Photo of the Week: We are in the midst of our annual support of United Way. The money we and other local institutions provide stays in the area and helps local agencies, schools and support systems meet needs involving families, single parents, children and others who have run into hard times. Some members of our own University family have over the years benefitted from United Way programs. For more information on United Way of Southwest Michigan, please visit www.uwsm.org.

While your participation is completely voluntary, I do encourage you to participate again this year. Pledge forms were sent out three weeks ago and can be remitted to Dalry Payne in the Office of the President (0670). If you would like another form or have a question, feel free to contact Dalry, who has volunteered again this year to coordinate our United Way campaign.

Sincerely,
Niels-Erik Andreasen
President

Pirates of Penzance: Three Performances This Weekend!

Nov. 5-6
Howard Performing Arts Center

Andrews University’s Department of Music will present a dramatic production of The Pirates of Penzance, by W.S. Gilbert and Arthur Sullivan, featuring vocal majors from the department. Directed by Julia Lindsay, assistant professor of music, there are three opportunities to catch a performance at the Howard Performing Arts Center:

- 8 p.m., Saturday, Nov. 5
- 3 p.m., Sunday, Nov. 6
- 7 p.m., Sunday, Nov. 6

This comic opera follows Frederic, a young man accidently placed in apprenticeship to tenderhearted pirates by his partially deaf nurse who heard "pirate" when her master instructed "pilot."
Having completed his 21st year of apprenticeship, Frederic is released from the pirates and soon falls in love with Mabel, the daughter of Major General Stanley. However, after discovering he was born on February 29, and consequently has a birthday only each leap year, Frederic realizes that he must technically serve until his 21st birthday—an additional 63 years away. Frederic’s sole consolation is that Mabel promises to wait for him.

Tickets to see The Pirates of Penzance are $10 for general admission, $8 for senior citizens, and free to students with ID and children age 12 and under. For tickets, call the Howard Box Office at 269-471-3560. For more information, please contact Julia Lindsay by phone at 269-240-5621 or email

What characteristics and components are essential to have? Come hear 6 men share "What a Man Wants" from their respective single, dating, and married statuses on Sunday, Nov. 6 at 8 p.m. in the Lamson Hall Chapel. See the beauty of God at work.

Study Tour
May 2012

Sponsored by the School of Business Administration
Weekend Excursions

The Three Sisters is a rock formation located in the Blue Mountains. An Aboriginal legend claims that 3 sisters were turned into stone in order to stop a forbidden inter-tribal marriage.

Sunnyside is the home of Ellen White when she lived in Australia. The Desire of Ages book was completed here as Ms. White witnessed and gave guidance to several new Christians. Next door is the South Sea Islands Museum which houses several artifacts recording the progress of Christianity in the South Pacific Islands.

Enjoy walking 15 meters above the forest floor at the TreeTop Adventure Park. Several exciting tree top challenges, including sliding down the Zipline or moving from tree to tree on suspension bridges!

Experience and learn about the life and times in an authentic rainforest at the Australian Rainforest Sanctuary. Discover the beauty of the forest with its almost 200 different species of rainforest flora and more than 126 species of native birds.

A submerged natural wonder of unparalleled beauty, the Great Barrier Reef is the world’s biggest coral reef system. The reef is home to an incredible array of life forms including coral, colorful fishes, giant turtles, humpback whales, dolphins, manta rays, sea birds, and more!

Life in Sydney

An architectural masterpiece, the Sydney Opera House is one of the world’s busiest performing arts centers. Stroll the outdoor terraces, then join a guided tour for a look inside. The opera house is located in the Sydney Harbor.

A breathtaking view of Sydney can be seen from the top of Sydney Tower. Standing 1,014 ft tall, the Sydney Tower is the tallest building in Sydney and the 2nd tallest in Australia.

At the Taronga Zoo observe a large collection of animals in near-natural enclosures. An exciting feature is having your picture taken with a koala bear!

The Sydney Aquarium features over 11,000 marine animals. The highlight is the underwater tunnels where you can “walk on the ocean floor.”

United Way Campaign at 43% of Goal

The program is now at $4,300 of a $10,000 goal, and is in need of more support.

Dear Colleagues:

We are in the midst of our annual support of United Way. The money we and other local institutions provide stays in the area and helps local agencies, schools and support systems meet needs involving families, single parents, children and others who have run into hard times. Some members of our own University family have over the years benefitted from United Way programs. For more information on United Way of Southwest Michigan, please visit http://www.uwsm.org/.

