Photo of the Week: Back by popular demand, the Heritage Singers kicks off the 2013-2014 tenth anniversary season at the Howard Performing Arts Center. This American-gospel vocal group sings traditional gospel music, hymns, contemporary Christian music, and even some children’s music. They have toured in all 50 states and performed in more than 75 countries around the world. Touring with them is special guest Pete McLeod, Christian comedian and musician, and alumnus of Andrews University. Tickets go on sale August 1, 2013.

Lifestyle Improvement Focused Team

Lifestyle Improvement Focused Team (LIFT)—A Health Support Group Experience

Date: Saturday, July 13, 2013
Location: Bell Hall 106 (on the campus of Andrews University)
Time: 4 p.m.

Topic this Month: The Power of Micronutrients in Achieving Optimum Weight & Health:
Building your Immune System with Super Foods from your Kitchen

A video presentation by Joel Fuhrman, MD, followed by reflections, questions and answers.

- We can supercharge our immune system to protect our bodies against disease—everything from the common cold to cancer.
- Embracing a health promoting, disease preventing diet is as easy as 1-2-3
- A strong immune system is well within the reach of those who live with intentionality
- Discover the GMOBBS patrol—six top cancer-prevention foods
- Nutritional science has made phenomenal strides and discoveries in recent years, and when we apply this research to our lives, it enables us to seize control of our health like never before
- Discover a health promoting food pyramid with the most emphasis on nutritional powerhouse vegetables such as kale, broccoli and spinach

Joel Fuhrman is a family physician and researcher who specializes in reversing disease through nutrition. He has appeared on hundreds of radio and television shows. Dr. Fuhrman is the New York Times best-selling author of Eat to Live, and research director for the Nutritional Research Foundation. Combining the latest data from clinical tests, nutritional research, and results from thousands of patients, Dr. Fuhrman asserts that we can supercharge our immune system to protect our bodies against disease, and live healthier, stronger and longer than ever before.

Come share the moment with us, and receive support in your quest to maintain the healthy body that God has given you.

Group is facilitated by Judith Fisher

Category: Campus News
Derek R.B. Douglas, vice president for civic engagement at the University of Chicago, and Rebekah Wang-Cheng, medical director for clinical equality at Kettering Medical Center, are among the featured speakers for the Andrews University graduation weekend scheduled for August 2–4, 2013.

Commencement events begin Friday evening with the consecration service in Pioneer Memorial Church and will continue with the baccalaureate church service, Saturday afternoon certification and dedication services, Saturday vespers, the President’s reception and finally, the graduate and undergraduate commencement service Sunday morning.

Rebekah Wang-Cheng, medical director for clinical equality at Kettering Medical Center in Kettering, Ohio, and clinical professor of medicine at Wright State University Boonshoft School of Medicine in Dayton, Ohio, will offer the Consecration address, "Be the Bright Spot,” on Friday, August 2, at 8 p.m. in Pioneer Memorial Church. Wang-Cheng is a former associate editor for the British Medical Journal USA, and has been elected to Phi Kappa Phi, Alpha Omega Alpha Medical Honor Society, Society of Teaching Scholars, and Best Doctors in America.

Gordon Bietz, president of Southern Adventist University in Collegedale, Tenn., will present the Baccalaureate address, "Flunking with All A's,” on Saturday, August 3, at 11:45 a.m. in Pioneer Memorial Church. Under Bietz’s leadership, enrollment at SAU has increased by more than 1,200 students, and facilities have experienced record renovations to accommodate that growth. Also under Bietz, SAU has earned top accreditations for its professional schools, and its Graduate Studies program has grown to include ten master’s degrees and numerous concentrations. Prior to his appointment as president, Bietz pastored the Collegedale Church of Seventh-day Adventists and served as president of the Georgia-Cumberland Conference of Seventh-day Adventists.

Additional departmental services are planned for Friday, August 2, and Saturday, August 3. The School of Business Administration’s Ethics Oath Ceremony will be held in the Garber Auditorium of Chan Shun Hall on Friday at 11 a.m. Saturday's services begin with the Seminary Dedication Service in the Seminary Chapel at 4 p.m. The Certificate Ceremony for the Department of Medical Laboratory Sciences will take place in the Pioneer Memorial Church Youth Chapel at 5 p.m. At 5:30 p.m. the Department of Social Work Recognition Service will take place in the University Towers Auditorium.

A Sabbath Vespers tribute to parents, faculty and students will be held at Pioneer Memorial Church at 8:30 p.m. on Saturday, August 3. Immediately after vespers (approximately 9:15 p.m.), the President’s Reception for graduates and their families will take place in the Great Lakes Room in the Campus Center.

