Vote for Andrews as the "Most Vegan-Friendly" Campus

Andrews University has advanced to round three in a poll to be named the "Most Vegan Friendly Campus" in the nation. Popular vote will decide the winner so cast your vote at http://bit.ly/T61gdW. Click on the Small U.S. School category and then select the Andrews University icon. Voting for round three ends at 5 p.m. ET on October 30. The winners will be announced on November 15.

This advocacy group, People for the Ethical Treatment for Animals, is widely known for an active agenda speaking out against a carnivore diet, the use of fur, animal experimentation and other related issues. It's views are considered to be controversial, even as they seek some ends that are aligned with Adventism, including their commitment to a vegetarian/vegan diet, as this campaign celebrates.

New Alumni Directory in Progress

Every five years the Office of Alumni Services creates a new alumni directory, Alumni Today. Harris Connect, the company that hosts our online alumni community AU&ME, assists the alumni office with this initiative. They will contact everyone on the list of alumni to verify details for the directory, including additional information from what the campus directory provides. When you receive an email, postcard or phone call from Harris Connect, please give them a call to ensure your information is complete and correct.

They will also invite you to purchase a directory, which is totally voluntary. Your information will be included whether or not you purchase a directory. For complete information on the directory and Harris Connect go to alumni.andrews.edu/today.

Thank you in advance for your participation!

The REASON Symposium

Tuesday-Thursday, Nov. 13-15
Andrews University Campus

The REASON Symposium, sponsored by the EL Minchin Endowment for Youth Ministries, seeks to identify the hot-button (contemporary) issues that youth & young adults face and develop strategies to meet those challenges. The participants are comprised of "Pract-alors" (practitioners/scholars) who are involved in youth ministry, have a heart for youth & young adults and are well-versed in the contemporary trends of today's youth.

This year's topic is, "Missional Youth Ministry." We will address what we can do to energize youth and young adults to take up the challenge of fulfilling "The Great Commission " and our prophetic calling as a church.

The Reason Symposium is coordinated by AUCM (Andrews University-Campus Ministries) and will convene November 13-15, 2012, on the campus of Andrews University.

For more information contact us at aucm@andrews.edu, or go to our website www.andrews.edu/aucm .

Dial-up Modem Service being Discontinued
For many years Andrews University has maintained a pool of dial-up modems for faculty, staff and students to use to obtain connections to university and Internet resources. As high speed Internet access has become more available and bandwidth needs have increased, fewer and fewer individuals are utilizing the university provided dial-up modems. Additionally some of the systems involved in supporting these modems would need maintenance if we were to continue to offer this service. The expense involved in equipment and staff time to support the dial-up modems is no longer reasonable for the very small number of people that are benefiting from them.

As of November 15, 2012, Information Technology Services will officially cease to provide dial-up modem service. Please note in your Andrews University Information Directory that the phone numbers for Modem Pool E-Mail Access and Modem Access (for faculty and staff use when traveling) will no longer be functional to obtain dial-up modem access as of November 15, 2012 (page 28 of the Directory).

If you have questions about dial-up modems and other options for gaining Internet access at your home, please contact the helpdesk by calling 471-6016 or emailing helpdesk@andrews.edu.

Lake Union Committee Votes to Proceed with Construction of New Headquarters
On Oct. 10, at its regularly scheduled October meeting, the Lake Union Conference Executive Committee voted to proceed with construction of a new headquarters building on recently purchased property at the west corner of M-139 and Redbud Trail in Berrien Springs, Mich.

The need for a new building was precipitated by Andrews University’s exploration to lease part of the office complex and the subsequent agreement to purchase the current LUC headquarters, which includes several buildings at the corner of M-139 and College Avenue in Berrien Springs. The purchase of these buildings allows expansion of the University campus and provides a place to locate the newly acquired Griggs University & International Academy, a distance learning and homeschool curriculum provider.

"As we plan our new office, taking advantage of efficiencies of size and modern construction, we will continue to enjoy the blessings of our long-term relationship and appreciation of Southwest Michigan and the Berrien Springs area," stated Don Livesay, president of the Lake Union Conference.

Floyd Brock, assistant to the president for special projects, is the construction manager for the new headquarters. Currently, the LUC is processing bids from general contractors for the project.

