Adventist Forum Presents: Dr. Gary Patterson

Adventist Forum presents, Dr. Gary Patterson speaking on "General Conference Policy in Relation to the Ordination of Women," on Saturday, November 2, 2013 at 3:30 p.m. in Garber Auditorium in Chan Shun Hall on the campus of Andrews University. Dr. Patterson is a Retired Field Secretary of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists.

Many clergy and lay members in the North American Adventist church support the ordination of women to the ministry. The General Conference administration representing the global Adventist church organization has opposed the ordination of women. Dr. Patterson, a retired church administrator, has argues that individual union conferences in the North American Adventist church have the administrative authority to ordain women, as some have now done.

Dr. Patterson is a retired pastor and church administrator. He has served as the president of two conferences, as an officer of the North American Division of the General Conference, as a member of the General Conference administrative committee, and as a General Field Secretary of the General Conference.

At the time of the Waco crisis he was assistant to the president of the denomination's North American Division. He was also the founding director of the Office of Mission Awareness for the General Conference. He holds a Doctor of Ministry degree. Over the years he has written for the independent Adventist press, both before and after his retirement.

Adventist Forum is open to the public. All are welcome. For information, contact Art Robertson at robertsa2@earthlink.net or call 471-7150.

Night of Worship

If you are like me, you tend to witness Jesus through music more than anything else. I invite you to close Sabbath with us through a Night of Worship in Newbold Auditorium at 7:30 pm on October 26, 2013.
Adventist Engaged Encounter

Adventist Engaged Encounter (AEE), an enrichment weekend for engaged and recently married couples, is being held on the Andrews University campus. The weekend experience offers couples the insights, tools, and confidence to enrich their relationship and strengthen their love and commitment for one another. For many, attending an AEE weekend is one of the most significant experiences of their courtship or early marriage.

AEE will take place the weekend of November 8-10 2013. For registration information, contact the Undergraduate Leadership Program at aee@andrews.edu or 269-471-6636.

Guest Brazilian Choir & AU Choral Ensembles in Choral Invitational

The Music of Nature is the theme the Choral Invitational Concert hosted by the Andrews University Singers and Chorale under the direction of Stephen Zork. The choral program is on October 19 at 8:00 pm in the Howard Performing Arts Center. It will feature performances from the guest choir Advent Chorale of Brasilia under the direction of Eldom Soares. This award-winning choir from Brazil is on their first tour to the United States of America. They perform primarily Western European symphonic choral works with orchestra. However, the repertoire of this concert, will feature the lighter fare some of the most beloved living composers from North America, South America and England.

The University Singers will perform stirring settings of several folk songs such as "Skylark" arranged by John Rutter, Stephen Foster’s "Some Folks" arranged by Mark Hayes, the Brazilian samba "Aquarela do Brasil" arranged by University Singers’ member Marcelo Martins, and the tender "Good Night, Dear Heart" arranged by Dan Forrest and set to the words of Mark Twain as inscribed on his daughter's tombstone.

The evening program will conclude with the three combined choirs forming the 130-voice Choral Union for a performance of "Gloria" - the radiant three-movement work for choir, brass, organ and percussion by John Rutter.

The concert is free and open to the public. An offering will be received.

AICER Symposium with Karl Bailey

Andrews International Center for Educational Research (AICER) invites students and faculty to attend a research symposium on Tuesday, Oct. 22, at 5:30 p.m.

Presenter: Dr. Karl Bailey, Behavioral Neuroscience program coordinator and associate professor of psychology.

Title: Beyond the IRB: Who is Responsible for Ethical Research?

In the United States, responsibility for ethical treatment of review subjects is ensured by the federally mandated Institutional Review Board structure. However, ethical research requires ethical commitments beyond the narrow definition of 45 CFR 46 (the law describing Institutional Review Boards). We will examine three case studies in order to better understand the implications of research ethics being solely defined by the Institutional Review Board process, and will discuss the role that researchers play in ethical research.

Face-to-face participants meet in Bell Hall 013

Online participants may login as "Guest" at https://andrews.adobeconnect.com/_a877709416/research/ or http://www.andrews.edu/sed/aicer/researchwebinars/ whether or not they are registered Andrews students.

