Study Tour: Hong Kong and Beijing, China
STUDY TOUR – HONG KONG & BEIJING, CHINA
MAY 2011

The School of Business Administration is hosting a study tour that will be taking place this summer. Earn academic credits while visiting the exotic sights of Hong Kong and Beijing, China. Hong Kong is a diverse and modern metropolis which blends Eastern and Western traditions. It is the fourth largest banking and financial center and the eighth largest trading economy in the world. Beijing, on the other hand, is China's political, economic, cultural, educational and international trade and communication center. It is a vibrant mix of history and modernity. It possesses a wealth of discovery that will delight and intrigue visitors. This will be a very fun and exciting way to earn 6 more credits towards an undergraduate degree. There are also spots available for non-business students. The two classes being taught are:

- ECON225 Principles of Macroeconomics (Fulfills social studies elective, BBA core, minor in management, marketing, or business administration, or general elective requirements)
- BSAD297 Intro to Global Business (Fulfills BBA core, elective in minor in management or business administration, or general elective requirements)

The tour will take place right after the end of Spring semester; pre-tour classes from May 2-4 and then the tour leaves on May 5. There will be classes (obviously) and excursions (cultural programs such as gymnastics or Chinese operas) and corporate visits and even a short time shopping before you leave to come home on June 2.

There are some forms to be picked up and filled out at the SBA-MMIS office (Chan Shun Hall room 218) and we will also need a copy of your passport ID page and insurance card, so make sure that you bring those with you. Forms and deposit are due February 1, or before if all spots are filled, so hurry to reserve your spot!

To sign up or to further inquire about the tour, please contact Jen at 471-3339 or birneyj@andrews.edu.

Spiritual Life Events Newsletter for January 10, 2011
Spiritual Life Events Newsletter for January 10, 2011. The Spiritual Life Events Newsletter is a weekly publication that contains a range of upcoming spiritual life events on the campus of Andrews University. If you'd like to know what's happening, click here to subscribe.
MLK Jr. Celebration Honors His Legacy

"Building the Beloved Community—From Horizon to Horizon: Global Women’s Achievements and Concerns" is the theme for the 2011 Martin Luther King Jr. Celebration at Andrews University. This year’s events, running Jan. 13–20, will honor the life and legacy of peace-advocating civil rights activist Martin Luther King Jr. and include a variety of activities to enhance the understanding and appreciation of his service. All public events take place on the campus of Andrews University.

The celebration kicks off with prominent historian, author and long-time political activist Barbara Ransby offering the keynote address for University Forum on Thursday, Jan. 13. The program begins at 11:30 a.m. in the Howard Performing Arts Center and is open to the public. Ransby has published dozens of articles and essays in scholarly and popular venues. In 2003, she authored the award-winning biography Ella Baker and the Black Freedom Movement: A Radical Democratic Vision. Currently, she continues her activist scholarship in the areas of gender and women’s studies.

Each year, Andrews observes a tradition of having a student present one of King’s sermons. This year’s honored student, John Coaxum, a first-year seminarian, will present, “Three Dimensions of a Complete Life” during New Life Fellowship Worship Service on Saturday, Jan. 15, at 11:30 a.m. in the Seminary Chapel located in the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary. The sermon was originally presented by King on April 9, 1967, at the New Covenant Baptist Church in Chicago, Ill.

In recognition of demonstrated service to meet the global concerns of women, Andrews University will honor Demetra Andreasen, Bertha M. King and Jasmine Jacob as the recipients of the 2011 Legacy of Freedom Awards. The Convocation and Awards Presentation will take place Sunday, Jan. 16, at 7 p.m. in the Seminary Chapel. The keynote speaker is Tricia Wynn of the Lake Region Conference of Seventh-day Adventists. The convocation and awards ceremony will also feature an "End It Now" display that highlights international efforts to eradicate all forms of violence against women.

An essential component of honoring King’s legacy is performing meaningful acts of community service. On Monday, Jan. 17, a group of pre-selected students will provide manicures, hairstyling and makeup for residents at a local women’s shelter. Childcare and snacks will also be provided.