Derek R.B. Douglas, vice president for civic engagement at University of Chicago, will give the Commencement address. Commencement begins at 9 a.m. on Sunday, August 4, at Pioneer Memorial Church. The title of his address is “Higher than the Highest Human Thoughts Can Reach.”

Douglas was a law clerk for Judge Timothy Lewis at the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit before joining the NAACP Legal Defense & Educational Fund, where he litigated issues concerning educational equity, school choice and affirmative action. He has also served as associate director for Economic Policy and director of the Economic Mobility Program at the Center for American Progress. From 2009–2012 Douglas served as President Obama’s Special Assistant for Urban Affairs where he was one of... the chief architects of the White House’s agenda to strengthen the nation’s cities and metropolitan areas. He helped develop national policy on issues related to economic and community development, affordable housing, transportation, K-12 education, urban health, public safety, entrepreneurship, public-private partnerships, and more. Douglas is also an alumnus of Andrews Academy.

Commencement seating is by ticket only. A live streaming link will be provided at www.andrews.edu/graduation on the day of Commencement, Sunday, August 4. For more information and/or a full schedule of events, visit www.andrews.edu/graduation.
The Howard Performing Arts Center will celebrate its tenth anniversary with a stellar lineup for the 2013–14 season of its concert series Howard Center Presents… The series will include widely recognized classical and Christian contemporary performing artists including Chanticleer, Bebo Norman and Israel Houghton & New Breed.

Back by popular demand, the American-gospel vocal group The Heritage Singers will sing traditional gospel music, hymns, contemporary Christian music and even some children’s music on Saturday, Sept. 7, 2013, at 8:30 p.m. The eight passionate vocalists are touring with special guest Pete McLeod, Christian comedian and musician, and alumnus of Andrews University.

Reminiscent of the Howard Center’s inaugural weekend in 2003, several celebratory concerts are scheduled from October 5–8, 2013. The Anniversary Gala begins Saturday, Oct. 5, featuring the Andrews University Symphony Orchestra in a formal, black-tie concert at 8 p.m. To complete the experience you are invited to attend a reception in the Howard Center lobby before you enjoy this evening of exceptional music. At 7 p.m. on Oct. 6, the Howard Center is pleased to be a stop on Compassion International’s "In The Round" tour, featuring Christian contemporary artists Andrew Peterson, Bebo Norman and Sara Groves. The three artists will offer an intimate performance alternating between songs and spoken ministry. On Tuesday, Oct. 8, at 7 p.m., “the world’s reigning male chorus,” as recognized by The New Yorker magazine, Chanticleer returns to the Howard Center after a near sellout in 2006.

As part of the prestigious honor of winning the Fischoff National Chamber Music Competition, the Omer Quartet will make a stop at the Howard Performing Arts Center. The winning string quartet is comprised of young adults from the Cleveland Institute of Music. Their concert at the Howard Center will be held on Sunday, Oct. 23, 2013, at 7 p.m.

On Saturday, Nov. 16, 2013, at 8 p.m., soprano Laura Ortiz and pianist Carlos A. Flores will present "A Night of Music, Art & Folklore in Mexico." The concert will feature art songs from Mexico, including works by Manuel Ponce, Silvestre Revueltas and Rodolfo Halftner, as well as some of the best-known songs from the traditional Mariachi repertoire. Special guests include an Andrews University mariachi band.

Nationally famous lyric soprano Faith Esham will perform selections that include pieces by Hugo Wolf and Henri Duparc on Saturday, Jan. 18, 2014, at 7 p.m. Known for both her musicality and ability to express poignant emotion, the Grammy Award winner brings theatricality to the classical stage. Esham is currently an adjunct professor of voice at Westminster Choir College of Rider University in Lawrenceville, N.J.

On Sunday, Jan. 19, 2014, at 7 p.m., Israel Houghton and New Breed will take the stage at the Howard Center. This highly popular group of world-class musicians will unite to create a revolutionary fresh sound, which fuses gospel praise with contemporary worship music.

"Great Piano Trios" featuring Andrews University professors Claudio Gonzales and Chi Yong Yun as well as renowned cellist German Marcano, will wrap up the season on Saturday, March 8, 2014, at 8 p.m.

Individual ticket prices range from $5 to $30 for each concert. Complete pricing details are available online. For more information, please visit us online at howard.andrews.edu. By purchasing tickets to four or more concerts, you may receive Flexible Series pricing of $5 off each ticket.

