

Appropriately for a conservative survey, there is nothing daring or adventurous in this work. But readers needing a concise, sober, and basic coverage of the whole waterfront of NT studies will be well served by this well-established production.

Townsley, David, and Bjork, Russell. Scriptural Index to the New International Dictionary of New Testament Theology and Index to Selected Extrabiblical Literature. Regency Reference Library. Grand Rapids, Mich.: Zondervan Publishing House, 1985. 320 pp. Paperback, $8.95.

The valuable three-volume reference work, The New International Dictionary of New Testament Theology, which is a translation and expansion of the Theologisches Begriffslexikon zum Neuen Testament, was provided with several indices, but a scriptural index was not one of them. Users accustomed to such an index in the Theological Dictionary of the New Testament lamented its lack in the newer work.

The deficiency has now been remedied by two young scholars, with the help of that increasingly indispensable partner, the computer. The trio has even turned up a number of citation errors in the original work, and these are duly flagged in this index.

The index covers all references to the Jewish/Protestant canonical Scriptures, the Old Testament Apocrypha and Pseudepigrapha, Qumran, Josephus and Philo, the Apostolic Fathers, the Mishnah, and the Babylonian Talmud.

The volume comes in a soft binding and handy size, and it is clearly printed. Users of the NIDNTT will reach for this index often and with pleasure.