Massage For A Mission

The AU DPT class of 2015 is excited to volunteer at the Center for Rehabilitation of the Paralyzed located in Bangladesh. As of now, 19 eager Student Physical Therapists and 1 Sponsor are signed up to go in August 2014. Under supervision, the students will use their acquired skills to help rehabilitate patients with various musculo-skeletal and neurological dysfunctions.

In order to fundraise for flight tickets by January, our class is extending the opportunity to our community for Massages for donations. It will be held in the AU Department of Physical Therapy building on Sunday, October 20, 2013. Below is the contact information where you can schedule a time.

LLU Pre-Med Interviews

On Tuesday, November 5, through Thursday, November 7, Dr. Sarah Roddy, associate dean of admissions at Loma Linda University School of Medicine, will be here to interview Andrews University students who are interested in pursuing a career in medicine. If you would like to make an appointment to meet with her, please come to the Chemistry Office in Halenz Hall 225 and talk with Dana Johnston.

To ensure that you are able to choose an appointment time that best accommodates your schedule, I would suggest that you sign up for an interview as soon as possible.

You must come in person to sign a transcript release form when you make your appointment. Those who are applying to the school of medicine for the fall of 2014 will have priority.

AUSA Constitution Vote
AUSA (Andrews University Student Association) needs your help! We have amended our old constitution into one that it is more efficient and adaptable to the current needs of our student body. In order to pass this new constitution we need 2/3 of the student body to vote in its favor. Voting will take place starting Tuesday Oct, 22 after the forum in the HPAC. Throughout the week (Tuesday to Friday) you can vote between 11:30 am - 5:00 pm in the campus center. Please visit http://weareausa.org/constitution/ to view the new constitution.

Live United

The campus community is invited to join the 2013 Andrews University United Way Campaign and "Live United" with our Southwest Michigan community. Even though our president won’t be jumping into the Andrews University Pool again this year (check out the video if you’d like to relive his Presidential Splash), we hope the memory of that fearless commitment on his part remains a demonstration of just how much he and we believe in supporting our community through United Way. There are many significant life- and world-changing contributions United Way offers in the lives of individuals and families throughout our community. United Way meets the needs of many people in all walks of life.

Participation and contributions from Andrews University are much appreciated and speak powerfully of Christian charity, human kindness and community responsibility - qualities that Andrews has always exemplified. Let's stretch to the new United Way campaign goals once again. It is the right thing to do.

Keep in mind that participation is just as important as the size of the gift. We believe that with your help we can stretch to raise the number of Andrews staff participating in the United Way campaign to 150 donors and reach an overall goal of raising $18,000. By looking at our campaign history below, we believe this is a doable goal from a campus with more than 800 employees.

ANDREWS UNIVERSITY UNITED WAY CAMPAIGN HISTORY

2012: 139 people gave $14,300
2011: 57 people gave $6,933
2010: 87 people gave $8,401
2009: 82 people gave $10,179
2008: 48 people gave $4,800
2007: 91 people gave $11,202

This Is My Church? With David Asscherick

Is it possible to know that God exists? Why must innocent children suffer? Beginning on October 18th, at 7:30pm, Pastor David Asscherick will be at Pioneer Memorial Church, on the campus of Andrews University, to deal with some of the most difficult questions that people have about life, God, and the church.

Co-Curricular Credit Will be Given

Watch this video for more info.

http://vimeo.com/75600271

Each night will be a conversation of sorts. Pastor Asscherick will begin every night with a presentation, followed by a live Q & A period.

Some of the other topics will include:
* "Who Was Right? Jesus or Darwin?"
* "What, Really, Did Jesus Accomplish?"
* and many others.

Here's the complete schedule for the week:

Friday, October 18: 7:30pm
Saturday, October 19: 9:00 & 11:45am
Monday-Friday October 21-25: 7:30pm
Saturday, October 26: 9:00 & 11:45am

Bring a few friends and we hope to see you there!

Special Hours for Andrews Treasures this Sabbath

The Andrews Treasures Exhibition is hosting special Sabbath afternoon hours on Oct. 19, 3-5 p.m., an ideal time to bring your Pathfinder groups, Sabbath School class, or just come with your friends and families. Whether you're interested in natural history and seeing the woolly mammoth, treasures from our church history, art treasures including a Rembrandt etching, or archaeological artifacts from Bible times, you're sure to find something that will inspire and delight. It is also a good opportunity to bring your non-Adventist friends and family with you to share a visit to this interesting exhibition. A shuttle bus will run between the nine different locations on campus, but you may also wear your walking shoes and enjoy the fall beauty of campus. More details about the exhibition are available at andrews.edu/go/treasures. "Every good and perfect gift is from above" James 1:17.

