My Andrews Experience Video Competition

Produce an original video clip between 30 seconds and 1 minute in length and win cash prizes!

Who is eligible: This competition is open to Andrews University students, alumni and friends
Deadline: April 2, 2012

Project Theme: My Andrews Experience (Two Categories)

To participate in this contest you will need to create and submit an original video clip anywhere between 30 seconds to 1 minute in length. The clip must use original music and content owned by you or royalty-free music. All Andrews University students, alumni and friends are eligible to participate.

We are looking for creative video representations of your Andrews Experience (current or past). How did the Andrews academic experience impact your life while you were here or how it is currently impacting you? How do newly built or renovated facilities (such as Buller/Damazo/Campus Center) impact your educational or social experience in a positive way? What would the addition of a new sports/recreation/wellness facility mean to you as a student, alum or community member?

Learn more at http://tube.andrews.edu.

Notice of Enforcement of Traffic Regulation
Surveillance at the intersection of E. Campus Circle Drive and International Court has and will continue to increase. Motorists and bicyclists often disregard the posted stop signs. This poses significant danger of collisions.

The Office of Campus Safety may issue a citation for any vehicles failing to stop in accordance with standard traffic regulations.

Thank you for your compliance and courteous driving.

Register now for the Andrews University Music and Worship Conference
March 29–31, 2012

Academic Credit Available

The 9th annual Andrews University Music & Worship Conference is coming to campus March 29–31, 2012. Sponsored by the Center for Youth Evangelism and their partners, the Departments of Music and Christian Ministry, and the NAD Church Resource Center, this event will provide theologically-grounded training opportunities for church musicians, pastors, worship leaders, and anyone involved in worship ministry.

The 2012 Worship Conference will feature a variety of presenters. Most notably, general sessions will feature speakers Michael Kelly, senior pastor of the dynamic worship community at Mt. Rubidoux Seventh-day Adventist Church; Richard Davidson, J. N. Andrews Professor of Old Testament Interpretation at the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary; and Lilianne Doukhan, professor of Hebrew and Old Testament Exegesis and author of the foremost Adventist book on worship music, In Tune With God. Presenters will discuss issues relating to creativity, diversity and excellence as well as techniques and strategies for improving worship experiences.
Workshop topics include leading music in worship, collaborative ministry, hymn singing, use of Scripture, worship and youth culture, choral music in worship, audio-visual enhancement, worship planning, and incorporating young adults in worship ministry.

Sessions and workshops will take place at the Andrews University Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary, Howard Performing Arts Center and Pioneer Memorial Church.

Event registration is required and can be completed online. For registration information, a schedule of events and more, visit www.auworshipconference.org or call 269-471-8380.

The last day to add a class is January 18. Academic credit is available during this weekend long conference. The Undergraduate course is called:

MUED438 Workshop: AU Music & Worship Conference (1 credit)

The Graduate course is called:

MUED648 Workshop: AU Music & Worship Conference (1 credit)

The Seminary course is called:

CHMN523-1 Worship: Word and Music* (2-3 credits) [*Includes intensives on April 1 and 2]

If you are interested in attending the Conference for credit, simply register for one of the courses listed above. In addition to tuition, a $75 registration fee for the Conference will be charged to your account (non-refundable after January 18). Non-credit registration is available at www.auworshipconference.org up until the start of the event. For more information: call 471-8352, email worshipconference@andrews.edu or visit www.auworshipconference.org.

2012 Ellen White Issues Symposium

Monday, March 26, 2012
9 a.m.-4:45 p.m., Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary Chapel

The eighth annual Ellen White Issues Symposium will be held on March 26, 2012, at the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary. This year’s symposium takes as its theme Ellen White’s prophetic gift and inspiration.

The featured speakers include Roger Dudley, professor emeritus and director of the Institute of Church Ministry; Jiri Moskala, professor of Old Testament exegesis and theology; Jud Lake, professor of preaching and Adventist studies at Southern Adventist University; Stan Patterson, chair of the Department of Christian Ministry and director of the Christian Leadership Center; and Katrina Blue, a doctoral candidate in theology and church history. Each lecture will be followed by a question-and-answer session; and the symposium will close with a discussion of Ellen White and current issues.