Several other events are planned for the week, including a café poetry reading on Saturday, Jan. 15, at 7 p.m. in the Recreation Center located in the Campus Center. A special MLK Student Symposium Choice will also be held on Tuesday, Jan. 18, at 11:30 a.m. (Location TBA.) "The Daughters of Eve: Global Issues and Concerns" choice will be led by Claudia Allen, Kevin Leonor and Darlene Doran. The student scholars will present their original research developed in English 215. Following individual PowerPoint presentations, each student will participate in a panel discussion on the implications and consequences of their recent findings.

The week of events concludes on Thursday, Jan. 20, with a showing of Patsy Mink: Ahead of the Majority, a film documentary highlighting Mink, the first Asian American woman to serve in the United States Congress (Hawaii). The showing will take place in Garber Auditorium located in Chan Shun Hall at 7 p.m.

Cardinal Hockey Team Ranked First in Division

The Andrews University Cardinal Hockey Team is representing the school well this season. The Cardinals are first-place in the B Silver Division at the Ice Box Skating Rink in South Bend, Ind. The team plays in a men's recreation league against six other teams and currently holds a winning 7-4 record.

"This is the eighth year I've been involved with the Cardinals in a men's recreation league," says John Banks, team coach/sponsor and professor of physical therapy. "We've always done well. Every year, we've been one of the top three teams in divisions we've been placed in. There has been a steady improvement with many individuals as players and the team as a balanced, cohesive group."

This year, the Cardinals have played and beaten opponents such as Goshen College and University of Notre Dame faculty, winning some games by as many as 10 goals. The team currently leads the league in most goals for (59) and least goals against (30) and is the only team having won two shutout games.

The Cardinal hockey team is comprised of community members, University students and faculty. The roster includes: Ryan Agrey, Gordon Atkins, Kyle Cothran, Mat Feeley, Gary Johnson, Jeff Martins, Mike Martins, JC Neu, Andrew Pagels, Ruben Rios, Rob Ryan, Jared Slack, Nate Stafford (captain), Braden Teller, Daniel Tryon (alt. captain), and Paul Vivier.

The Cardinal's 26-game season will end in early April. The next game is scheduled for Wednesday, Jan. 5, at 10 p.m. at the Ice Box Skating Rink in South Bend, Ind. Students, faculty and community members are invited to attend free-of-charge.

For more information, visit www.iceboxskatingrink.org or check out www.eteamz.com/sbshl/calendar/ to view a complete hockey schedule.

Motorist Preparedness and More

If you are ever stranded on the road whether there is snow or not, there could less of an impact if you are equipped with an emergency kit. You can build your own inexpensive emergency kit and place it in your vehicle trunk for use in case of an emergency.

This kit should contain bottled water, energy bars, a flashlight, First Aid kit, jumper cables and a small shovel. The following website can provide you with more suggested items for your emergency kit: http://www.dmv.org/how-to-guides/emergency-kit.php.

Preparedness also extends beyond the vehicle. How do we prepare for a lack of water, shelter, food, communication with others, power, and caring for others? The following is a program called do1thing.

This program breaks down the issues and the job of preparedness into manageable achievable methods of being prepared. The program focuses on one area of emergency each month. I plan to check out this program and hope you will too.

I also just finished reading an article written by the Michigan State Police, entitled "December 8, 2010—Give the Gift of Preparedness this Holiday. " Perhaps, you forgot to give yourself a gift or there may be someone you forgot on your list this year. This article may give you the gift ideas you were searching for.
The safety and security of our campus depends on everyone's participation.

Lifelong Learning Opportunities

Participants in the Andrews Doctor of Ministry Program have access to an important lifelong learning opportunity. Once they have completed the four modules of a concentration they may attend the intensive in any future Doctor of Ministry module in any of our various concentrations free of any tuition charge. All that is required is notification of the Doctor of Ministry office and consent of the lead teacher.