All tickets go on sale Monday, August 5, 2013, at 1:30 p.m., and can be purchased by calling the Howard Performing Arts Center Box Office at 888-467-6442 or 269-471-3560. Summer Box Office hours are Monday–Thursday, 1:30–5 p.m. and Friday 10 a.m.–12 p.m.

Michiana Fil-Am Vacation Bible School
Investigation Station Michiana Fil-Am Vacation Bible School
Monday, July 22 to Friday, July 26, 2013
5:30–8 pm.

More and more our children are being bombarded with non-biblical information and being told it is fact. Evolution, creators from an alien race, the Big Bang theory; these are just some of the things children today are hearing as fact without learning God’s true place as Creator. Investigation Station seeks not only to teach the truth, but also teach about the God of truth. Through exploration of scientific facts and biblical accuracy, we hope the young people in attendance will learn that they were not an accident, but rather a creation with a purpose. By trusting God, they will find His purpose for their lives.

Please register your child online by July 15, 2013 at www.michianafil-am.com/vbs.

Donation List

Watermelon (13)

Multi Color Construction paper (3)

Donations for crafts to be ordered from Oriental Trading Company

Aside from the list above, we will need donations for snacks. In order to be consistent and have enough of each snack item, we would ask than you make a monetary contribution and let us do the shopping.

Volunteer Job List and Description

Teacher: Leading out in the various stations, teaching the children the desired point in each area. Instructing the additional volunteers in their area as to what help is needed from them. Each is encouraged to work to provide a safe and accepting atmosphere at their station. Areas where teachers are needed: Games, Story, Craft, Snack, Opening and Closing worship. (Instruction Materials to be provided)

Team Leaders: Making sure that their group gets from station to station, being an assistant to the teachers in each area, going over the “deeper thought” questions with their children. Team Leaders are to work to provide a safe and loving atmosphere in their group. Get to know your children.

Helping Hands: We need people! Helping hands are needed in each area (games, story, craft, snack, opening and closing worship, security) Also help is needed for the kick off of VBS starting Sunday July 28th (set-up, during and take down) We value our volunteers and appreciate the time that you are willing to give.

Sponsors: You are not available to come out to VBS and actually work with the children, but you still want to be a part or you can come out, but you want to do something more. We have provided a list of the items that we will need to make VBS a success. We really appreciate and are blessed by every donation big or small.

Please Contact Felicia Bonilla to volunteer or with ??’s. 856-278-1334

Need a House to Rent

We are a responsible and quiet family looking for a house to rent as soon as possible. Ideally we are interested in a 3-bedroom house, but will settle for a 2-bedroom house if the rooms are large.

Our family of four (includes a preteen and teenager) is very efficient, clean and orderly. We are looking for a house within 20 minutes of Andrews University.

We are presently renting in Berrien Springs and would be happy to provide contact information for the current landlord. Our reason for moving is to obtain a larger living space.

Please call Cavelle at 347-797-8348 for more information.

Looking for Female Roommate for the School Year

Hello there! I currently have a really great apartment already furnished (I am willing to change out/bring in new furniture if wanted) at Park Manor with newly laminated floors, brand new carpets in the bedrooms, and a renovated kitchen with a dishwasher, microwave, and everything else you could need in a kitchen basically (see photos below). The best apartment in Park Manor - the only one fully renovated.

Rent is $570 a month + electricity ($285 per person + half price of electric). Wifi is free here as well, slow at times but never the less, free.

BUT my current roommate will be leaving early-mid september so I need to find a roomate for the remainder of the school year.

MUST be:
Female

Very clean (puts things back once done being used/doesn't leave dirty dishes over night or a mess out in the living room, common sense stuff. Personally, it doesn't matter to me how messy their room is though, just don't bring it out into the living space).

Responsible (able to pay rent/bills on time, not lazy, etc)

Respectful (doesn't bring a loud crowd of people over at like midnights on school nights, doesn't give people attitudes and can control themselves under the stresses of school, etc).

Friendly (I would love to be friends with my roommate and be able to talk and chat in the same room without it being awkward, so someone easy to get along with and who also wants a good relationship back).

And would LOVE IT if my roommate enjoyed the heat like me and doesn't want to freeze to death this winter!! (Someone willing to pay a few more bucks with me to keep the temperature at atleast a comfortable 70 degrees when we are in the apartment, and probably 65 when we are out so that we don't need to be huddling under 10lb of blanket anytime we are there).

Feel free to call me if you match up with what I am looking for and are interested or have any questions!

845 444-0851

God Bless!

-Nina Marie
