A Healthy U Programs Available to All Faculty and Staff

A Healthy U's mission is to nurture the optimal development of a healthier mind, body, and soul for all Andrews University employees by promoting a lifestyle based on the eight principles of health. Current programs available to faculty and staff include:

SetUp
Participants track mileage for both walking and hiking for the week. Pedometers are provided for those who need them and can be worn all day during the work week (Monday to Friday). Points and prizes will be given out based on participation and progress. Winter term runs from Dec. 3 to March 29.

Weight Loss Challenge
The kick-off for this event will take place on Jan. 18 at 12:45 p.m. (the weigh-ins start at 12 p.m.). Each weigh-in is followed by a "Helpful Hints" seminar that provides information and discussion on a weight loss and maintenance topic. Each session lasts 10 weeks and costs $20 (half of which is reimbursed by Human Resources) and can be charges to the employee's account. Participants can join anytime within the first 4 weeks and must attend the final weigh-in (the week before the finale) in order to be eligible for a prize.

BodyWorks
This small group fitness class offered only for faculty and staff starts on Jan. 7 and runs until Feb. 11. Participants can sign up for the Monday/Wednesday afternoon class (12-12:50 p.m.), the Tuesday/Thursday evening class (6-6:50 p.m.), or a Tuesday/Thursday morning class (7-7:50 a.m.). The cost of 10 classes costs $80 (half of which is reimbursed by Human Resources). Space is limited and runs on a "first come, first serve" basis. Additional opportunities include Feb. 19-March 28 and April 1-May 2. Andrews University academic holidays will be observed.

Lunch & Learn
This event offers a presentation on a particular health topic during the lunch hours. Space is limited at these events and we ask that faculty and staff who are interested RSVP at least 3 business days before the event. Lunch is provided free of charge for those who register. All programs are offered from 12:30-1:20 p.m.

Next semester's topics include "Love Your Heart" on Jan. 16, "Cooking Demonstration" on March 13 and "Power of Movement" on April 24.

Coming soon...
Worksite training
A Healthy U will be partnering with students from the Department of Nutrition & Wellness to offer worksite training for faculty and staff on campus. This training would occur at the workplace during the work day. Times and further details to follow.

Nutrition Cook-Off
Faculty and staff can enter healthy recipes for a cook-off "open house" that will take place in March. Times and further details to follow.

Ring in the Season with the Annual Welcome Christmas Concert

Friday, Nov. 30
7 p.m., Howard Performing Arts Center

"Savior of the Nations, Come" is the theme of this year’s Welcome Christmas Choral Concert at 7 p.m. on Friday, Nov. 30, at the Howard Performing Arts Center. This annual concert features the Andrews University Singers, conducted by Stephen Zork. Louis M. DeShantz, a prolific and published composer from Berrien County, will be the evening’s featured guest.

"The centerpiece of the garland of endearing carols we will perform is the resplendent Gloria from the Messe di Gloria by Giacomo Puccini," says Zork. The repertoire of carols will also include Christmas Dinner arranged by Stephen Zork, What Child is This? arranged by Donald McCullough, Wexford Carol arranged by Milburn Price, A Boy Was Born by Benjamin Britten, and the English carol Ding Dong! Merrily On High arranged by David Willcocks, a popular 16th century French tune. The Andrews University Singers will be performing two choral compositions by special guest Louis M. DeShantz, Winds Through the Olive Trees and Dear Lord and Father of Mankind.

This concert is free and open to the public. Seating is first-come, first served. An offering will be collected.

Year-End Tax Strategies Seminar for Andrews Employees

Tuesday, Nov. 27
11:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m. and 12:20-1:20 p.m., Dining Services, Lincoln Room

Scott Shalk of Ameriprise Financial presents "Year-End Tax Strategies."

With the year-end rapidly approaching, it’s time to consider some tax strategies to lower your overall income tax before it’s too late. These include bunching itemized deductions, IRA contributions, Roth IRA conversions, maxing out your Health Savings Account, taking advantage of the American Opportunity tax credit and structuring capital gains and losses just to name a few.

Bring your lunch and learn a few strategies that might save you thousands in tax savings.

Announcements from Office of Financial Records

December Hours for the Office of Financial Records

- Accounts Payable will stop writing checks on Friday, Dec. 14 through January 2. If you need a check by Dec. 14, it must be submitted to Accounts Payable by Wed., Dec. 12.
- Corporate credit card bills will be paid and must be submitted to Accounts Payable by Friday, Dec. 14. Your corporate credit card statements are available online the 4th of the month.
- The departmental cashier will be open to the campus on Dec. 31 from 9 a.m.-4 p.m. for normal business. During the University Holiday Office Closure, deposits may be dropped off and will be receipted by Dec. 31.

Holiday gift-giving is just around the corner. Please keep the gift policy in mind: Gift receipts submitted for reimbursement must include the name and social security number of the gift recipient if value is $50 or higher. Gift cards are discouraged, however, if you choose to purchase gift cards, this same information is required for all gift cards, regardless of dollar value. Gift cards given to international individuals have a 30% tax added which will be charged to the department. These are requirements of the U.S. Tax Law. (For more info see Gift & Gift Card Processing on our website)

Philanthropy and a giving spirit is abundant on our campus. If your department/office feels moved to donate to a project or cause, please take up a collection for this. The use of department/office funds that have been budgeted for the direct operating needs of your department/office are not to be used in this manner.