We feel this is a contribution we can make as we partner together for the ongoing formation of leaders for God’s church. We all sense the call to give our best in service. Take advantage of it if you are one of our graduates!

Skip Bell
Director, Doctor of Ministry Program

Save the Date

The next Doctor of Ministry conference is scheduled for September 19-20, 2011, to convene at the Andrews University campus. Concentration coordinators, lead teachers, project advisors, Seminary faculty members, and any interested persons are invited to participate. The annual conference affords the opportunity for new ideas, inspiration, and dialogue toward the goal of continual improvement in the Doctor of Ministry journey. This year, the discussions will focus on the integration of advanced professional education with field experience.

Where Are They Now?

Andrews Doctor of Ministry graduates can be found around the globe:

Kjell Aune (’05) is the president of the Middle East Union Mission, headquartered in Cyprus.
Carlton Byrd (’07) is Director/Speaker for Breath of Life and the senior pastor for the Atlanta Berean church in Georgia, USA.
Anna Galenieze (’02) serves as Assistant Professor of Practical Theology at Adventist University of Africa in Nairobi, Kenya.
Aimable Niyobuhungiro (’08) was recently appointed Vice Rector at Adventist University of Central Africa in Kigali, Rwanda.
Santiago Rodriguez (’04) is a chaplain with the United States Navy.

Are you an Andrews DMin alumnus? Let us know where you are and what you’re doing now—we’d love to hear from you!

New Post-Graduate Certificate in Ministry

The new Post-Graduate Certificate in Ministry is designed to recognize the development of advanced competency for effective ministry experienced by persons who complete the four modules of an Andrews Doctor of Ministry concentration, but do not complete all program requirements. The certificate is issued for the specific concentration the participant has pursued, but only after the time limit for completing the Doctor of Ministry program has expired. The graduate credits earned in that specific concentration are preserved should the person wish to reapply at a later date to complete the Doctor of Ministry program.

Planning to start the DMin program in 2011? Wait no longer to apply!
Concentrations launching new cohorts in 2011:
Launching in April 2011 in Florida, this concentration prepares participants to lead a 21st century missionary movement for Western culture in a Seventh-day Adventist context.

The concentration is co-coordinated by the team of Dr. Michael F. Cauley, president of the Florida Conference, and Dr. Michael R. Cauley, pastor of the Oasis and Gracepoint churches in the Kentucky-Tennessee Conference. Applications may be submitted up to January 31, 2011.

Preaching

Dr. Hyveth Williams coordinates this concentration, designed to equip participants with resources for transformational prophetic preaching. Preaching the Word has the power to transform hearers. Participants will be challenged, inspired, and motivated to be great prophetic preachers of the 21st century. As graduates use the resources garnered from this concentration, congregational revival will be the anticipated reward. The first intensives will meet at the Andrews campus in July 2011. Application deadline is April 22, 2011.

Persons who are not United States citizens or permanent residents usually need student visas to attend intensives, and should apply at least 6-8 weeks earlier than the published application deadlines.

For more information about any of these cohorts, see www.doctorofministry.com, or call 1-888-717-6244.

The Andrews University Men's Cardinal Basketball Team is making a name for itself this season. The team is currently ranked third in the United States Collegiate Athletic Association (USCAA) Men's Division II and holds a winning 9-5 record. Facing off against opponents like Oakwood University and Kuyper College in the coming weeks, the Cardinals hope to secure victories as well as an invitation to the USCAA National Tournament in March.

"The men's basketball team has played at a very high level this year," says David Jardine, head coach for the Cardinals. "As their coach, I am extremely proud of these young men and their accomplishments thus far."

The 2011 USCAA National Tournament will take place on the campus of Penn State University in Fayette, Pa., March 1–5. Teams are selected based on a weekly coaches poll, which looks at strength of schedule, win/loss record, defensive points allowed and points scored. The 20 best USCAA teams are determined, and only the top eight will receive invitations to the event.

