2013 MLK Jr. Celebration Events
January 17–21, 2013

Fifty years after the March on Washington, Andrews University will pause to celebrate what has been accomplished, and rededicate our lives to "Marching On...Together." The schedule of events is outlined below.

Thursday, January 17

Graduate Forum—Shane Claiborne
10:30 a.m., Seminary Chapel
Shane writes and travels extensively speaking about peacemaking, social justice and Jesus.

Talking Point Forum—Shane Claiborne
11:30 a.m., Pioneer Memorial Church
With tears and laughter, Shane Claiborne unveils the tragic messes we've made of our world and the tangible hope that another world is possible. Shane writes and travels extensively speaking about peacemaking, social justice and Jesus. He is featured in the DVD series "Another World Is Possible" and is the author of several books, including The Irresistible Revolution, Jesus for President, and Becoming the Answer to Our Prayers. (www.thesimpleway.org)

Volunteer Service Fair
12:30–3 p.m., Office of Campus Ministries
If you were inspired by Shane Claiborne to "become the answer to our prayers," stop by to see some ways your commitment can make a difference.

Documentary Short Film
"The Barber of Birmingham"
7 p.m., Buller Hall, Newbold Auditorium
His barbershop in Birmingham, Ala., has been a hub for haircuts and civil rights since 1955. Civil rights activist "foot soldier," James Armstrong, looks back on the movement as he witnesses the election of Barack
Obama in this Academy Award®-nominated short film. Discussion to follow, led by Kathryn Silva-Banks and Paul Kim. Co-curricular credit available. (http://barberofbirmingham.com)

Friday, January 18

8 a.m.–noon, Campus Center

"I Have a Dream"

A recording of Martin Luther King Jr.’s watershed speech will run continuously on the new flatscreen in the Student Lounge. Experience the power of his speech—50 years later.

Sabbath, January 19

New Life Fellowship

11:45 a.m., Seminary Chapel

Camille Warren and Joseph Warren II will present King’s speech—"But, If Not"—in honor of their father, Joseph W. Warren Sr. This sermon was originally delivered by King at Ebenezer Baptist Church in Atlanta, Ga., on November 5, 1967. The topic is civil disobedience using the biblical Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego as examples.

This year’s Legacy of Freedom Award will be presented posthumously to Joseph W. Warren Sr. The award will be presented to the Warren family at New Life Fellowship, Pioneer Memorial Church and One Place.

Monday, January 21

Day of Service

Harbor of Hope Youth Day

Larry Ulery, Harbor of Hope staff and AU Student Association officers are coordinating a day of on-campus activities and events for kids from Benton Harbor. There will be six stations manned by student volunteers: Storytime, drama, arts & crafts, music, open gym and basketball. It begins at 9 a.m. in Buller Halls' Newbold Auditorium with worship and a viewing of part of the MLK I Have a Dream speech. There will be two rotations of activities, viewing of the educational cartoon "My Friend, Martin," lunch, and then additional station rotations during the afternoon. To participate, contact Linda-Rose Michel (AUSA Social VP) at linda_m31@hotmail.com or Debbie Weithers, MLK chair, rdw@andrews.edu.

8 a.m.–5 p.m., Campus Center

A Drawing Class for Adults and Kids!

Are you interested in a fun afterschool opportunity to learn about free-hand architectural sketching? No matter your skill or confidence level, come join a class at the School of Architecture, Art & Design to learn about buildings and landscapes and how to sketch them. We will practice together, drawing places around the globe and learn about ideas, tools and techniques to improve our understanding of what makes drawings better.

Parents: If you quit drawing when you were in adolescence, come join us the class with your kids(s). It will be educational and fun!

Course information:

- Ages 10 and up
- At The School of Architecture, Art & Design
- On Fridays: 4-5 p.m.
- From Jan. 25 - May 3 (except March 22 for spring break)
- $150 per person (+ cost of sketch book, pens and pencil. Some papers will be supplied.)
- Sibling or parent rate: $110 per person
- Class Limit is 26

This course is offered as a spin off from Renaissance Kids and is testing ground for a potential kid friendly/parent involved sketching study trip to Europe (we are thinking about 2014). Email mmoren@andrews.edu if you are interested.