The Lake Union Conference Headquarters is one of nine regional offices throughout North America for the Seventh-day Adventist Church. Its administration and staff provide support and services for the Seventh-day Adventist churches and schools in Illinois, Indiana, Michigan and Wisconsin.

Andrews University Advancing In Poll Of Vegan-Friendly Colleges

Mike Arney Reporting

There is apparently a competition to find out which college campus is the best for vegans, and Andrews University is sitting towards the front of the line. The Berrien Springs institution says it's moved on to the third round in PETA's "Most Vegan-Friendly Campus" poll, fitting right in with the campus being vegetarian since the school was founded more than 135 years ago. PETA says the number of vegetarians and vegans on college campuses has risen by 50-percent. Andrews University is in the Small U.S. School category in the competition, and voting for this round will wrap up on the Internet on October 30, with winners announced on November 15. You can vote at this website http://bit.ly/T61gdW
You could see it as either the ultimate test of engineering skills, or one potentially messy way to spend an afternoon.

Thursday Andrews University students were dropping eggs from the roof of a three-story building on campus.

At stake was bragging rights, over who could create the slowest and "coolest" landing for the eggs with the least padding.

The egg drop contest is in its fourth year, and student participants say it's fun to see the different ideas their classmates come up with.

The winners of this year's challenge say teamwork and creativity led them to victory.

"We just had an idea of what we wanted to do, and we wanted to include the cannon in it because we figured that would be really fun," said Timothy Iuliano a Junior at Andrews University. "So we threw a couple ideas together and then just went with it, and made a couple prototypes and changed it as we needed to go. And just had fun with it on the way."

The Department of Engineering and Computer Sciences put on the contest. The three top teams received prizes.

The Political Pulse of Andrews University

Sunday, Nov. 3
3:30 p.m., Chan Shun Hall

Adventist Forum Presents:
Checking the Political Pulse of the University:
Findings from the 2012 SDA Religion and Social Issues Survey

Presented by
Where do faculty and staff at Adventist colleges and universities stand on the social and political issues of our time? This is especially pertinent in light of the upcoming national elections, as our country struggles to recover from a recession and a divided nation grapples with sharp and seemingly intractable differences on social issues. Researchers at Washington Adventist University and Andrews University received responses from 530 faculty and staff at all twelve Seventh-day Adventist colleges and universities in the United States. The most politically and socially relevant of these findings will be presented at Adventist Forum on November 3.

"Mesopotamian Sumero-Babylonian Creation and Flood Stories" will be the topic for Connie Gane at the next Adventist Retiree's potluck and meeting at the Village Church Family Center on Nov. 11 at 1 p.m. The biblical stories of creation and the flood are not the only such accounts in ancient Near Eastern literature. A number of Sumerian and Akkadian literary texts make reference to events related to creation and the flood and provide a nuanced perspective that is of great interest to anyone interested in the biblical accounts.

Wednesday, Nov. 14, 3–4:30 p.m.
Howard Performing Arts Center
4160 E. Campus Circle Dr., Berrien Springs, MI
"Transforming Children Into Spiritual Champions"
(Session is approx. 90 minutes long)

Among the chief assets of a church are its children. Our approach to their spiritual maturation must be intentional and strategic. This session describes Barna's research regarding moral and spiritual development, educational strategy, and family-church partnerships, as well as steps churches and parents may take to buck the culture and raise spiritually mature young people.

Wednesday, Nov. 14, 7–8:30 p.m.
Pioneer Memorial Church
8655 University Blvd., Berrien Springs, MI
"Revolutionary Parenting"
(Session is approx. 80 minutes long)
This session describes some of the emphases that relate to how parents facilitate a lifelong devotion to serving God through one’s gifts and abilities. Barna will discuss why ministry to children matters; what the Bible says about raising kids; common but ineffective parenting strategies; and the practices of effective parents. Based on research among young adults who have grown up to serve the Lord, and interviews with their parents.

Thursday, Nov. 15, 11:30 a.m.–12:15 p.m.
Pioneer Memorial Church
8655 University Blvd., Berrien Springs, MI
"Intentional Development of a Biblical Worldview"
University Forum
Less than one out of every five born again adults possess a biblical worldview—and it is the inability to think like Jesus that prevents people from acting like Jesus. Based on his research among individuals who have such a way of interpreting reality, and insights from the churches that are effectively assisting people in the development of a biblical worldview, Barna will describe America’s worldviews and how churches can become more strategically involved in facilitating a biblical worldview.
