Photo of the Week: Tonight (Tuesday, Nov. 29) is the opening reception for "Ivan LaBianca in Libya," a photo exhibition. It’s from 6-8 p.m. in the Art & Design Gallery (Smith Hall). LaBianca is an anthropology major at Andrews University. His passion for photography led him to take a semester off from college to travel to North Africa twice this year. While there, he documented the Libyan revolution as it swept across the country. His exhibition will feature photos such as the one pictured above where, on June 6, 2011, Libyan revolutionary fighters in Jadu celebrated their graduation from a two-week weapons crash-course. "Most have never held a gun before,” says LaBianca. "Many tried to hide their faces since they traveled illegally from Tripoli to join the fight.” Co-curricular credit is offered. Read more.

Campus Safety Acquires New Video Radar
The Office of Campus Safety has acquired a new handheld video radar unit in response to complaints about excessive speeding throughout campus. It is an intricate piece of equipment, yet simple to use. The user of the video radar must stand in a visible area while operating the device. The video radar displays a laser when focused on a particular vehicle, automatically taking a video recording and displaying the vehicle's velocity. If the recording indicates a vehicle surpassing the posted speed limit, a citation is generated and emailed to the offender. This video radar unit is intended to benefit both the Andrews University community and those passing through by making for a safer campus through speed reduction.

Weather Closing Procedures, Personal Responsibility and Class Cancellations
In the event of severe winter weather conditions, the Office of Transportation and the Office of Campus Safety begin conferring at 2 a.m. and again at 5 a.m. Transportation is responsible for clearing the snow from the parking lots and campus roads. Campus Safety sends a vehicle out to personally check the main roads coming into Berrien Springs and confers with colleagues in the offices of the state, county, sheriff and Berrien Springs police, receiving an update on the road conditions in the 36 square miles of Berrien and Oronoko Township.

If the roads are clear, the campus traffic areas can be plowed and weather conditions are reasonable, the day proceeds like any other work/school day. However, if the local roads are impassable, Transportation is not able to keep up with the snow plowing on campus or there are significant power failures on campus, the chief of Campus Safety, Dale Hodges, confers with President Andreasen to recommend cancelling classes for the day.

The president makes the final decision and authorizes the cancellation of classes. It is then the responsibility of the Office of Integrated Marketing & Communication to distribute information to local TV and radio stations; update the school closing hotline (269-471-7660); send a broadcast email to all students, staff and faculty; send an SMS (text message); and post the information on the University website and Facebook page. Please check these sources for information and do not call the Office of Campus Safety. Note: Andrews Academy and Ruth Murdoch Elementary School make their own decisions about closing their schools for weather-related reasons.

Please remember that Andrews is a residential campus and can never really close. Faculty and staff: Plan a conversation with your coworkers and decide together how your department will respond when classes are cancelled. Weather conditions can vary dramatically throughout the county. You are ultimately responsible for your personal safety and only you can make the decision whether or not you should be out on the roads.

Update Your Emergency Notification Preferences
For purposes of emergency notifications, the Office of Public Safety encourages the use of Short Message Service (SMS), an emergency notification system that can send messages directly to your cell phone. All Andrews University employees and students are encouraged to visit www.andrews.edu/go/myems to configure their personal SMS notification preferences. Log in with your Andrews user name and password and click on "Configure SMS Notification Preferences."

School of Education Completes On-Site NCATE Accreditation Visit

The Andrews University School of Education hosted the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE) Board of Examiners (BOE) for a continuing accreditation site visit, Nov. 13-16. A final decision on continuing accreditation from BOE is expected in March 2012. Andrews University has held continuous accreditation by NCATE since 1973.

Five BOE members and one member representing the Michigan Department of Education participated in the site visit. All members are current education faculty, and/or administrators from both public and private institutions of higher education from across the United States.

Before coming to the Andrews campus, the BOE members conducted a preliminary review of institutional materials. During their campus visit, the team interviewed some 170 administrators, School of Education and College of Arts & Sciences faculty members, teacher education candidates and alumni, and K–12 school partners. In addition, they evaluated all written program materials. The team then created a preliminary report based on the team’s review of all the evidence provided.

"The School of Education and College of Arts & Sciences faculty, staff, candidates, and community partners, value continuing accreditation as an opportunity for acknowledgement of academic excellence," says Jim Jeffery, dean of the School of Education. "Preparation for our continuing accreditation visit has allowed the School of Education and College of Arts & Sciences to collaborate in many positive ways. It has also allowed us to profile our faculty accomplishments, student performances, and relationships with community schools."

Before leaving campus, the NCATE Board of Examiners team chair conducted a short, positive, exit interview with university administrators. Within five weeks of the site visit, the School of Education will receive the full final BOE report from NCATE. The School of Education has one month to submit a response to the findings and recommendations within the report. NCATE’s Unit Accreditation Board will render a final decision by March 2012 regarding the School of Education’s approval for continuing accreditation.

