New Exhibit in the AHC
The Adventist Heritage Centre has opened a new exhibition on The Sabbath. A number of documents and publications are on display in relation to the history and origins of the Sabbath, Sabbath Schools, the Sabbath controversy and much more. The exhibition is open 1-4pm Monday-Thursday, or otherwise by appointment. The Adventist Heritage Centre is located on the lower floor of the library at Avondale College of Higher Education. Email us at heritage@avondale.edu.au or phone (02) 4980 2313.

New additions to our collection
This last month we have processed an amazing array of new material into our collections. The Biblical Research Institute collection, including published and unpublished articles. The Barry Wright collection, with thesis materials and papers from the schools he had worked in. The Faith and Science Conference collection with 2002 conference papers. The Col Gibson collection including carved oceanic objects. And the Ken and Julie Weslake collection with a variety of Bilum and woven bags.

Recipe

Why not celebrate Christmas in July with this Easy No-Bake Christmas Cake from the November 1976 issue of Good Health.

1 Cup Evaporated Milk
2 Tablespoons Honey
2 Cups chopped Dates
2 Cups seeded Raisins
1 Cup Currants
1 Cup chopped Walnuts
2 Cups chopped and blanched Almonds
1 Cup chopped Mixed Peel
½ Cup chopped Dried Apricots
2 Cups Marshmallows
¼ Cup Glazed Cherries
4 Cups Crushed Sanitarium Weet-Bix

Wash fruit and leave overnight to dry thoroughly; leave cherries whole. Mix all ingredients together, and bind with evaporated milk and honey. Press into one large, lightly greased tin, or two smaller ones, and pack tightly. Then let it stand for 48 hours before it is used.

100 Years Ago
This month marks 100 years since the death of Ellen White. Included in the 12th of July, 1915 issue of the Australasian Record was a letter sent from California in May 1915. Included were these words from E.G. White;

“I am very weak. I am sure that this is my last sickness. I am not worried at the thought of dying. I feel comforted all the time that the Lord is near me. I am not anxious. The preciousness of the Saviour has been so plain to me. He has been a friend. He has kept me in sickness and in health.

“I do not worry about the work I have done. I have done the best I could. I do not think that I shall be lingering long. I do not expect much suffering. I am thankful that we have the comforts of life in time of sickness. Do not worry. I go only a little before others.”