Evangelistic Field Trip to Cuba

May 6-27, 2013

From May 6-27 the Department of Religion is arranging an Evangelistic Field Trip to Cuba. Theology students and teachers as well as some former students, now ministers, will conduct evangelistic campaigns in various churches in the Eastern part of Cuba, and general education students will participate with public health presentations, children program and more. Attached is the more detailed tour plan. There is still room for a couple of general education students who want to serve and share in this potentially mind and life changing experience.

Artist Scott Covert Exhibit Opens Jan. 15

Opening Reception: Jan. 15, 6-8 p.m.
Exhibit: January 15-February 28, 2013
Art & Design Gallery, Smith Hall

Artist Scott Covert will show his work, "Treasures from the Necropolis," at the Andrews University Art & Design Gallery beginning January 15 and ending February 28, 2013. Guests who choose to attend the opening reception may view the artwork until February 28th in the Art & Design Gallery located in room 119 in Smith Hall.

For the last 25 years, Covert has been on a creative pilgrimage all over the United States and Europe, paying visits to the grave sites of cultural icons: movie stars, explorers, politicians, artists, heroes, villains, architects, murderers, murder victims, singers, athletes, novelists, inventors, rock stars and poets. Few have visited as many cemeteries as Mr. Covert: fewer still return with such treasures. Once in his outdoor studio, the artist prepares a sheaf of canvass and places it over the gravestones. Covert then uses an oil or wax crayon to impulsively adorn the canvas with his subjects' inscriptions. At times, one subject's inscription repeats on a single canvas; other times, an inscription is placed on a canvas in a collage of personalities' names, in varied colors and textures.

Spring 2013 GROW Group Catalog
- Revised Edition -
I’m excited about our GROW Groups, and I’d like to invite you to join me in being a part of this new discipleship experience.

GROW Groups are 15 – 20 people meeting together once a week in a convenient location, focusing on a subject that interests you and the rest of the group. Good conversation, meaningful study, social time, and prayer—so go ahead, wander through this menu and make your selection (better yet, pick three choices in case one gets filled up).

Our Spring 2013 GROW Groups begin February 1 and go through April, so it’s just enough time to learn something new, grow deeper with Jesus, and make new friends.

And with so many different options to choose from, we’re sure there’s one just right for you. So let’s GROW . . . together.

Dwight K. Nelson
Pioneer Pastor

PS—when you’ve made your selection in this menu, please go to www.pmchurch.org/growgroup for the one-step registration.
Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What happens when I sign up for a GROW group?

A: When you sign up, the leader of your new GROW group will contact you with the address of the group’s meeting place, the date and time you’ll be starting on, and all the other information you’ll need to have a great experience!

Q: How often will my GROW group meet?

A: Don’t worry, GROW groups aren’t designed to eat up your schedule. Your group will meet once a week for sixty to ninety minutes, for between ten to twelve weeks.

Q: What will the people be like at my group?

A: Look around during church...A GROW group is basically 15 to 20 people who attend Pioneer Memorial Church on a Sabbath and share an interest in studying the same topic as you.

Topic: Getting To Know Jesus
Description: “Knowing about Jesus is no substitute for actually knowing Jesus. Our eternal destiny rests on real, living relationship with Him.” This semester we will focus on growing our relationship with Jesus by studying Jesus’ actions and interactions with people instead of His teachings and by establishing a devotional life. Each week we will look at two short stories, asking ourselves five simple questions like ‘How did Jesus treat the people in this story? Over time we’ll be able to see how God has been leading our journey as we know Him better. To guide us we will be using the workbook Getting to Know Jesus. This group has an active prayer ministry.