Dudley will open the symposium with his lecture, "Ellen White and Me." Jiri Moskala’s talk, "Can a Biblically Inspired Writer Use Literary Sources?" will explore the topic of White’s own inspiration. Jud Lake, who has recently published a book on Ellen White’s prophetic gift, will discuss a historical criticism of Ellen White in "D.M. Canright, Ellen White, and Inspiration: A Crisis in the Making." After lunch, Stan Patterson will discuss "Ellen G. White on Leadership and Power," followed by Katrina Blue’s talk, "Threads from an Old Fabric,” which will reveal new discoveries about the Holy Flesh movement in Indiana from 1899–1901, and Ellen White’s response to the movement.

The symposium is sponsored by Andrews University, the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary, the Department of Church History, the Center for Adventist Research and the Ellen G. White Estate, Inc. For more information about the symposium or to register, please visit www.andrews.edu/library/car/egwsymposium.html

About the Presenters

Roger Dudley, Ed.D, is director of the Institute of Church Ministry and emeritus professor of Christian Ministry at the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary. Dudley served as a teacher, school principal, pastor, youth ministries director, and superintendent of education in several eastern states. He joined the Andrews University Seminary faculty in January 1980. He is the author, co-author, or editor of 15 books. In addition, he has had over 170 articles published; has directed the preparation of more than 75 unpublished research studies, and has presented 58 papers at professional meetings.

Jiri Moskala, BA, M.Th., Th.D., Ph.D, is professor of Old Testament exegesis and theology at the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary at Andrews University. He joined the faculty in 1999. Prior to coming to Andrews, Moskala served in various capacities (ordained pastor, administrator, teacher, and principal) in the Czech Republic. He is a member of different theological societies and has authored or edited a number of articles and books in the Czech and English languages. In addition, he has participated in several archaeological expeditions in Tell Jalul, Jordan.

Jud Lake, Th.D., D.Min., is professor of preaching and Adventist studies in the School of Religion at Southern Adventist University, where he has taught since 1997. Prior to joining the faculty at Southern, he was pastor-chaplain at Broadview Academy for two years and pastored in the Gulf States Conference for ten years. He is editor of the website ellenwhiteanswers.org and author of the book, Ellen White Under Fire: Identifying the Mistakes of Her Critics, published in 2010.

Stan Patterson, Ph.D., is chair of the Christian Ministries Department at the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary, and director of Christian Leadership Center of Andrews University. Patterson served as a pastor for 17 years in Texas, Wyoming, Colorado, and Georgia, ministerial director in the Greater New York Conference for two years, and for 12 years in the Georgia-Cumberland Conference as ministerial director and vice-president for pastoral ministries and evangelism.

Katrina Blue, BA Hons, MAICS, MAT, is currently a Ph.D. candidate in Theology with a cognate in Church History at the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary on the campus of Andrews University. Previously she was a hospital chaplain and associate pastor in southern California. She is currently a contract teacher in the Department of Religion & Biblical Languages. Her dissertation title is The Concept of Union with Christ in the Writings of Teresa of Avila & Ellen G. White.

Berrien Springs, Mich.—The Andrews University Cardinals won the USCAA Men's Division II Basketball National Championship for the second consecutive year on March 10, 2012. The third-seed Cardinals successfully defended their title from the Berkeley College-New York Knights. Although they trailed in the first half, the Cardinals captured and retained the lead after an 11-2 run in the second half of the game. All-American Tyler Wooldridge was the lead scorer with 28 points followed by All-American Jerome Murray with 18 points to beat the Knights 72-58.

"This has been an unbelievable year for us," says Dave Jardine, director of Student Activities & Athletics and the Cardinal’s head coach. "I'm so proud of these guys and the way they represent our institution. They truly are a blessing from God."

