Photo of the Week: On Friday, May 25, installation of the new Andrews University Campus Arboretum sign was completed. Although it was designed by Peter Erhard, a former faculty member, the sign was actually constructed and donated by Dave Steen, chair of the Department of Biology. It is made of redwood with gold leaf wording. The sign is located behind the Howard Performing Arts along J.N. Andrews Blvd. (Photo by IMC photographer Darren Heslop)

Renaissance Kids 2012
Registration is underway for Renaissance Kids, an architecture day camp for kids ages 5–16, held at the Andrews University School of Architecture, Art & Design. There are five weeklong sessions and one two-weeklong session offered during the months of June and July.

Kids get to experience hands-on fun with design, drafting, building, sketching, watercolors and more. While exploring the discipline and lessons of architecture, Renaissance Kids provides a fun array of hands-on projects through which children learn about history and culture, design concepts, the architect's tools, construction and materials, community and citizenship.

Each year, students attending the two-week session (Session 6) have an opportunity to participate in a real-world building project. This year's project (pending final approval process) is building a place on campus. In past years, students have contributed to design ideas and actually built a paved sitting area in front of the Curious Kids Museum in St. Joseph; constructed an arbor outside of the Andrews University School of Architecture, Art & Design; and created decorative pieces for and installed a Whisper Dish permanent exhibit at the Curious Kids Discovery Zone in St. Joseph, Mich.

Renaissance Kids is in session during the following dates:

Session 1: $140
June 11–15, 8:30 a.m.–12 p.m.
For ages 7–9

Session 2: $140
June 11–15, 1:45–5:15 p.m.
For ages 10–12

Session 3: $140
June 18–22, 8:30 a.m.–12 p.m.
For ages 10–12

Session 4: $140
June 18–22, 1:45–5:15 p.m.
For ages 7–9

Session 5: $140
June 25–29, 8:30–11:30 a.m.
For ages 5–6

Session 6: $265
July 16—27 (excludes Saturday and Sunday)
For ages 12–16
Week 1: July 16–20, 9 a.m.–4 p.m.
Week 2: July 23–27, 9 a.m.–12 p.m.

To register, download a registration form at www.andrews.edu/go/renaissancekids or complete the form attached to this posting. Mail your completed registration form and payment to:

Register for the 2012 Natural Remedies and Hydrotherapy Workshop

This year's Natural Remedies and Hydrotherapy Workshop is scheduled for August 5-August 10 and is sponsored by the Andrews University Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary. The focus will be on the skillful use of natural remedies, water and nutrition in times of illness and health. The workshop is limited to 60 participants so early registration is encouraged. Registration closes July 25.

A number of health and wellness professionals will be presenting: Agatha Thrash, MD, Uchee Pines Institute; Don Miller, ND, Uchee Pines Institute; David DeRose, MD, Weimar Center for Health & Education; Vicki Griffin, Michigan Conference Health Department; David Village, MSPT, Andrews University; and Gerard Damsteegt, workshop director, MPH, RD, Andrews University.

This five day workshop involves 30 hours of lectures and demonstrations along with hands-on labs. All participants who successfully complete the workshop will receive a certificate of achievement. Graduate credit (1-4credit hours) is available for MA, MDiv, MAPMin students.

The lectures and labs will include topics such as how to treat the common cold or fever; charcoal therapy; use of garlic and other medicinal herbs; treating sprains and strains; hydrotherapy and the immune system; and much more.

Pastors and their spouses, health professionals and anyone who is interested in natural remedies or hydrotherapy is invited to attend this popular workshop. The workshop fee is $350. Repeat attendees and spouses are entitled to a 50 percent workshop fee discount (labs only if not full).

An informational brochure is attached. For more information, visit www.andrews.edu/go/nrhw/ or e-mail fran@andrews.edu.

WSBT: Berrien Springs woman crosses item off milking bucket list for 104th
BERRIEN SPRINGS -- Once a farm girl, always a farm girl.

Yes, Luella Jensen, known as Luella Allen when she entered the world in 1908--Theodore Roosevelt occupied the White House--grew up on a farm in central New York. She took a liking to life on a farm, or so it seems to those who look after her in her current home at Berrien Center's Lakeland Continuing Care Center. Read full story.

What's next?....Dealing with self harm

Saturday, June 2, 5 p.m., Praise Fellowship SDA Church, 54301 Maple Lane South Bend, Ind.

This event will be a discussion about an issue that silently effects our community. The majority of youth and young adults have experienced self harm personally or know someone who has or is harming themselves. Dr. Yvonne Larrier will facilitate forum for discussion and also offer information to deal with instances of self-harm. Youth, young adults, and mature adults are encouraged to attend. Due to the nature of the discussion, any child younger than middle school age should be accompanied by a responsible adult.