According to Jeffery, both the School of Education and College of Arts & Sciences have worked continuously to review and revise programs to assure they meet the high standards of our specialty professional organizations (SPA’s), the Michigan Department of Education and NCATE. All of this is done to ensure that Andrews University is effectively preparing future educators to significantly and positively influence the lives of all children.

NCATE is the major authorized accrediting body recognized by the U.S. Department of Education for schools, colleges, and departments of education that provide professional preparation for elementary and secondary teachers and other school professionals: school counselors, school psychologists, curriculum and instruction specialists and school principals. The Andrews University School of Education offers BA and BS degrees in elementary education. As well, the School of Education collaborates with the College of Arts & Sciences to jointly offer 18 secondary education majors and minors in fields ranging from the sciences to social studies.
Mona Sarcona is New Catering Manager in Dining Services
Mona Sarcona, a familiar face on campus from her years on the front lines of Enrollment Management, is joining the Office of Dining Services as catering manager. She officially started on Nov. 21.

Mona has years of experience both on- and off-campus in a variety of customer service, event planning and catering roles. "I am pleased to have Mona joining our team here at Dining Services. Her knowledge of the University’s personnel and her experience joined with her professional expertise make her an invaluable asset to our growing program," says Jonathan Mark Daniels, general manager. "I want to continually improve each area of Dining Services and I know that Mona will take catering to the next level."

Mona says, "I look forward to working with the campus on upcoming events. If you have an event in the pipeline, or need to schedule one, please contact me to get it going or to confirm details." How You Can Help Victims of the Berrien Springs House Fire
On Tuesday, Nov. 15, a house fire on Valley View Drive near Andrews University resulted in the death of 3-year-old Rockelle Isabella-Aeppelina Haas. Her father, Robert Haas, her mother Jessica Haas and her 5-month-old brother, Jacob, were injured in the fire that destroyed their home. The home contained multiple apartments and tenants in each of the apartments have lost all their possessions. There are 11 people who were displaced by the fire. (Read more about this story.)

The Office of Campus Ministries is coordinating efforts to support the victims of the fire. Here's how you can help:

- Sympathy cards are available to sign. Just stop by the Office of Campus Ministries.

- Donations of furniture, clothes, household items, canned goods, etc. will be collected at the Office of Campus Ministries. The donations will then be taken to Neighbor-2-Neighbor (N2N). N2N is working directly with the Red Cross to assess and take inventory of the different family groups needs.

- Monetary donations will go to the Pioneer Memorial Church Community Assistance Fund. To designate a donation for the victims of the fire, write "Fire Victims" in the memo line. This is a tax-deductible donation. This fund will be distributed to the different families based on Red Cross recommendations.

- The Office of Campus Ministries is asking for new toys and clothes (size 6 mo. & up) for Jacob Haas. These donations will be delivered directly to the family.

- Honor Credit Union is accepting cash donations. You can make a donation at any Honor Credit Union branch.
The Herald-Palladium: LMC women strong in home opener
The Lake Michigan College women's basketball team looked to be in midseason form in its 89-19 win Thursday over an Andrews University team that is trying to build a program. "It was a great opportunity tonight for everyone to work on fundamentals and execute some things in our first game that we mostly won't use until later on in the season," said LMC coach Jason Cooper, now in his fifth season. "Everyone played and everyone contributed."

The Herald-Palladium: Defensive Cardinals Andrews' zone defense stifles
Defense is a strength for the Andrews University men's basketball team. Lake Michigan College was unable to solve that defense Thursday night, shooting 31 percent and committing 29 turnovers as Andrews posted a 67-44 win. "Our guys take a lot of pride in their defense," said Andrews coach David Jardine. "That matchup zone is tough to get in and our guys execute it well. Our defense keeps us in a lot of games."

Herald Palladium: Athletes strengthen their faith at gymnastics event
Hundreds of gymnasts gathered this past week on the Andrews University campus for Acrofest, which brings together the top gymnasts from Seventh-day Adventist colleges, universities, high school and middle schools in the United States and Canada.

Health Monitor: Dominique Wakefield is a "Fitness Fanatic"

Fitness is her Calling
BERRIEN SPRINGS - Dominique Wakefield has a passion for fitness. It's not only how she lives, but also how she works as she teaches others about the importance of being fit and healthy.

Advice for couch potatoes
BERRIEN SPRINGS - How do you go from being a couch potato to being fit? Andrews University fitness expert Dominique Wakefield has some ideas. Unfortunately, she said, some people think they're getting enough exercise and are fit if they can walk from the parking lot to the store. For them, it's necessary to begin with baby steps.

Getting fit at Andrews
BERRIEN SPRINGS - Walk inside the FitZone fitness lab in a small building next to Marsh Hall on the Andrews University campus and you'll see a compact area outfitted with some of the latest fitness equipment. Whether it's exercise balls and resistance bands or elliptical machines, the lab offers Andrews students not only the...