The championship was held in Uniontown, Penn., from March 8–10. The Cardinals advanced to the semifinals after defeating Eastern Maine on March 8. All-American Honorable Mention Matthew Little led the scoring with 32 points while All-American Tyler Wooldridge added 22 points for a final score of 99-47.

In the semifinals the Cardinals competed against St. Joseph's (Vt.) on March 9. Although they were losing 43-34 to St. Joseph with 9:41 remaining on the clock, the Cardinals took the lead with a 14-0 run and maintained their lead for the remainder of the game. The top scorer of the game was All-American Jerome Murray, who earned 17 points and 16 rebounds during the game. All-American Tyler Wooldridge made 15 points to add to a close finish with a final score of 55-52.

The United States Collegiate Athletic Association (USCAA) was founded as the National Little College Athletic Association (NLCAA) in 1966 and reorganized as the USCAA in 2001. Its goal is to allow the athletes of smaller colleges and universities to have the same opportunities in equal regional and national competition as the athletes of larger institutions of higher learning. The USCAA regularly hold national championships, honor student athletes, award All-American titles, and promote their member institutions. Currently it has 82 members in 24 states.

2012 Faculty-Staff Awards Presented

The annual Faculty/Staff awards night, “Celebrating Excellence at Andrews University,” was held Sunday, March 4 at the Howard Performing Arts Center. Each year at this event faculty and staff are given recognition through the Years-of-Service Awards, Excellence in Service Awards, Spiritual Life Award, the Daniel A. Augsburger Excellence in Teaching Award and the Siegfried H. Horn Excellence in Research and Creative Scholarship Award.

Alyayne Thorpe, dean of the School of Distance Education, served as the emcee for the night. "You may be surprised to see me up here because I'm a newbie," Thorpe said. "But that's indicative of how welcoming Andrews is." She then gave special note to the Years of Service awardees in the 5, 10, 15, 20 and 25 year categories who, together, have served dedicated a total of 1,250 years of service to Andrews University.

This year's entertainment was the Golden Cardinal Awards, a humorous award that highlighted an aspect of the culture at Andrews University. These awards were purely for entertainment purposes. The eight different Golden Cardinal Award categories were: "Best Excuse for Not Attending Awards Event," "Best Budget Reduction Idea," "Best New Research Proposal," "Best Dave in a Helmet," "Best Translational Office," "Best Name for Grips/Andrews Integration," and "Best Snow Removal Device." For example, the nominees for "Best Budget Reduction Idea" included: Air Andrews for corporate travel needs; trading iPads for slates and chalk in Cabinet meetings; installing cans with string to replace traditional phones in Financial Records; use of felts to teach graphic design courses; supplementing the toilet paper supply with old magazines and bulletins; and becoming a Mac computer campus to eradicate the repair costs associated with PC's. The award in this particular category went to the Andrews Airpark for the Air Andrews travel solution.

Dining Services catered a hors d'oeuvres buffet with an Italian themed menu including house-made bruschetta, breaded cheese ravioli and Sicilian pizza squares. A dessert buffet was available after the program and offered guests Italian gelato, mini-cheesecakes, mousse in chocolate cups and a tower of fresh fruit.

Siegfried H. Horn Excellence in Research and Creative Scholarship Award

This award was established in 2011 to honor Siegfried Horn's legacy of scholarship and contribution to the field of biblical archaeology at Andrews University, and his impact upon the world church and the wider community of scholars. This award has been established to recognize the lifetime scholarship achievement of Andrews University faculty members. The chair of the Scholarly Research Council accepts nominations in four separate categories: Arts, Humanities and Education; Pure and Applied Sciences; Professional Programs; and Religion and Theology. Award recipients, who must be associate or full professors and full-time employees for a minimum of five years, were selected by the membership of the Scholarly Research Council.