While your participation is completely voluntary, I do encourage you to participate again this year. Pledge forms were sent out three weeks ago and can be remitted to Dalry Payne in the Office of the President (0670). If you would like another form or have a question, feel free to contact Dalry, who has volunteered again this year to coordinate our United Way campaign.

Sincerely,

Niels-Erik Andreasen
President

New Manager of Howard Center

Date: November 3, 2011
Contact: hpac@andrews.edu
Website: http://www.howard.andrews.edu/
Phone: 269-471-3560

A familiar face is taking over leadership at the Howard Performing Arts Center. Erica Slikkers, who has served as assistant manager at the Howard since January of 2008, is the new manager. She assumes the role following the departure of Debbie Weithers, who is now serving as a senior development officer in the Andrews University Office of Development.

"Erica is highly qualified to be the new manager for the Howard Center, and we are thrilled that she has accepted this challenge," says Dave Faehner, vice president for University Advancement at Andrews University.

While a student at Andrews University, Slikkers worked at the Howard Performing Arts Center first as a marketing and communication assistant from August 2003 to May 2006 and later as a contract writer during the 2006–07 season. Upon graduation in 2006 with a Bachelor of Arts in public relations with a minor in music from Andrews University, she took a job in finance and freight claims for USF Holland. When the assistant manager position at the Howard Performing Arts Center opened up in late 2007, Slikkers applied and was hired as assistant manager in January 2008.

As the assistant manager for the past three years, Slikkers has held a wide range of responsibilities in the areas of event coordination, marketing, promotions and management. She also directly oversaw management of the 70-person volunteer team that serves as ushers for Howard Center events.

"I'm very excited about this next step in my career," says Slikkers. "I've worked so closely with Debbie Weithers for the past three and a half years and feel well-prepared to continue the excellence she has created and nurtured at the Howard. It's such a privilege to bring high profile artists and great music to Andrews University and Berrien Springs."

Her passion for music extends beyond her role at the Howard. Slikkers is a classically trained violinist of 17 years who loves to teach. In 2008, she worked as a violin instructor for the Dance & Music Asylum in Saugatuck, Mich., where she instructed students from beginner to intermediate. The southwest Michigan commute, particularly during the inclement winter months, proved challenging so in May 2008, Slikkers opened a private violin studio based out of Berrien Springs. She currently instructs eight students from intermediate to beginner.

Originally from Holland, Mich., Slikkers currently resides in Baroda, Mich. A true southwest Michigander, she counts Lake Michigan as one of her favorite things. She also loves biking, running and reading.

Special acknowledgment was given to Department of Communication; Debbie Michel, editor-in-chief and associate professor of communication; layout editor Daniel Campbell, a senior visual communication major; layout editor, Victor Mills, a senior visual communication major; managing editor Glenn Roper II, a master's student in communication; and copy editor Michele Joseph, adjunct faculty in the Department of Communication.

"To receive an award in honor of Reger Smith is very special to us," said Delyse Steyn, chair of the Andrews University Department of Communication. "His influence and interest in our department was profound and meaningful."

Andrews to Host 20th Annual Acrofest

Date: October 28, 2011
Contact: lighthal@andrews.edu
Website: http://www.andrews.edu/cas/gymnics/acrofest
Phone: 269-471-3357

Andrews University is gearing up to host the 20th annual Acrofest, an event that brings Seventh-day Adventist gymnasts together from institutions across the country and around the world, from Nov. 10–12, 2011. Each year, a different Seventh-day Adventist institution hosts Acrofest, offering gymnasts an opportunity for spiritual renewal and a chance to collaborate with other gymnasts, including a live final performance on Saturday, Nov. 12, at 8 p.m. in the Johnson Gymnasium. Tickets are required, but it is open to the public.

This year’s Acrofest attendees will come from as far away as Antillean Adventist University in Puerto Rico and Canadian University College in Lacombe, Alberta. Acrofest will take place in the Johnson Gymnasium on the campus of Andrews University in Berrien Springs, Mich. This year’s theme, “He Could Have Said No, But He Said Yes,” will emphasize the ultimate sacrifice Christ made for mankind.

