PROPHETIC CHEMISTRY: TOWARDS A RENEWABLE FUTURE

Live from San Diego, CA

Dr. Kim Albizati, an avid poker player, lifelong Laker fan and relentless basketball player, has extensive experience in both academic and industrial chemistry. At Agouron Pharmaceuticals, a San Diego area biotech success story, Kim built a 70-person strong department. There he created the first dedicated group in the pharmaceutical industry to use enzymatic biotransformations in chemical process development. This group gained an international reputation for its innovations in high-throughput enzyme screening, solvent effects in enzyme chemistry, process computational chemistry and manufacturing process development.

Kim obtained a Ph.D. in Organic Chemistry at UCLA and did postdoctoral work in marine natural products chemistry at Scripps Institution of Oceanography. In 1985 he joined the Department of Chemistry at Wayne State University, Detroit, MI, where he built a diverse research group, which included Desmond Murray, one of his first graduate students.

He has co-authored over 70 publications including two books, several book chapters, review articles and patents. In addition to being Chief Scientific Officer at SEA, Kim is a visiting professor at UCSD, has received the Revelle College Faculty Teaching Award twice and thoroughly enjoys his interaction with students.

Aggressive and/or Careless Driving
With each semester, we experience excitement and anxiety which come naturally with school projects, jobs, family, finances and even the weather. We must take care to prevent these moods from affecting our driving.

Things like "careless/reckless/aggressive driving," and "road rage" are used to describe a person’s behavior when driving unsafely. Driving is a privilege for citizens and guests of this country, granted to us in the form of a permit from our state government and the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA), better known as vehicle operator license. While we should drive safely and defensively, the reality is that more and more drivers are becoming aggressive drivers, even though this behavior could threaten the lives of other road users as well as their own.

The National Highway Traffic Safety Administration and Michigan State Police have accepted this definition of aggressive driving: when individuals commit a combination of moving traffic offenses so as to endanger other persons or property. It is estimated 66% of road fatalities are caused by aggressive driving behaviors.

The most common behaviors of aggressive drivers include exceeding the posted speed limit, following too closely (tail gating), failure to obey traffic control devices (stop signs, yield signs, traffic signals, railroad grade cross signals, etc.), red light running, erratic or unsafe lane changes and improperly signaling lane changes.

Aggressive driving by definition is a traffic offense, but can escalate into road rage, which is a criminal offense. Road rage is defined by the NHTSA as "an assault with a motor vehicle or other dangerous weapon by the operator or passenger(s) of one motor vehicle on the operator or passenger(s) of another motor vehicle or is caused by an incident that occurred on a roadway."

On aggressive driving, there are two separate statutes which are concepts of aggressive driving. They are “Careless Driving” and “Reckless Driving.” The difference between careless and reckless driving is one of intent and/or the possible consequences of such an act.

Under Michigan Criminal Law, the definition for careless and reckless driving can be found at MCL 257.626b Careless Driving and MCL 257.626 Reckless Driving (note web links below).

Safety must our priority at all times, so drive carefully, and enjoy the roads at Andrews University. The safety and security of our campus depends on everyone’s participation.

Vacation and Mission in One

Christmastime cruises are pretty common, and for good reason—you can spend a week or so doing exactly what you want in a warm, sunny place, while someone else cleans your room and serves your meals. But what if you went on a cruise with the intent of serving others?

That’s the purpose of Cruise with a Mission, an annual Christmastime mission project under the direction of José Bourget, assistant director of the Center for Youth Evangelism. On December 12, 2010, just over 100 participants left Tampa Bay, Fla., to assist with mission projects throughout the Caribbean, strengthen their relationship with God and form friendships. The Andrews University Board of Trustees is promoting spiritual growth on campus like never before. Thanks to generous donations given by board members, E. Edward and Ann Zinke of the Foundation for Adventist Education, Andrews faculty and staff, along with a host of other donors, all current University students were able to receive an Andrews Study Bible free-of-charge. Distributions took place in January just in time to get the Word of God into the hands of every student prior to Weeks of Spiritual Emphasis.

Before the beginning of fall semester, Andrews faculty and staff donated funds to the Bibles for Freshmen project. It provided an Andrews Study Bible for each incoming freshman. That project took on a new life at the October Board of Trustees meeting. Engineering student Sandra Prieto opened the board meeting with a word of prayer. Sandra, who had previously donated toward the Bibles for Freshmen project by sponsoring a Bible for an incoming Andrews freshman, then shared the impact the Andrews Study Bible gift had on her. That launched the Board of Trustees into a conversation of how they could also support the project. In a matter of minutes, the board collectively pledged $18,000 of their personal funds to expand on the Bibles for Freshmen project to provide Bibles for all current students. In the end, those gifts, combined with funds from the Foundation for Adventist Education and other donations, totaled nearly $64,000.

