Four National Merit Scholarship Finalists at Andrews Academy

Andrews Academy is pleased to announce four students are finalists for the National Merit Scholarship Award this year. Each of them are four-year Andrews Academy seniors: brother and sister Jee Yeon and Seong Min Lee, originally from Korea; Ashley Reichert of Berrien Springs, Mich.; and Kyle Whiteside of Sodus, Mich.

“We want to congratulate our four National Merit finalists. We are so proud of each of them and of every member of the class of 2012,” says Robert Overstreet, principal of Andrews Academy. “We pray all of our students will continue to develop academically and spiritually throughout the rest of this school year and every year of their lives.”

The finalists in each year’s National Merit Scholarship program show exceptional academic ability and potential for success in rigorous college studies. Approximately 1.5 million students from 22,000 high schools entered the 2012 National Merit Scholarship program by taking the 2010 Preliminary SAT/National Merit scholarship Qualifying Tests (PSAT/NMSQT). These students are the highest-scoring entrants and represent less than 1 percent of each state’s high school seniors. The students now qualify for the National Merit Scholarships, which will be awarded in the spring of 2012.

Andrews Academy is a four-year college prep school located on the campus of Andrews University.
Lake Union Headquarters Prepares to Relocate

In May of 2011, Andrews University purchased the Lake Union Conference (LUC) office complex, which is adjacent to the Andrews campus. This location is now the home for the new School of Distance Education, formerly Griggs University along with other University departments. The sales agreement allows the LUC office staff to temporarily consolidate their offices into the original building on U S Hwy 31 until a new office can be constructed. When completed, Andrews University will take full possession of the former LUC buildings and land.

An important step in the relocation took place on Monday, February 27, 2012, when a lengthy process to purchase 8.6 acres of land was completed. The new office location is on the west corner of M139 and Red Bud Trail, just one mile west of the Andrews Campus. LUC president Don Livesay comments: “Our new office will embrace the efficiencies of a smaller size and newer construction. We have intentionally chosen to remain close to Andrews University to keep our valued relationship strong.”

New Degree in International Agriculture Development

Did you know that in 2010 there were 925 million hungry people in the world? That is about 13% of the earth’s population. Poor nutrition plays a role in about 5 million child deaths per year. Although the world produces enough food to feed everyone, the poor often lack access to land and water to grow food, or income to purchase it.

Starting in Fall 2012, the Department of Agriculture will be offering a new degree in International Agriculture Development, designed to address issues related to global food security. The degree will provide students with hands-on training in agriculture and animal science, foundational courses in international development and public policy, and international experience through study tours and internships. Graduates will be prepared to work in government, the private sector or non-profit organizations, such as ADRA. Graduates will also be eligible to complete an MA in Community and International Development at Andrews University in only one additional year. For more information, contact the Department of Agriculture at agri@andrews.edu or call ext. 6006.

This year’s Natural Remedies and Hydrotherapy Workshop is scheduled for August 5-August 10 and is sponsored by the Andrews University Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary. The focus will be on the skillful use of natural remedies, water and nutrition in times of illness and health. The workshop is limited to 60 participants so early registration is encouraged. Registration closes July 25.

A number of health and wellness professionals will be presenting: Agatha Thrash, MD, Uchee Pines Institute; Don Miller, ND, Uchee Pines Institute; David DeRose, MD, Weimar Center for Health & Education; Vicki Griffin, Michigan Conference Health Department; David Village, MSPT, Andrews University; and Gerard Damsteegt, workshop director, MPH, RD, Andrews University.

This five day workshop involves 30 hours of lectures and demonstrations along with hands-on labs. All participants who successfully complete the workshop will receive a certificate of achievement. Graduate credit (1-4 credit hours) is available for MA, MDiv, MAPMin students.

The lectures and labs will include topics such as how to treat the common cold or fever; charcoal therapy; use of garlic and other medicinal herbs; treating sprains and strains; hydrotherapy and the immune system; and much more.

Pastors and their spouses, health professionals and anyone who is interested in natural remedies or hydrotherapy is invited to attend this popular workshop. The workshop fee is $350. Repeat attendees and spouses are entitled to a 50 percent workshop fee discount (labs only if not full).

An informational brochure is attached. For more information, visit www.andrews.edu/go/nrhw/ or e-mail fran@andrews.edu.

Susan Mbaluka, a doctoral candidate in educational leadership at Andrews University, has just published her biography, God Makes a Way. The book traces Susan’s childhood in a small village in Kenya and her struggle to develop faith in God instead of the local witch doctors. As her faith grew, so did the trials she faced. Mbaluka describes how the devil tried to discourage, tempt, and kill her. She writes of her quest to gain an education and her struggles with loneliness, and hopes that the book will encourage its readers “to trust God because He is faithful, and all His promises are true.” Mbaluka's book is available from TEACH Services, Inc., Amazon.com, and other local retailers.

Elly Helen Economou was born May 6, 1928, in Thessalonica, Greece, to George and Helen (Vrettopoulou) Economou. Most of her primary and secondary level studies were acquired at home under the guidance of private tutors. She spent six years in the Greek-French "Ecole d'Etudes Secondaires et Supérieures" of her native Thessalonica, where she graduated with special awards. She began higher education at the Anatolia Greek-American College and finished with honors. She came to the United States in 1962 and earned a BA in 1966 from Pacific Union College, Angwin, Calif., majoring in biblical and modern languages.

For graduate studies she came to Andrews University, where she earned a master's degree in biblical languages in 1967. In 1972, she began post-graduate studies at the University of Strasbourg, France, where she deciphered a number of papyri dating back to approximately 300 B.C. for the National Library of Strasbourg. Before completing her PhD in December 1975, she also did research at the Ecumenical Institute of Dossey, Switzerland, and the archives of the World Council of Churches in Geneva. The title of her dissertation was "The Greek-Orthodox Church and Her Relations with the Heterodox Churches." It was characterized as a monumental work by the jury, which unanimously voted for its publication as a valuable contribution to the Ecumenical Movement.

Elly was fluent in English, French, German, Italian and Spanish as well as modern Greek. She also had knowledge of 10 other modern and ancient languages. She began her teaching duties at Andrews as an instructor in the University's modern languages department and joined the Department of Religion & Biblical Languages in 1976.

She was a member of many professional organizations, including the Society of Biblical Literature, the Adventist Language Teachers Association, the American Association of University Professors, the American Academy of Religion and the International Religious Liberty Association. Economou was listed in a number of publications including the Dictionary of International Biographies, World Who's Who of Women, World Wide Academy of Scholars, Community Leaders and Noteworthy Americans, and Who's Who of Women.

As a member of the Seventh-day Adventist Church of her native Thessalonica, Elly served as an interpreter, youth leader, secretary, treasurer and writer. During her lifetime, Elly translated into Greek several religious books, including the Conflict of the Ages Series, and a number of other publications. She also wrote Beloved Enemy, her life story, published in 1968.

Elly was known for her exemplary generosity, evidenced by her legendary hospitality to thousands of students, community members and international guests over the years. She was an inspiring combination of the biblical Mary and Martha, known for both her love of learning and her joy of feeding guests in her home. She traveled extensively around the world, visiting 80 countries; observing and studying the cultural and historical backgrounds of other peoples, as well as their languages. She also enjoyed reading, writing, embroidery, photography and music.

Elly was predeceased by both of her parents. Her father George was an officer of the Greek Army and her mother Helen lived with her for many years at their home in Berrien Springs until her death in April 1994.
