs, one cup of sugar, one-half cup gluten, two tablespoonfuls of flour, one tablespoonful of lemon juice. Beat the whites to a stiff froth, cream the yolks and sugar, add the lemon juice, and fold carefully into the whites. Mix flour and Gluten well together and fold into eggs. Pour into two sandwich tins and bake fifteen minutes, and use any filling such as jam, coconut, raisin, walnut, or lemon. Sweet Gluten steak? Anyone game enough to try this cake? I’m not sure about this one! Maybe people were much more brave to try different food back then?

Wise words 100 Years old:
“Opportunities are very sensitive things; if you slight them on their first visit you seldom see them again.”
Unknown

“Have more than thou showest,
Speak less than thou knowest,
Lend less than thou owest.” Shakespeare

“We will never find the cross heavy if we take up the one God gives us.” Unknown

100 Years ago:
Taken from the November issues of the 1911 Australasian Record:
A campmeeting was going to be held in Tasmania at Launceston. Railway ticket concessions had already been granted. The writer said. “We trust that all of our people in Tasmania will avail themselves of this open door to the blessing of the Lord, and that a great victory for the work in Tasmania shall be gained at this meeting.”
