Theological Seminary.

In Models of Revelation-Inspiration, Fernando L. Canale analyzes the two main ways in which Christianity has understood the origin of biblical knowledge. Canale maximizes their strengths and avoids their weaknesses. By allowing us to see and use biblical knowledge in a new light, this model uncovers a new foundation for theological knowledge.

A.F. Ballenger, Adventism, and American Christianity

announces publication of

Seeker After Light: A. F. Ballenger, Adventism, and American Christianity

by

Calvin W. Edwards and Gary Land

In 1905, Albion Fox Ballenger, a popular Seventh-day Adventist preacher, was released from employment for advocating views in conflict with Adventist teaching about Christ's ministry in the heavenly sanctuary. Three quarters of a century later, another popular Adventist preacher again challenged the church's sanctuary doctrine, with similar results for the challenger. In some important ways, the Ballenger case may be seen as a foreshadowing historical footnote to a doctrinal controversy that shook Adventism in the early 1980s.

Thus, in this meticulously researched volume, Calvin W. Edwards and Gary Land collaborate to provide the first in-depth scholarly examination of a revealing, if nearly forgotten, episode in Adventist history. Edwards and Land place Ballenger and the events surrounding his dismissal in the context of the times and in a manner that implies the relevance of those events to the church's later discussions of some of the same issues.

Calvin W. Edwards is vice president of Ronald Blue & Co. in Atlanta, Georgia. Gary Land is professor and chair of the Department of History and Political Science at Andrews University.