Soliciting donations of University departmental funds is against policy. Requests from individuals, external entities, departments or clubs should be directed to the Office of University Advancement which has an allocated budget for such requests. This policy can also be viewed on our website.

The Big Splash for United Way

On Thursday, Nov. 15, President Niels- Erik Andreasen made good on his promise to jump into the Beaty Pool in his suit if Andrews employees met the United Way Employee Campaign challenge. In early November, President Andreasen challenged Andrews employees to meet a $10,000 pledge goal with a minimum of 114 employees participating. To date, contributions total $13,815.80 with 132 employees participating.

President Andreasen wasn’t the only one who took a dive. Several others, including Stephen Payne, vice-president for Integrated Marketing & Communication, and Anna Murphy, president of the United Way of Southwest Michigan, made a splash to show their support. Several other Andrews employees, including Dr. Andreasen’s executive assistant, Dalry Payne, donned Live United shirts and also jumped into the pool in a show of support for the campaign.
New Issue of Envision Now Available

The latest issue of Envision, Andrews University’s Christian collegiate magazine, was formally launched on Thursday, Nov. 8, in the Campus Center. This is the fourth annual issue of the collegiate magazine produced by the collaborative effort of Andrews’ students from multiple academic disciplines.

"The students have once again outdone themselves providing top-notch writing, photography and design," says Debbie Michel, associate professor of communication and editor-in-chief of Envision.

This year’s issue features articles on many topics of special interest to students, including ways to stay energized, how to get a great internship, and how to erase student loan debt. The new issue also includes several feature articles on Andrews’ students. "We feature some students who’ve tackled some pretty daunting challenges head-on, which, of course, would not be possible without the power of God in their lives," says Michel. Among these inspirational stories is the cover story for this issue, featuring "G.I. Joe Rivera." "I believe there’s something in that story that will encourage and revitalize anyone who reads it," says Michel.

Envision is created entirely by students in the classes Publication Production, Advanced Media Writing, Publication Design, and Studio Photography. Students were able to apply the skills they were learning in class to produce a finished, real-world product.

"It’s a great portfolio piece for them to show what they can do, in settings as close to the real world as a college environment allows," says Michel. Students receive firsthand experience in every step of the process of writing, editing, designing and photographing a magazine.

"It was a great experience and I learned a lot about how a magazine works," says Tacyana Behrmann, one of the magazine’s student editors. After her first year working on the magazine, Tacyana feels that she learned a lot about the business. "It gave me a look into the magazine publishing world—what it takes and the work that goes into it," she says, describing how she used the campus “grapevine” to find stories for the magazine. Tacyana was one of about 50 students who were involved in producing this issue of Envision.

Envision is available for purchase for $2.50 at the Gazebo, the Andrews Bookstore, Apple Valley, Harding’s and the ABC. For more information on Envision or to get involved in the next issue, contact Debbie Michel at dmichel@andrews.edu.
Renaissance Kids Builds at Andrews

On Sunday, Nov. 4, the Renaissance Kids Architecture Day Camp students and their families gathered for roasted marshmallows around a newly built fire pit nestled along a row of decorative piers to celebrate the completion of another successful year and finished project. Renaissance Kids is an architecture day camp for kids ages 5-16, held each summer at the Andrews University School of Architecture, Art & Design.

Andrews University United Way Goal Reached!

Thanks to the enthusiasm of our campus employees, we have surpassed our participation goal and our campaign dollar goal in record time. To date, 114 individual employees have donated $11,500. Both of these numbers exceed the previous five years of Andrews United Way Employee Campaigns. I am deeply grateful for the campus spirit of generosity and support. I believe the United Way Campaign is a very visible and powerful way to provide stewardship and support to our community. All locally donated funds are distributed locally. Andrews University can become the light and salt our neighbors need, right here in Southwest Michigan.

As promised, I will now, literally, "Jump into the United Way Campaign." You are invited to come to the Beaty Pool on Thursday, Nov. 15, at 3:30 p.m. to witness my plunge. (Live streaming will be available at andrews.edu/president.) Representatives from United Way will also be on hand. Their staff has been encouraged by our increased support, and the accompanying fun, and they want to join in celebrating the successful conclusion of our Andrews United Way Employee Campaign.

Thank you, as well, to those who will be impressed to give in our final days of this campaign, which formally closes on November 14. If you haven't given to this year's campaign, we still welcome your pledge forms. Pledge forms may be returned to the Office of the President. The four-digit on-campus zip code is 0670.

Celebrating the Life of Gerald (Jerry) Metzger
Friday, Nov. 9
4 p.m., 1401 Deer Trail in Roca, Nebraska
In celebration of the life of Gerald (Jerry) Metzger, his family invites you to join them on Friday, November 9, 2012 at 4 p.m. as they bury his ashes under a newly planted memorial tree at 1401 Deer Trail in Roca, Nebraska. This will be an informal celebration, held outside, so casual attire is entirely appropriate. All friends and extended family are welcome to join us as we remember and celebrate Jerry’s life on this day.

If you are unable to attend the memorial service, in lieu of flowers, the family would appreciate donations made to the Jerry Metzger Memorial Fund via United Federal Credit Union in Berrien Springs, Mich. After the first of the year, these memorial funds will be used to purchase an item for the Berrien Springs/Oronoko Township Fire Department in Jerry’s memory.
