</tr>
<tr>
<td>Hepatitis A or immune globulin (IG)</td>
<td>Recommended for all unvaccinated people traveling to or working in countries with an intermediate or high level of hepatitis A virus infection (see map) where exposure might occur through food or water. Cases of travel-related hepatitis A can also occur in travelers to developing countries with &quot;standard&quot; tourist itineraries, accommodations, and food consumption behaviors.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Hepatitis B</td>
<td>Recommended for all unvaccinated persons traveling to or working in countries with intermediate to high levels of endemic HBV transmission (see map), especially those who might be exposed to blood or body fluids, have sexual contact with the local population, or be exposed through medical treatment (e.g., for an accident).</td>
</tr>

- Concerning Religious and Social Humanitarian duties, the participants must check the following link, http://travel.state.gov/travel/cis_pa_tw/cis/cis_1097.html

“Religious organizations, including members and staff, traveling for the purpose of participating and engaging in religious activities. Organizations may open accounts at Cuban financial institutions for the purpose of accessing funds in Cuba for transactions related to such activities.

Students and all members of faculty and staff of accredited U.S. graduate and undergraduate degree granting institutions can participate in academic activities in Cuba through any sponsoring U.S. academic institution, not only through the accredited U.S. academic institution at which the student is pursuing a degree, if the traveler’s study in Cuba will be accepted for credit toward the student’s degree.”

“No medical facility in Cuba will accept U.S. issued insurance cards, credit cards, or checks and medical services must be paid for in cash. The Department of State strongly urges U.S. citizens to consult with their medical insurance company prior to traveling abroad to confirm whether their policy applies overseas and whether it will cover emergency expenses such as a medical evacuation. Please see our information on medical insurance overseas.”

- This is a trip to the tropics; as such you must take care of health by drinking plenty of fluids and protecting yourself from mosquitoes at all time.
- The group will travel and remain together all of the time under the direction of personnel of the Seminary, the Union and/or the Eastern Conference. In addition, Pastor Abner Hernandez, PhD Student of Andrews University and former Dean of the Habana Seminary will act as liaison between Cuban officials and the Andrews group.

Passion Play is April 6 & 7

Now in its tenth year, the 2013 Andrews University Passion Play will be open for two days, Saturday, April 6 and Sunday, April 7, 2013. This marks a significant scheduling change moving Passion Play from Easter Sunday, March 31, 2013, to the first weekend in April.

Date Change

“There have been years when Easter weekend fell immediately before or after Spring Break, finals and even graduation, making it very challenging schedule-wise for the hundreds of students, staff and faculty volunteers for Passion Play,” says Japhet De Oliveira, University chaplain and Passion Play producer, of the date change. “Likewise, Easter weekend can be a very busy time for families. We’d like to see this scheduling change provide new opportunities for members of the community to experience the Andrews University Passion Play.”

Smaller Rotation Sizes

Also new to the 2013 Passion Play are smaller group rotations limited to 300 guests each. “The Passion Play tells an incredibly powerful story, but if you are lost in a sea of people, you can feel disconnected and even miss key parts of the story,” says De Oliveira. “We will be limiting each group rotation to 300 in order to create a more personal experience for each person who attends. To add to the ambiance of the Passion Play while also helping with crowd control, we’ll have Roman guards at several checkpoints checking wristbands.”

Passion Play wristband reservations open up March 1, 2013. Wristbands will be available for pick-up at the first scene and can be reserved online for free at www.andrews.edu/passionplay. Reservations are required.

For the Beauty of the Earth: A Christian Vision for Creation Care
Sabbath, Jan. 26
3:30 p.m., Garber Auditorium, Chan Shun Hall

Adventist Forum presents "For the Beauty of the Earth: A Christian Vision for Creation Care." Presented by Dr. Steven C. Bouma-Prediger, Professor of Religion and Director of the Environmental Studies Program at Hope College in Holland, MI. This discussion is Sabbath afternoon at 3:30 pm, January 26, 2013, in the Garber Auditorium in Chan Shun Hall, on the campus of Andrews University.

Dr. Bouma-Prediger holds degrees in mathematics/computer science, philosophy, and theology, as well as a Ph.D from the University of Chicago in religious studies. He has published numerous articles, reviews, and books dealing with theology, ethics and ecology. His book "For the Beauty of the Earth: A Christian Vision for Creation Care" received a Christianity Today Award of Merit as one of the best books of the year. At Hope College, he chairs the Religion Department and directs the Environmental Studies Program and teaches theology and ethics.

His book "For the Beauty of the Earth" provides a thorough evangelical treatment of a theology of creation care. He writes, "Authentic Christian faith requires ecological obedience." He urges Christians to acknowledge their responsibility and privilege as stewards of the earth.

His wife, Celaine, is a marriage and family therapist, a spiritual director, and an ordained minister in the Reformed Church in America. They have three daughters (and numerous pets).

Adventist Forum is open to the public. All are welcome. For information, contact Art Robertson at robertsa2@earthlink.net or call 269-471-7150.

Textbooks for Sale

I have 4 textbooks for sale. My wife purchased three of them new and the last one used this last September and took great care of them. They only have normal wear, no tears, no missing pages, no markings (some pencil erased marks might be visible). They all include all the original cd’s that came with them and all the other materials (the Medical Terminology book has the two bookmarks, and all the flashcards are still uncut). The textbooks are:

1. Medical Terminology - A programmed Systems Approach, 10th edition - Jean Tannil Dennerll and Phyllis E. Davis, 2010 - $75.00
4. Go! With Microsoft Word 2012 Comprehensive - Gasking, Ferrett, Martin, 2011 - $20.00 - this is the only one that was bought already used, but it is in very good shape. All the other ones were bought new.

Great if you want to save on textbook money. See pictures for more details