"The players are very dedicated and willing to do what is necessary to perform at the highest level possible," says Jardine. "If we continue to work hard and play together as a team, we have an excellent chance of making it to the national tournament this year."

This wouldn't be the first time the Cardinals competed at the event. In 2008, under the leadership of head coach Fred Paulsen, the men's basketball team won 3 of 4 games and placed fifth at the tournament. The Cardinals were led by USCAA All-American Sean Thorne and USCAA All-Tournament player Terrance Millen.

To learn more about the USCAA, visit www.theuscaa.com. For Cardinal game information, schedule and scores, visit http://www.andrews.edu/life/rec/intercollegiate/mens_basketball/schedule_scores.html.

News and Announcements from the Seminary Dean’s Office

December 6, 2010

“Do not entertain the thought that because you have made mistakes, because your life has been darkened by errors, your Heavenly Father does not love you and will not hear you when you pray. He says, "Him that cometh to Me I will in no wise cast out." "The Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy." His heart of love is touched by our sorrows, and even by our utterance of them. Take to Him everything that perplexes the mind. Nothing is too great for Him to bear; for He holds up worlds, He rules over the affairs of the universe. Nothing that in any way concerns our peace is too small for Him to notice. There is no chapter in our experience too dark for Him to read; there is no perplexity too difficult for Him to unravel. None have fallen so low, none are so vile, that they can not find deliverance in Christ. The demoniacs of Gadara, in the place of prayer could utter only the words of Satan; but yet the heart’s unspoken appeal was heard. No cry from a soul in need is unheeded.” (Ellen G. White, Signs of the Times, June 18, 1902)

ARIES (21 Marzo - 21 de Abril)

Still shaken

Quake impact felt a year later at Andrews benefit
By DEBRA Haight - H-P Correspondent

BERRIEN SPRINGS - "We Remember Haiti."

That was the simple message at Wednesday's one year anniversary benefit service to remember the Haitian earthquake victims: The people of Haiti will not be forgotten.

Andrews University students gathered Wednesday afternoon at the Howard Performing Arts Center for the special service, which included music, poetry and an art auction.

"It means a lot to be a part of it," said Beatrice Dolce, an Andrews student of Haitian decent. "What we're doing is just a small drop in the bucket compared to the great need. I feel blessed to be a part of it. We want to say that we will not forget our brothers and sisters.

"I called people I knew in Haiti today (Wednesday) and was able to pray with them. It has been very hard..."
for them. Some bodies are still in the rubble, only two percent of the rubble has been cleared (The Associated Press has reported less than five percent)."

The devastating Jan. 12, 2010, earthquake hit just before 5 p.m. and is estimated to have killed nearly a quarter of a million people. Another 300,000 were injured and more than 1 million people were left homeless.

The purpose of Wednesday's service was two-fold: To remember those who died after the 7.3-magnitude earthquake and to raise funds for a scholarship program for Haitian Adventist University.

HAU President Jean Josue Pierre was at Andrews to meet with university officials and attend the event. He said he is traveling through the United States this week attending similar events.

He said his campus was spared much of the damage, but many buildings were cracked.

"They look almost the same, but we have to replace them," he said in an interview. "The earthquake made things worse for the students and their families. Students want to come but they don't have the finances. We've been helping over 100 students, but that's not enough. We have a large number of students left behind."

He said the Haitian recovery process has been slow with many people still lacking food and shelter. He said his campus has sheltered as many as 25,000 people since the earthquake with 500 families still there.

Louise Albert of the Haitian American Graduate Students Association was one of several graduate and undergraduate students involved in organizing the event.

She was born in the United States but is of Haitian descent. As she puts it, she is part of the Haitian diaspora. She also helped organize a memorial service last February on campus.

"Our group (HAGSA) formed in response to the Haitian crisis," she said.

"There were about 80 students from Haiti or of Haitian descent at Andrews last year and a similar number this year.