Purdue Professor Presents for ChemSem

What medical applications will protein-based materials be used for? What are their advantages over conventional materials?

Everyone is welcome to attend our seventh Fall 2013 lecture in the Andrews University Chemistry & Biochemistry Departmental Seminar Series this coming Thursday, Oct. 17, at 4:30 p.m. As usual we meet in A-107 in Halenz Hall (Science Complex).

Thursday’s seminar topic is:

“Protein-based Biomaterials for Medical Uses”

Our guest speaker is:

Julie C Liu, Assistant Professor
Purdue University, West Lafayette, Ind.

If you have any questions, please contact Desmond Murray at 269-757-1641 or murrayd@andrews.edu.

Teachers are encouraged to announce this lecture in their classes and/or forward this email to their classes.

GROW Group Leaders 2014

GROW Group Leaders for Spring 2014

Have you seriously considered becoming a GROW Group Leader? Our 2014 groups begin Jan. 31, 2014, but all the behind-the-scenes flurry is already in the making. Today, could you go to pmchurch.org/newgrowgroup to see what it takes for a person to register a group? There are only a few pieces to make a GROW Group picture complete, and the key feature is YOU! The deadline to register your group is Dec. 2. Won’t you consider this opportunity to share your interest and your faith with a few folks like you who desire to become more like Jesus?

Questions? Call Carolyn Strzyzykowski at 269-519-2801.

International Student Services

Dear AU and community family:

Greetings to you from the Office of International Student Services & Programs at Andrews University. We have numerous international students that are here from a more pleasantly warmer climate and find these early fall mornings to be chillier than they desire. Therefore, they are requesting gently used coats, jackets, boots, scarves, hats and gloves. I am writing on their behalf to ask for donations of these items. If you were already planning on giving the items away, we would love to have them be given to us so we can make them available to our students in need.

As for sizes and gender, we will take any sizes and for either gender. We would also appreciate receiving the same items for children (ages 0–12). If you happen to be on campus, you may drop donations off at our office on the main floor of the Campus Center building or if you prefer for us to pick them up, please call 269-471-3310 or email us at: iss@andrews.edu.

Thank you all and God bless you for your ministry to the needy.

Ellen White: Daring Liberal & Immovable Conservative"

Adventist Forum presents "Ellen White: Daring Liberal and Immovable Conservative," presented by Alden Thompson, professor of biblical studies at Walla Walla University in College Place, Wash.

The presentation will be held in Garber Auditorium in Chan Shun Hall at Andrews University on Saturday, Oct. 19, 2013, at 3:30 p.m.

After serving as a pastor in southeastern California from 1967 to 1970, Thompson became a faculty member of Walla Walla University in 1970. From 1972 to 1974 he studied at the University of Edinburgh in Scotland and was awarded a doctorate in Old Testament and Judaic Studies. His dissertation was published in 1977 by Scholars Press. He taught for two years in Germany, and from 1986 to 1990 he served as the academic vice president of Walla Walla University, returning to full-time teaching in the School of Theology in 1990.

Thompson is much concerned with church unity, and has described his 2009 book, "Beyond Common Ground: Why Liberals and Conservatives Need Each Other," as "a kind of capstone to my teaching career." He has discussed differing personality types and how they relate to God and the church.

He supports the process of change and has argued that during her life Ellen White, one of the founders of the Seventh-day Adventist church, made significant changes in her views of God. His series "From Sinai to Golgotha," a five-part sequence published in the Adventist Review, discusses a change from a more fear-based picture of God in the Bible at Mt. Sinai, to a more grace-based image of God at the cross. He also claims Ellen White personally moved from fear to joy. His article, "The Scary Lady of Adventism Learns to Have Fun" and his book, "Escape from the Flames: How Ellen White Grew from Fear to Joy—and Helped Me to Do it Too" (2005), have a similar theme.

Thompson's speaking engagements and writings cover many topics, including the Old Testament, Ellen White studies, inspiration, and Seventh-day Adventist history.