This year's recipients were: Steve Hansen, professor of art, College of Arts & Sciences for the area of Arts, Humanities & Education; Duane McBride, research professor of sociology and chair of the Department of Behavioral Sciences, College of Arts & Sciences for the area of Professional Programs; Jiri Moskala, professor of Old Testament Exegesis and Theology, Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary for the area of Religion & Theology; and Curtis VanderWaal, research professor of social work and chair of the Department of Social Work for the area of Pure and Applied Science.

Staff Excellence in Service Award

The recipients of this award are hourly or salaried full- or part-time staff who have served for at least three consecutive years, and have not previously received the award. The award is given in recognition of outstanding service to the University, the church, and the community, and for demonstrating, by precept and example, a Christ-centered life. This year's recipients were Marvin Budd, database administrator, ITS; Mimi Weithers-Bruce, assistant to the provost, Office of the Provost; and Dean Snow, manager, Custodial Services.

Daniel A. Augsburger Excellence in Teaching Award

Eight faculty members received the Daniel A. Augsburger Excellence in Teaching Award. This award recognizes faculty whose teaching reflects the high standards of excellence modeled by Daniel A. Augsburger in his 60 years of teaching at Andrews University. Augsburger's leadership, academic rigor, breadth of knowledge, teacher-scholar role, along with care and concern for students, exemplify the best of faculty endeavors. Faculty from each school nominate and choose their individual candidates.
This year's recipients were: Rudi Bailey, professor of educational psychology, school psychology & special education, School of Education; Bruce Bauer, professor of world mission, Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary; José Goris, professor of management, School of Business Administration; Herbert Helm, professor of psychology, College of Arts & Sciences; Marcia Kilsby, associate professor of medical laboratory sciences, College of Arts & Sciences; Glenn Russell, assistant professor of religion, College of Arts & Sciences; Martin Smith, assistant professor of architecture, School of Architecture, Art & Design; and Tiffany Summerscales, assistant professor of physics, College of Arts & Sciences.

Spiritual Life Award
This award is bestowed upon any employee, faculty or staff, who has made a significant contribution to the spiritual life of campus. Names are considered and voted by the Spiritual Life Committee. This award was instituted in 2005. This year’s honoree, Ante Jeroncic, assistant professor of theology, has been a member of the Andrews University faculty since 2006. His commitment to scholastic excellence encourages his students to emulate him. A student says, “Dr. Jeroncic is one of the most important influences on the formation of my spiritual and intellectual self. His challenge to students to investigate why they hold their beliefs significantly impacted my conversion to Christianity by showing the way to a Christ-centered hermeneutic without pushing me away. Intellectually, he expected me to achieve my full potential and expected nothing less. This helped me improve greatly as both a thinker and a believer.”

35 Years of Service Award
Thomas Baker has taught languages, history, religion and English at Andrews Academy since 1976. In addition to his teaching, he has directed many school plays, and served as chair of the Academic Affairs Committee, where he has consistently elevated the expectations of a well-rounded education for Academy students. He has also taken numerous student groups on study tours to Europe. Baker graduated from the University of Minnesota with a BA and holds master's degree from Andrews University and Rice University in Houston, Texas.

Joseph Warren, associate professor of English, has taught at Andrews since 1976. Born in Greensboro, N.C., Warren graduated summa cum laude from Oakwood College in Huntsville, Ala. He earned both a master’s and doctorate from Ohio State University where he concentrated in medieval, eighteenth century, American and ethnic literatures. He also completed training to be a certified trainer for the Developing Capable People Program founded by H. Stephen Glenn. He is active in mentoring African-American youth through his profession, in the local community and church community. He has been a passionate and creative leader in the University’s commemoration of Martin Luther King Jr. Day.