Graduate students received their Andrews Study Bible at the first distribution event on Thursday, Jan. 13, in the Howard Performing Arts Center. Students were asked to sit with classmates from their respective schools/college while deans, department chairs and faculty distributed the books.

During the graduate convocation service, President Niels-Erik Andreasen engaged in conversation with Edwin Hernandez, an Andrews alum and a trustee who supported the Andrews Study Bible distribution project. Hernandez recalled the October board meeting and said the decision to sponsor Bibles for all Andrews students was "Spirit-led." "We wanted to ensure all students had access to this extraordinary resource," Hernandez said. "These study Bibles will not only help students grow spiritually but also scholastically," said graduate student Elkyn Beltre. "I think that it was very generous and thoughtful of the board members to give this gift to us." Elkyn is just one of many students who plan to use this gift for both personal devotions and academic study.

The distribution event for undergraduates came just one week later, on Thursday, Jan. 20. Following chapel at Pioneer Memorial Church, Ron Whitehead, assistant to the president for spiritual life, shared with the students the story behind this gift.

"Most Christian universities give Bibles to students when they reach graduation," he explained, "...but 20–30% of students who start as freshmen won’t make it to graduation! So we thought, ‘Why not give one to them at the beginning?’"
A host of Office of Campus Ministries leaders and faculty/staff from across campus helped pass out the Bibles. Bookmarks highlighting a list of Sabbath School and small group opportunities to utilize the study Bible were also given out.

"It tells a lot about a person where they put their money. It's really nice to know the University cares that much about us to give out of their own pockets," said Kali Jardine, biology major. "I feel like the study Bible will be a tool I can use to refresh my devotional life and give me a new perspective on what I read. I'm excited for this opportunity and the blessings it will bring."

-Written by Ashleigh Jardine, student news writer, with additional reporting by Keri Suarez, media relations specialist, Office of Integrated Marketing & Communication
The Department of Communication has officially moved... temporarily. Originally located in Room 209 of Nethery Hall, the Department is now just down the hall, in Room 203; previously the Writing Center. It seemed the packing was never-ending, the boxes sky-high, but we made it. And we will do our best to accommodate you in our new space.

The move is part of the Great Andrews Campout—the relocation of various offices during the construction of Buller Hall and renovation of Nethery Hall. The Department is scheduled to move, once more, to an undetermined location come May 2011, and lastly move back "home" to a remodeled Room 209 by August 2011.

For those still in need of pre-writing, editing and revising assistance, visit the Writing Center, now stationed in the basement of the James White Library, Room 133, behind the periodical stacks.

After 1 ½ years at Andrews, Megan thought she wanted to be a lawyer. But she eventually gravitated toward the Department of Communication—even then, having doubts. "I felt like 'Communications' was too broad," she said, "but I found I really liked the Public Relations side of Communication.

As a Junior Public Relations major, Megan, along with her brother, Tyler, owns her own construction and painting company, GMT, which stands for "God, Megan, Tyler". The company is based out of Massachusetts and is still new; only established in Summer 2010. She started the business as a way to earn income and provide monetary support for her and Tyler's education.

"My Dad owns a similar business," she says, "which he also started in college. My Dad is definitely my motivator. It is a bonding experience for us." But working with family is not always easy. Megan notes, "You definitely have to have good communication skills (cont. on page 3)...
Message from the Chair

Bright moonlight beamed into my room and reminded me of the spiritual festival, Ramadan, Islam’s holy month that is currently being honored. Ramadan is about the calendar and the clock. Early August, the world’s largest clock began ticking in Mecca. It took about 90 million pieces of colored glass mosaic to cover its tower. Green and white lights flash five times daily to remind Muslims to pray. This reflects the Islamic worldview of imperialism that Islam must eventually dominate the entire world. This has been commanded by the Koran and Muhammad. For those who are not in Mecca, there are cell phone apps, like iPray, which beeps at prayer times.

There are other apps that support the ancient traditions of Islam in a high-tech way. ‘Find Mecca’ (all need to face Mecca when they pray) and ‘mosque finder’ help Muslim travelers in unfamiliar cities to find the nearest place to pray. There are other religions that have gone high-tech as well. The objective is to help Muslims become more fervent and to live a more observant life.

1 Chronicles 22 reports on King David’s enthusiasm to build a temple that would truly be representative of his worldview in which God was the center. He stockpiled the following: 3,775 tons of gold, 37,750 tons of silver, tons of bronze and iron, and charged his son Solomon to do the job that God had given him to do. David’s enthusiasm was a reflection of his great love for the God who had chosen him, forgiven and redeemed him.