"It's shocking that it's been a year. I would have expected a little bit more having been done. People are dying for reasons that could be avoided. We're grateful to the religious and private organizations. It shows that people still care."
Monday is Martin Luther King Jr. Day but Andrews University in Berrien Springs is getting the celebrations underway early, with a special speaker on Thursday morning.

This year’s events focus on the theme of women’s achievements and concerns.

Historian, author and long-time political activist Barbara Ransby will be speaking at 11:30 a.m. on Jan. 13 in the Howard Performing Arts Center on campus. It is free and open to the public.

Here's the latest news release from the university about other special events and its honorees this year:

"Building the Beloved Community—From Horizon to Horizon: Global Women’s Achievements and Concerns" is the theme for the 2011 Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Celebration at Andrews University. This year’s events, running Jan. 13–20, will honor the life and legacy of peace-advocating civil rights activist Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and include a variety of activities to enhance the understanding and appreciation of his service. All public events take place on the campus of Andrews University.

Each year, Andrews observes a tradition of having a student present one of King’s sermons. This year’s honored student, John Coaxum, a first-year seminarian, will present, "Three Dimensions of a Complete Life" during New Life Fellowship Worship Service on Saturday, Jan. 15, at 11:30 a.m. in the Seminary Chapel located in the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary. The sermon was originally presented by King on April 9, 1967, at the New Covenant Baptist Church in Chicago, Ill.

In recognition of demonstrated service to meet the global concerns of women, Andrews University will honor Demetra Andreasen, Bertha M. King and Jasmine Jacob as the recipients of the 2011 Legacy of Freedom Awards. The Convocation and Awards Presentation will take place Sunday, Jan. 16, at 7 p.m. in the Seminary Chapel. The keynote speaker is Tricia Wynn of the Lake Region Conference of Seventh-day Adventists. The convocation and awards ceremony will also feature an “End It Now” display that highlights international efforts to eradicate all forms of violence against women.

An essential component of honoring King’s legacy is performing meaningful acts of community service. On Monday, Jan. 17, a group of pre-selected students will provide manicures, hairstyling and makeup for residents at a local women’s shelter. Childcare and snacks will also be provided.

Several other events are planned for the week, including a café poetry reading on Saturday, Jan. 15, at 7 p.m. in the Recreation Center located in the Campus Center. A special MLK Student Symposium Choice will also be held on Tuesday, Jan. 18, at 11:30 a.m. (Location TBA.) “The Daughters of Eve: Global Issues and Concerns” choice will be led by Claudia Allen, Kevin Leonor and Darlene Doran. The student scholars will present their original research developed in English 215. Demetra Andreasen
Born in Greece, Demetra (Louganis) Andreasen attended Newbold College where she accepted the Adventist faith and met her husband, Niels-Erik Andreasen, who is currently president of Andrews University. Demetra received her Bachelor of Science in social work from Belmont University, Nashville, Tenn., in 1968. Prior to coming to Andrews University, Demetra worked as a medical social worker for Madison Hospital in Tenn., St. Helena Hospital in Calif., Royal Newcastle Hospital in Australia, and Parkview Community Hospital in Calif. She also served in the Office for Drug Prevention and the Department of Social Work at Walla Walla College in Washington. Demetra served as community relations coordinator for the Office of University Relations at Andrews University from 1994 until her retirement in 2005. During that time she served on a number of boards including United Way, Southwestern Michigan Volunteer Center and Women in Renewal, and as a member of the Lakeland Regional Health Systems Community Benefits Committee. When she and her husband moved to Andrews in 1994, she became chair of the Women’s Scholarship Committee. Ever since, Demetra has continued to raise funds for worthy Andrews students through friends and acquaintances. Her social work experience and love for people has motivated her to reach out to the areas of St. Joseph and Benton Harbor, Mich., where she continues to do volunteer work. In the last few years, Demetra has called upon friends to knit scarves for a Romanian SDA orphanage, the children of a Latvian mining village, and, recently, 40 children at the Harbor of Hope Adventist Church in Benton Harbor.