30 Years of Service Awards
Ruth Gardner is manager and postmaster of Central Mail Service at Andrews University. Ruth earned an associate’s degree from Andrews in 1983 and started working at the post office in 1991. In a previous position on campus she worked as insurance clerk. Through her tenure at the Post Office and in insurance, Ruth has provided thorough, careful service to the entire campus. Ruth is known by her colleagues to expect hard work, but also adds a dash of fun to relieve the tedium of repetitive work. She and her husband, Richard, have put their four children through Adventist education, and instilled the same excellent work ethic in them.
Tari Popp graduated from Andrews University in 1981. She immediately began work as a Trust Accountant. She had previously worked in the Financial Services area as a student. So she's really finished 34 years of service to Andrews! She also worked as a Trust Officer and is presently director of the Office of Planned Giving & Trust Services. While other alumni have chosen to serve all over the world, Tari decided to put her roots down deep in Southwestern Michigan and contribute her talents and strengths to her alma mater. In her work with Trust Services, Tari has brought able leadership and stability, helping to give Andrews University a firm financial foundation for the future.

Jeane Robinson has served both Financial Administration and Plant Administration during her 30-year tenure at Andrews. She has a bachelor's degree from Union College and earned a master's degree at University of Colorado. Jeane's work has involved accounts receivable, firms ledger, and purchasing, through which she has assisted almost every department on campus in improving work spaces for employees and learning spaces for students. Most recently, Jeane coordinated the selection and purchasing of interior materials for the renovation of Nethery Hall and new spaces in Buller Hall.

Robert Schwab is professor of management, department chair and graduate advisor in the School of Business Administration. He earned a Bachelor of Arts from Atlantic Union College, a Master of Business Administration from Andrews University, and PhD from University of Oregon. He started his teaching career at Andrews and also chaired the Walla Walla University business department from 1985–93.

The awards portion of the evening also included recognition of employees with 5, 10, 15, 20 and 25 years of service with the University.

'Rhythm of the Dance' comes to Mendel stage

BENTON HARBOR - The National Dance Company of Ireland will perform their two-hour Celtic dance and music extravaganza, "Rhythm of the Dance," at 7 p.m. Tuesday at Lake Michigan College's Mendel Center Mainstage, 2755 E. Napier Ave.

Featuring a live band, three tenors and 22 Irish dancers, "Rhythm of the Dance" traces the journey of the Irish Celts through song and dance. For decades, the Celtic clans of Leinster and Ulster were at war, driven into battle by their rulers' lust for land and power. Following the last great battle, with the Emerald Isle left in ruins, two great Celtic warriors stand to rebuild with the hope that one day the Emerald Isle shall stand united.

Since its debut performance in 1999 in Norway, "Rhythm of the Dance" has played to over 4.5 million fans in 44 countries worldwide and appeared live on Chinese TV for a millennium celebration to an audience of 700 million viewers.

Tickets are $22-$32.

For more information, call 927-1221 or visit lmc mainstage.org

Pickle Project to play today at nature center

BENTON HARBOR - The Deep Fried Pickle Project performs at 3 p.m. today at the Sarett Nature Center, 2300 Benton Center Road.

The Coloma-based duo of Alan Selvidge and musical partner Daniel J. Daniel, which recently released its new children's album "Green & Bumpy," combines quirky, homemade instruments with the harmonica, tenor banjo and mandolin for a sound that pays homage to Appalachia, honky-tonk and hokum traditions while exploring a wealth of bluegrass, folk and Americana roots music.

Tickets are $7-$10, $1 for children.

For more information, call 927-4832 or visit www.sarett.com.

Andrews hosts exhibit, book signing Tuesday

BERRIEN SPRINGS - Greg Constantine, retired professor of art from Andrews University, will have an exhibition and book signing from 3-6 p.m. Tuesday at Andrews University's James White Library, 1400 Campus Drive.

Illustrations from his books "When Big Artists Were Little Kids" and "Vincent Van Gogh Visits New York" will be on display, and copies of all six books will be available.

Constantine served as a professor of art for 46 years at Andrews University and is currently an artist-in-residence at the university. He has had 62 exhibitions at venues throughout Europe and the United States, including 18 solo exhibitions in New York City.

Admission is free.

For more information, call 471-3379, email matacio @andrews.edu or visit www.andrews.edu.
BERRIEN SPRINGS — Ernie Haase is feeling more blessed than usual these days.