Topic: The Book of Daniel
Description: God’s servant Daniel wrote in the language of symbols. A military commander encodes his messages to stop enemies from intercepting and understanding them - this is exactly what our Lord in heaven does. Without symbolism, the forces of evil would easily recognize themselves in the Message and change or destroy it. Once you understand the meaning of each symbol, Jesus’ “military messages” of prophecy become clear. Your life, your future, and the fate of humanity are at stake!

Topic: Parenting in a Challenging World
Description: This group is meant to bring parents and children together for worship and teach them how to develop a closer relationship with God. Children will not be separate from parents, but included in the group dynamics and discussions. The structure of an evening would be: songs (both for children and adults), a Bible story for children with application to real life, and a short but stimulating group discussion on a parenting topic. Below are listed the topics for the group discussion. They are based on a Parenting Curriculum developed for small groups by Bill Hybels. Come and join us, and bring your small children. Since parents are busy, there will not be previously assigned readings. We ask you to bring your Bibles along.

Location: PMC
Topic: Adventist Home
Description: The Adventist Home by Ellen White is a forgotten book but within its pages are concepts especially relevant for today’s generation. We will explore some of the treasure trove and discuss God’s guidance for our homes. “The work of transformation must be done now. Our daily lives are determining our destiny” (White, 1952, AH, p.16). The Adventist Home is both a handbook for busy parents and a pattern or ideal of what the home can and should become (preface).
Leader: Josephine Katenga
Email: katenga@andrews.edu
Phone: 269-471-1951
Materials: The internet has copies of the book. For those who cannot afford the book or have no access to the internet, we will make available copies of the chapters.

Passion Play is April 6 & 7
Now in its tenth year, the 2013 Andrews University Passion Play will be open for two days, Saturday, April 6 and Sunday, April 7, 2013. This marks a significant scheduling change moving Passion Play from Easter Sunday, March 31, 2013, to the first weekend in April.

Date Change
"There have been years when Easter weekend fell immediately before or after Spring Break, finals and even graduation, making it very challenging schedule-wise for the hundreds of students, staff and faculty volunteers for Passion Play," says Japhet De Oliveira, University chaplain and Passion Play producer, of the date change. "Likewise, Easter weekend can be a very busy time for families. We'd like to see this scheduling change provide new opportunities for members of the community to experience the Andrews University Passion Play."

Smaller Rotation Sizes
Also new to the 2013 Passion Play are smaller group rotations limited to 300 guests each. "The Passion Play tells an incredibly powerful story, but if you are lost in a sea of people, you can feel disconnected and even miss key parts of the story," says De Oliveira. "We will be limiting each group rotation to 300 in order to create a more personal experience for each person who attends. To add to the ambiance of the Passion Play while also helping with crowd control, we'll have Roman guards at several checkpoints checking wristbands."

Passion Play wristband reservations open up March 1, 2013. Wristbands will be available for pick-up at the first scene and can be reserved online for free at www.andrews.edu/passionplay. Reservations are required.

2013 MLK Jr. Celebration Events
January 17–21, 2013

Fifty years after the March on Washington, Andrews University will pause to celebrate what has been accomplished, and rededicate our lives to “Marching On...Together.” The schedule of events is outlined below.
Thursday, January 17

Graduate Forum—Shane Claiborne
10:30 a.m., Seminary Chapel
Shane writes and travels extensively speaking about peacemaking, social justice and Jesus.

Talking Point Forum—Shane Claiborne
11:30 a.m., Pioneer Memorial Church
With tears and laughter, Shane Claiborne unveils the tragic messes we’ve made of our world and the tangible hope that another world is possible. Shane writes and travels extensively speaking about peacemaking, social justice and Jesus. He is featured in the DVD series "Another World Is Possible" and is the author of several books, including The Irresistible Revolution, Jesus for President, and Becoming the Answer to Our Prayers. Cruise with a Mission Celebrates 5th Year

On Dec. 9, 2012, 73 individuals from around the country gathered in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., to set sail on the Center for Youth Evangelism’s fifth Cruise with a Mission (CWM). Each year, this young adult focused mission-trip-meets-vacation aims to cultivate a lifestyle of connecting with God and building Christian community through on-board worships, community building experiences, and mission projects at ports visited on the trip.