Jasmine Jacob

In 1973, Jasmine Jacob co-founded REACH (Render Effective Aid to Children) International, a not-for-profit organization, presently serving 26,000 children in 24 countries. Born in a very humble home in Sri Lanka, Jacobs later moved to Spicer Memorial College in India for education, then to America to attend Andrews University and Michigan State University. After arriving in the United States, Jacob accepted various teaching jobs while continuing her graduate education, eventually serving as a reading consultant in the Benton Harbor School District, a poor neighborhood just a short drive from Andrews University. In 1989, Jacob took early retirement with the State of Michigan and began working full-time for REACH International without salary. For 30 years, under her entrepreneurial leadership, REACH International has established its own schools, hostels, orphanages and vocational centers for destitute children, now with branches in 24 countries. Through childhood education, this organization has helped thousands of children break their inherited cycle of poverty.

Update on Ron Whitehead
On Thursday, Dec.16, Betty Whitehead shared the following update about her husband, Ron Whitehead following his surgery for a brain tumor.

Ron is now in his hospital room taking ice chips. After a 4 1/2 hour surgery, the doctor is hopeful that he got all the tumor, but will confirm tomorrow with an MRI. He stated that it appeared to be a typical benign adenoma. Though Ron looks great he says he feels like he was "hit by a truck, maybe a Peterbilt." He has minimal pain, and the anesthesia and sore throat from the ET tube haven’t slowed his chatter down. We are so thankful, and God is so GOOD!! We appreciate so much your many kind e-mails, texts, phone calls and prayers.

Pastor Ron Whitehead to Undergo Surgery
Pastor Ron Whitehead, who serves as Assistant to the President for Spiritual Life, asked that the following be shared with our University family:

Within the last few days, I have experienced sight loss and was diagnosed with a large pituitary adenoma (brain tumor). Surgery is scheduled at St. John’s Health Center, Santa Monica, California on Dec. 16, 2010 at 7 a.m. The hopeful news is these tumors are rarely malignant. I will be in the hospital for two days and will then stay in the area for a week for follow-up physician visits. My wife Betty and I hope to return home to Berrien Springs on Dec. 23. Our family would appreciate your prayers, knowing that God is in control and always faithful.

Meeting of the Berrien Springs Camera Club

The Berrien Springs Camera Club will meet Wednesday, Feb. 2, at 7 p.m. in the Berrien Springs Public Library at Cass (Old 31) and Union in Berrien Springs. This month’s program consists of a competition of prints and digital images submitted by members. The selected topics for the month include: 1) Candids and 2) Trees. Three additional categories are appropriate for all of our competitions: 1) Nature (nothing domesticated, nothing of a human origin), 2) Portraits, and 3) Open (any other subject).

This is an opportunity to submit those precious pictures of family and friends that don’t quite qualify as portraits. “Trees” can offer endless variety: different species, sizes, seasons, from a close-up of a leaf or grain in the bark to a panorama of a whole forest.

Prints, at least 5” x 7” in size, should be mounted, with the title and photographer’s name on the back. Instructions for submitting images in digital form are available on the club’s Website: http://photoclub.berrienspringsmi.us/.

All are welcome, either to observe or to join. Anyone who wishes to join may submit photos to the competition, up to 10 projected images and/or 10 prints. Refreshments will be served.

Spare room anyone?!
Would anyone be so kind as to share a spare room 2 nights a week during Spring 2011 semester? I commute 1 hour each way from Elkhart, IN, finishing my Landscape Design/Horticulture degree. Next semester I will have an evening class Mondays and Wednesdays, followed by early morning classes the following days. It would help me SO much to stay somewhere closer to AU those 2 nights. My sweet tempered and very well behaved golden retriever/german shepherd furry companion, Tango, comes along with me to class, and is getting really smart from attending school, too! He'd love to stay overnight with me, too, if anyone would welcome us both. I would be open to barter, or a small monetary exchange, or house-sitting. Oh, and if anyone has an extra older car with good gas mileage, the car I've been borrowing this semester will be going back to its owner soon. Thank you everyone!