The Biblical worldview does not advocate imperialism, but rather a missionary zeal. E.G. White reflects on communion with God as the highest education: “Whatever line of investigation we pursue, with a sincere purpose to arrive at truth, we are brought in touch with the unseen, mighty Intelligence that is working in and through all. The mind of man is p. 14). Do we need apps to remind us to stay in touch? Is it only about calendars and the biggest clock in the world? Or is it about the Light of the World that we reflect as missionaries with a message of good news, all day, everyday?

This new year, have you dedicated your whole being to your Creator? Education is about the restoration of the image of God in man. It is about redemption and how we are special to God who sent His Son to redeem us. He made us and He will remake us. Communion with Him is the most important communication activity that we will study about and learn to value.

Campbell Passing a Shock

Andrew Anthony Campbell, 32, graduated from the Department of Communication with a Masters in Communication Interdisciplinary Studies in May 2010. But the night of August 31, 2010, Campbell complained of stomach and chest pains and had called for help to his Garland apartment. Andrews University Public Safety, an ambulance, and local law enforcement reacted to the call. Campbell was pronounced dead on scene. It was later determined he had died of natural causes.

A Celebration Service for Campbell was held September 13 in Ontario, Canada and a Memorial Service held on September 18 in the Seminary Chapel on the campus of Andrews University. Our condolences go out to the family of Andrew Campbell. He is dearly missed.

Megan’s PR major has assisted in making GMT known. They have already been able to collect a large number of potential contractors through their phone calls, brochures, and business cards. “It’s a lot of work to get your name out there,” she says, “but many people have called back saying they love our work. The value of networking is huge and persistence is key in maintaining contacts.” She enjoys managing her own business because she enjoys working for herself. “I can motivate myself,” she says, “that way there is never anyone on my back about getting something done.”

Megan also serves as a Reader and Office Assistant in the Department and assists in our television ministries. We are happy to have her as a shining example of initiative and leadership.

Update on Ron Whitehead

On Thursday, Dec.16, Betty Whitehead shared the following update about her husband, Ron Whitehead following his surgery for a brain tumor.

Ron is now in his hospital room taking ice chips. After a 4 1/2 hour surgery, the doctor is hopeful that he got all the tumor, but will confirm tomorrow with an MRI. He stated that it appeared to be a typical benign adenoma. Though Ron looks great he says he feels like he was "hit by a truck, maybe a Peterbilt." He has minimal pain, and the anesthesia and sore throat from the ET tube haven't slowed his chatter down. We are so thankful, and God is so GOOD!! We appreciate so much your many many kind e-mails, texts, phone calls and prayers.

Surgery is scheduled at St. John's Health Center, Santa Monica, California on Dec. 16, 2010 at 7 a.m. The hopeful news is these tumors are rarely malignant. I will be in the hospital for two days and will then stay in the area for a week for follow-up physician visits. My wife Betty and I hope to return home to Berrien Springs on Dec. 23. Our family would appreciate your prayers, knowing that God is in control and always faithful.

Andrews Student to Compete on NBC's "The Sing-Off"
“Our intentions are to use the opportunity as a ministry...We’re proud of our faith!” says Geston Pierre, a graduate student at the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary at Andrews University in Berrien Springs, Mich. Pierre will be performing in one of ten groups chosen for NBC’s competition series, "The Sing-Off," a five-night holiday event featuring a cappella singers from around the country. Pierre is one of six singers in Committed, the only Christian a cappella group featured in the event.

"The Sing-Off," hosted by recording artist Nick Lachey, will premier its second season on Monday, Dec. 6, from 8–10 p.m. The competition will continue on Dec. 8, 13 and 15 and culminate in a live finale on Dec. 20 (8–10 p.m. ET each night). Committed is one of ten groups competing for the grand prize: a recording contract with Sony Music and a cash prize of $100,000.

The group began as a quartet in 2003 at Forest Lake Academy, Orlando, Fla., and expanded to six members in 2005. Members include Dennis Baptiste, Alain Gervais, Geston Pierre, Robert Pressely, Maurice Staple and Theron Thomas. The all-Adventist sextet debuted at Oakwood University, Huntsville, Ala., for a freshman concert in October 2005 and continued singing at various church and school events in the state and across the country. Committed has performed their biggest gig to date at a United Christian Artists Association Legends Ball in Nashville, Tenn., making "The Sing-Off," "The biggest opportunity we’ve ever had," says Pierre.