Ryan Simpson, Southern New England Conference Young Adult Ministries director, was the featured speaker for the 2012 cruise and shared daily worship thoughts. Simpson’s dynamic and personal messages encouraged young adults to get “On-board with God,” despite the storms in our lives. Melody Ilacas, a young adult who attended the trip, commented that Simpson’s messages “reminded us that storms help to build our character.”

During the missions aspect of the trip cruisers were offered diverse opportunities. Mission ports included Ocho Rios, Jamaica; Georgetown, Cayman Islands; and Mohogony Bay, Honduras. This year the group brought 100 gallons of paint with them for three painting projects. Other options at port included light construction projects, landscaping and cleanup, as well as a Vacation Bible School.

If you’re looking for a vacation that focuses on service, try Cruise with a Mission. Cruise with a Mission 2013 embarks September 15–22, 2013 to the beautiful state of Alaska. Early-bird registration is now open at www.cye.org/cwm.

Andrews Named on U.S. News & World Report's "Overperforming Schools" List
U.S. News has published a first-ever analysis of colleges in their National Universities ranking category that are overperforming or underperforming their undergraduate academic reputations in terms of their overall Best Colleges 2013 rankings. This concept measures the degree to which a university's overall position in the rankings exceeds or falls short of its undergraduate academic reputation rank. Andrews University is named on that list. Read the full story.

For the Beauty of the Earth: A Christian Vision for Creation Care
Sabbath, Jan. 26
3:30 p.m., Garber Auditorium, Chan Shun Hall

Adventist Forum presents "For the Beauty of the Earth: A Christian Vision for Creation Care." Presented by Dr. Steven C. Bouma-Prediger, Professor of Religion and Director of the Environmental Studies Program at Hope College in Holland, MI. This discussion is Sabbath afternoon at 3:30 pm, January 26, 2013, in the Garber Auditorium in Chan Shun Hall, on the campus of Andrews University.

Dr. Bouma-Prediger holds degrees in mathematics/computer science, philosophy, and theology, as well as a Ph.D from the University of Chicago in religious studies. He has published numerous articles, reviews, and books dealing with theology, ethics and ecology. His book "For the Beauty of the Earth: A Christian Vision for Creation Care" received a Christianity Today Award of Merit as one of the best books of the year. At Hope College, he chairs the Religion Department and directs the Environmental Studies Program and teaches theology and ethics.

His book "For the Beauty of the Earth" provides a thorough evangelical treatment of a theology of creation care. He writes, "Authentic Christian faith requires ecological obedience." He urges Christians to acknowledge their responsibility and privilege as stewards of the earth.

His wife, Celeine, is a marriage and family therapist, a spiritual director, and an ordained minister in the Reformed Church in America. They have three daughters (and numerous pets).

Adventist Forum is open to the public. All are welcome. For information, contact Art Robertson at robertsa2@earthlink.net or call 269-471-7150.

Textbooks for Sale
I have 4 textbooks for sale. My wife purchased three of them new and the last one used this last September and took great care of them. They only have normal wear, no tears, no missing pages, no markings (some pencil erased marks might be visible). They all include all the original cd's that came with them and all the other materials (the Medical Terminology book has the two bookmarks, and all the flashcards are still uncut).
The textbooks are:
1. Medical Terminology - A programmed Systems Approach, 10th edition - Jean Tannil Dennerll and Phyllis E. Davis, 2010 - $75.00
4. Go! With Microsoft Word 2012 Comprehensive - Gasking, Ferrett, Martin, 2011 - $20.00 - this is the only one that was bought already used, but it is in very good shape. All the other ones were bought new.

Great if you want to save on textbook money. See pictures for more details