The founder and frontman of the unconventional gospel quartet Ernie Haase & Signature Sound, which performs Saturday at Andrews University’s Howard Performing Arts Center, is celebrating last month’s release of “Here We Are Again,” their first recording of all original material in four years.

“We just started the tour and the response has been incredible,” Haase says by telephone while traveling through Tennessee. “It’s like reaping and sowing. It’s been a two-year season of writing and recording and now we’re able to see it become something more than music, just by touching people the way it do. That’s the most exciting part of what we do.”

It’s now been 10 years since Haase, a long-time member of the famous Cathedral Quartet, started Signature Sound. The quartet, which also features Devin McGlamery (lead), Doug Anderson (baritone) and Ian Owens (bass), has since become one of the most influential groups in Southern gospel music. They’ve won Gospel Music Association Dove Awards for Southern Gospel Album of the Year and Southern Gospel Recorded Song of the Year (“Get Away Jordan”) in 2008 and Southern Gospel Recorded Song of the Year (“Reason Enough”) in 2009.

Q: “Here We Are Again” is your first record in four years. What can you tell me about the response to it so far?
A: The song that seems to be making the biggest impact is “Sometimes I Wonder,” which I wrote about three years ago when I just experienced a loss in my family and my co-writer lost both his parents to cancer. We grieve but we grieve with hope. So we wrote it with harmony and hope. The Bible says when it comes to Heaven there’s a half that has not been told. So we all have our questions. Do they think about us anymore? Do they know we’re OK? It doesn’t answer any great eternal questions but it let’s people know that God is taking care of them, and it’s a song that touches everybody because everyone has experienced loss.

Q: Now growing up in Evansville, Ind., did you always know this is what you wanted to do or did it come later?
A: It’s something that’s always been a part of in my life. My church didn’t have a concert series so I didn’t know there was a business. But whenever company would come over mom and dad would say, ‘Hey, get Ernie in here!’ I’d sing and dance. I think God just wired me this way. I really feel like this is what I was put on the earth to do.

Q: So what was your big break? Was it with Cathedral Quartet?
A: Yep, that was it. I was 15 years old when they came to Evansville, Ind., and I was just bit by the bug. That’s who I wanted to be a part of. I got all their records and always tried to match the tenor singer. Ten years later they heard me sing and asked me to join them. When that happened God really smiled on me. They really paved the way.

Q: After the Cathedral Quartet’s farewell tour in 1999, you founded Ernie Haase & Signature Sound. Tell me a little bit about the sound that you strived for as a band leader and how that’s shaped the group?
A: To really find your niche you have to be true to who you are. People love harmony, so if it’s done right and married with a great lyric it’s going to find its audience. I think using that with a fresh, new and honest approach on an eternal old truth is what makes us different.

Q: So for those out there looking up to Ernie Haase & Signature Sound the way you looked up to the Cathedral Quartet, what advice would you give them?
A: It’s just like my dad says, show up for work every day no matter how you feel and what’s going on in life, if you give your very best God will bless it. And he has. That’s been my success story.

Tomato Plants for Sale: Proceeds Support Congo Church Planter Missionaries
Spring is on the way, have you purchased your tomato seeds?

For years I have grown several varieties of tomatoes, way more than I have room to plant. So, I have given excess plants away to my neighbors, friends and tossed the rest in the garbage.

This year I am going to do something more positive by turning my excess plants into a Sabbath School Investment project.

If you want to reserve inexpensive healthy plants for May planting Email me. I will send you the list of six tomato varieties plus all the other vegetables you may want to grow from plants vs. seeds.

The plants, depending on size, will range from $1.00 - $2.50. They will be in peat pots that may be planted directly into your garden.

Do yourself a favor by eating the most delicious and nutritious vegetables possible on this earth plus save money while helping to support the Congo Church Planter missionaries.

Send your email to: helloworld1@comcast.net

Chuck Peck

P. S.
100% of the profit will support Congo Church Planter missionaries.