“This isn’t just a Gymnastics event; it’s an Andrews University event. We’ve got volunteers from across campus—students, faculty and staff—who are helping in so many ways, including just simply serving food to our nearly 1,000 Acrofest guests,” says Christian Lighthall, coach for the Andrews University Gymnics.

The first Acrofest was held in 1991 at Andrews University. Under the leadership of Coach Robert Kalua, that first Acrofest drew 600 gymnasts and their coaches. By creating a non-competitive atmosphere, Coach Kalua helped establish opportunities for quality instruction and aimed for education and team development within the Seventh-day Adventist educational system.

During the three-day event, gymnasts have several opportunities to hone their skills. Workshops, such as Learning Pyramids and Human Video (using gymnastic skills to portray Biblical themes) are complemented by clinic stations, such as tumbling, which will offer gymnasts a chance to test-tumble on various types of tumbling floors. A unique opportunity this year is a circus station run by a circus fraternity from Illinois State University.

During Acrofest, the Seventh-day Adventist Gymnastics Association will convene with approximately 60 coaches expected to attend. Coach Lighthall is currently serving as president of the association. He was elected in July for a four-year term. Lighthall says, “We will be discussing and finalizing the mission, guidelines and bylaws of the Seventh-day Adventist Gymnastics Association.

On Saturday, Nov. 12, Matt Gamble, speaker for the self-supporting ministry Vagabond Servant, and an Andrews alum, will be giving the Sabbath sermon in Johnson Gym at 10 a.m.

The public is invited to attend the closing ceremony for Acrofest on Saturday, Nov. 12, at 8 p.m. in the Johnson Gymnasium. All the teams will be participating in this visually captivating finale. Tickets are $10 each and children on laps are free. Tickets are available at the Pool Desk in Beaty Gym, the desk at Fitness & Exercise Studies located in the lower level of Johnson Gym or at the door. “Tickets will sell out so advance purchase is highly recommended,” says Lighthall.

The Andrews University Gymnics is a 30-member team of sports acrobats. They combine difficult balancing stunts, complex pyramid building involving multiple transitions, progressive ground tumbling, teeterboard routines, handstand pressing on block stands and mini-tramp routines in a one-hour program. In addition to their visually fantastic performances, they take pride in their anti-drug assemblies and religious programming.

10-26-11 Andrews Professor Named a “Personal Trainer to Watch”

Noted for her “significant commitment to fitness and in helping their clients achieve a lasting lifestyle change”

Berrien Springs, Mich.—On Friday, Oct. 14, 2011, at the 26th annual Club Industry Show in Chicago, Dominique Wakefield, director of fitness and exercise studies at Andrews University, assistant chair of the Department of Nutrition & Wellness and assistant professor in that department, was named one of ten “Personal Trainers to Watch” by the American Council on Exercise (ACE) and Life Fitness.

After a six-month nationwide competition, ACE and Life Fitness, the leading manufacturer of commercial fitness equipment, named ten finalists along with the one "Top Personal Trainer to Watch" from a pool of 300 nominees, taken from over 260,000 fitness professionals in the U.S. Wakefield, one of the finalists, was recognized for her “significant commitment to fitness and in helping their clients achieve a lasting lifestyle change,” said Chris Clawson, president of Life Fitness. A video of all the finalists is on YouTube: www.youtube.com/watch?v=C8fJlyw3VU.

Wakefield has initiated a number of fitness initiatives on campus since arriving in 2008, including the FitZone fitness lab, a Bachelor of Science in Health & Fitness, a Bachelor of Health Science in Wellness and a minor in Fitness Education; programs to certify students as personal trainers or group fitness instructors, the annual Fitness Expo, and has helped to encourage an atmosphere of fitness across campus. She is also instrumental in Pioneer Memorial Church’s Health and Wellness Ministries, and assisted with the organization of the first Let’s Move Day. She holds a leadership role in the faculty fitness initiative AhealthyU, is an ACE-certified personal trainer, and is assistant coach for the Lady Cardinals soccer team.

Wakefield was nominated for her dedication to physical fitness and motivating the Andrews campus to achieve their God-given goal. She says, “God has created us so wonderfully and He has created our bodies to be active and to move! Caring for the body is an essential part of our beliefs in the Seventh-day Adventist Church, but physical fitness has not received nearly as much focus and attention as have other parts of the health message. Our community is struggling with the same issues and diseases that the rest of America is dealing with and physical fitness will provide many solutions to these problems!”
