CREATION, CATASTROPHE, AND CALVARY

John Templeton Baldwin, editor

People often ask, "In this scientific age, what difference does it make whether I believe the world was created in six literal days and that the world was destroyed by a global flood?"

Offering the latest in-depth biblical and geological analyses of issues related to the biblical creation and flood narratives, Creation, Catastrophe, and Calvary explains from a spiritual and theological standpoint the importance these beliefs have for our daily lives and faith.

Topics include:
- Why a six-day creation nonevolutionary worldview is supported by the best biblical scholarship available.
- Why and how Genesis 1 and 2 are complementary creation stories rather than conflicting stories.
- How and why the biblical text clearly demands a universal flood.
- What difference does it make whether we believe in a universal flood?
- Is progressive creation an appropriate position to adopt?

Seeker After Light:
A. F. Ballenger, Adventism, and American Christianity
by
Calvin W. Edwards and Gary Land

In 1905, Albion Fox Ballenger, a popular Seventh-day Adventist preacher, was released from employment for advocating views in conflict with Adventist teaching about Christ’s ministry in the heavenly sanctuary. Three quarters of a century later, another popular Adventist preacher again challenged the church’s sanctuary doctrine, with similar results for the challenger. In some important ways, the Ballenger case may be seen as a foreshadowing historical footnote to a doctrinal controversy that shook Adventism in the early 1980s.

Thus, in this meticulously researched volume, Calvin W. Edwards and Gary Land collaborate to provide the first in-depth scholarly examination of a revealing, if nearly forgotten, episode in Adventist history. Edwards and Land place Ballenger and the events surrounding his dismissal in the context of the times and in a manner that implies the relevance of those events to the church’s later discussions of some of the same issues.

Calvin W. Edwards is vice president of Ronald Blue & Co. in Atlanta, Georgia. Gary Land is professor and chair of the Department of History and Political Science at Andrews University.

"Religious commitment is a motivation, not a substitute, for careful thinking."

So writes Fritz Guy in Thinking Theologically, a new release from Andrews University Press and a work long awaited by his colleagues and students. Guy offers his philosophy of how North American Seventh-day Adventists ought to go about the business of "doing theology." The work is addressed to theological students, pastors and serious general readers who "are interested in...what theological thinking is, why it is important, who needs to be doing it, and how it should be done."

Chapter titles:

- What Theological Thinking Actually Is
- Why Everyone Should Think Theologically
- How Theological Thinking Should Begin
- Why Theological Thinking is Open-Ended
- How to Think with Intellectual Integrity
- How Scripture Should Function
- What Else Is Involved
- How Culture Makes a Difference
- What Logical Presuppositions Need to Be Identified
- What Forms Theological Thinking Can Take
- Why Tripolar Thinking is Essential

Fritz Guy is University Professor of Theology and Philosophy at La Sierra University. An influential thought leader among Seventh-day Adventists, he has been a teacher, college dean, pastor and university president.

Thinking Theologically is available in December, 1999.

| Hesban 10: The Necropolis of Hesban | S. Douglas Waterhouse (Andrews University)
This study classifies the dozens of tombs located in the Necropolis of Hesban into six types: chamber tombs with loculi radiating from the chamber, chamber tombs with adjoining arching alcoves (arcosolia), chamber tombs with both loculi and arcosolia, horizontal shaft tombs, vertical shaft tombs, and natural caves used as burial sites. The volume also includes a chapter dealing with the skeletal biology of the human remains from these tombs.
Published in 1998
Includes 29 figures, 85 plates, and 80 tables; 205 pages.

| Hesban 13: Faunal Remains | Øystein Sakala LaBianca (Andrews University) and Angela von den Driesch (University of Munich), eds.
More than 100,000 animal bone fragments were unearthed at Tell Hesban. This volume deals with domestic animal remains as well as with the remains of wild mammals, birds, reptiles, and fish. The volume has been praised by one of its reviewers for its multifaceted professional approach that includes both zooarchaeology (with its emphasis on biological aspects) and archaeozoology (with its emphasis on the cultural meaning of the bones).
Published in 1995
Includes 114 figures, 186 plates, and 135 tables; 236 pages.