"The Sing-Off" was taped in Hollywood, Calif., August through mid-September. The group faced several challenges in July when they were first accepted to the show. "We knew we would have Sabbath issues and problems," says Pierre. "So we contacted the producers of the show and told them we wouldn’t be able to perform or rehearse on Saturdays. This disturbed them, because a lot of the taping takes place on that day."

The group waited one week, wondering whether or not they would have to "kiss everything goodbye," says Pierre. At the end of July, the singers learned that their taping dates had been changed to Mondays and Wednesdays, a miracle the group "knew was from God."

Committed members hail from Alabama, Virginia and Michigan and are all between the ages of 22–24. Five are graduates of Oakwood University and the sixth is a junior music major at the school. Last year’s series winner, Nota, was also comprised of Seventh-day Adventists who are currently working on their album.

"We’re really excited to be on the show," says Pierre. "Our intentions are to use the opportunity as a ministry. After the show, we’ll have more influence and know more people. We see that as an opportunity to use our exposure for God’s glory."

Epic Records will release digital tracks of each group’s performance immediately following the airing of each episode. All 10 groups will also be featured on "The Sing-Off: Harmonies for the Holidays" being released by Epic Records on November 30. Look for Committed members to perform in the Macy’s Thanksgiving Day Parade and for their guest appearance on Warner Bros.’ "The Ellen DeGeneres Show" in early December.

She was preceded in death by two brothers, Stanley and Francis Friestad.
Thank You from Nina Elmendorf-Steele

Dear AU Family ~

How grateful I am for all the prayers, visits, cards, gifts, and support shown during my recent back surgery and recuperation. While this has been much more extensive and long-term than anticipated, the outpouring of your care has deeply touched my heart.

Your kind thoughtfulness also included an exquisite arrangement which graced my hospital room; its composition reminding me of just one of the many reasons I love this campus: the abounding and varied diversity. The bouquet combined fresh-cut and wild flowers, ferns and meadow grasses, pods and buds - all with rich colors, varying hues, and delicate textures which blended to create a breathtaking, living reminder of God’s creation.

Andrews University abounds in similar ways; contrasting yet intermingling on multiple levels to converge the rich dynamics of a faith-focused, thinking, international community. Jesus is our common denominator, and with Him as our closest friend, all who are connected with AU will continue to seek knowledge, affirm faith, and change the world!

Thanks again,

~Nina Elmendorf-Steele

Meeting of the Berrien Springs Camera Club

The Berrien Springs Camera Club will meet Wednesday, Feb. 2, at 7 p.m. in the Berrien Springs Public Library at Cass (Old 31) and Union in Berrien Springs. This month’s program consists of a competition of prints and digital images submitted by members. The selected topics for the month include: 1) Candids and 2) Trees. Three additional categories are appropriate for all of our competitions: 1) Nature (nothing domesticated, nothing of a human origin), 2) Portraits, and 3) Open (any other subject).

This is an opportunity to submit those precious pictures of family and friends that don’t quite qualify as portraits. “Trees” can offer endless variety: different species, sizes, seasons, from a close-up of a leaf or grain in the bark to a panorama of a whole forest.

Prints, at least 5" x 7" in size, should be mounted, with the title and photographer’s name on the back. Instructions for submitting images in digital form are available on the club’s Website: http://photoclub.berrienspringsmi.us/.

All are welcome, either to observe or to join. Anyone who wishes to join may submit photos to the competition, up to 10 projected images and/or 10 prints. Refreshments will be served.

Free Counseling Services

The Andrews Community Counseling Center (ACCC) has openings for a number of new clients. Graduate-level practicum students provide FREE services and have training in counseling adults, adolescents and children.

All practicum therapists have been evaluated by licensed professionals as ready to provide counseling in a supervised clinic setting, and each practicum therapist receives weekly supervision by a licensed, doctoral-level psychologist.

Types of referral issues accepted include (among others):
- academic problems
- behavioral problems
- social skills problems
- bullying problems (victims and perpetrators)
- depression
- anxiety
- parent-child conflict
- many others

Therapists work with youth or adults; with individuals, couples or families. We even have a play therapy room to accommodate young clients. Therapy sessions are, of course, completely confidential.

To make an appointment or if you any questions, please contact the ACCC at 269-471-6238. If the ACCC is closed, please leave a message (which is kept confidential) and someone will return your call as soon as possible.

Is your family looking for something new to do this winter? We Can! Healthy Berrien is offering a program designed to make nutrition and exercise fun for kids and their parents. We Can! Be Healthy is a free six-week program that brings local families together with experts on healthy eating and staying active. The program will take place on Thursdays, from 4:30 p.m. to 6:00 p.m., beginning January 27 and ending March 3, at the Benton Harbor-St. Joseph YMCA, 3665 Hollywood Road, St. Joseph. We Can!