Adventist Forum is open to the public. All are welcome. For information, contact Art Robertson at robertsa2@earthlink.net or call 269-471-7150.
PREAMBLE

We, the members of the Andrews University Student Association, desiring:
 to cooperate more closely for our mutual benefit;
 to maintain and uphold the purposes and objectives of the University;
 to maintain academic freedom, academic responsibility, and student rights;
 to improve student social, physical, and spiritual welfare;
 to foster the recognition of the rights and responsibilities of student to the school and the community;
 to provide a means of training for leadership and service in the cause of God and humanity;
do hereby establish and pledge ourselves to abide by the Constitution of the Andrews University Student Association.

ARTICLE I. NAME, AUTHORITY, AND MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Name

The name of this organization shall continue to be the Andrews University Student Association, hereinafter referred to alternately as the AUSA and the association.

Section 2. Authority

This organization is ordained by the express authority of the AUSA membership, and shall operate with the explicit consent of the Andrews University Board of Trustees.

Section 3. Membership

All students registered at Andrews University may be voting members of this organization. All undergraduate students taking seven (7) credits or more shall automatically be members. Other undergraduates or graduate students shall have the option of joining by paying the dues established by the AUSA.

Section 4. Bylaws

There shall be Bylaws affixed to this Constitution which shall be adopted by the AUSA Senate. The Bylaws of the AUSA shall be consistent with the spirit of this Constitution.

ARTICLE II. THE ELECTORATE

Section 1. Composition and Authority

The Electorate shall consist of all members of the AUSA, and shall constitute the final authority in all matters of AUSA concern (subject to Article I above). The Electorate shall exercise its authority by election, initiative, referendum, and recall.

Section 2. General Assembly

Meetings of the Assembly may be called by the AUSA President, by the Vice President in the absence of the President, or by petition of ten percent (10%) of the membership. There shall be at least two (2) Assembly meetings each year. Notice of all meetings must be given two (2) days in advance. Minutes shall be kept by the Secretary with copies for the permanent record, and the agenda shall be determined by the AUSA President. A quorum shall be thirty-five percent (35%) of the members.

ARTICLE III. THE LEGISLATIVE

Section 1. Composition

a. The Legislative body of the AUSA shall be the Senate and shall consist of the following voting members:
   i. District senators, from residence halls, each senator elected in the fall to represent a clearly-defined district as constituted under the Bylaws.
   ii. Community senators, elected in the fall, to represent the off-campus members of the AUSA. The number of community senator positions shall be proportional to the ratio of off-campus AUSA members to on-campus AUSA members as determined by the most current available record.
   iii. There shall be at least one Senator from each district; each Senator shall have one vote.

   b. The Executive Vice President of the Association shall be the President of the Senate, but shall have no vote, unless the Senate be equally divided. The Senate shall choose their officers and also a President pro tempore.

   c. Meetings of the AUSA Senate shall be held at least twice each month. Meetings shall be called by the AUSA Executive Vice President, by the AUSA President, or by ten percent (10%) of the AUSA members. The meetings of the AUSA Senate must be announced at least two (2) days prior to the scheduled time. A quorum of the Senate shall be a majority of the voting members.

Section 2. Purpose

The Student Senate shall serve to provide a forum for student representation in discussing issues pertaining to campus life. Student Senate shall act as the channel through which recommendations and proposals may be developed for presentation to the Andrews University Senate and administration for action.

Section 3. Power of the Purse

All bills for the appropriation of revenue shall originate in the Senate.

Section 4. Presidential Veto

Every bill which shall have passed the Senate shall, before it becomes effective, be presented to the President of the Association; if he/she shall approve, he/she shall sign it, but if not, he/she shall return it with his/her objections to the Senate, who shall enter the objections at large in its journal and proceed to reconsider it. If after such reconsideration two-thirds of the Senate shall agree to pass the bill, it shall become effective. But in all cases the votes of the Senators shall be determined by Yeas and Nays, and the names of the persons voting for and against the bill shall be entered in the journal of the Senate. If any bill shall not be returned by the President within seven days after it shall have been presented to him/her, the same shall be effective in like manner as if he/she had signed it, unless the Senate by their adjournment prevent its return, in which case it shall not be effective.

Section 5. Power of Impeachment

The Senate shall have the sole power to try all impeachments. When any member of the Executive is tried, the Executive Vice President shall preside. No person shall be convicted without the concurrence of two-thirds of the members present. Judgment in cases of impeachment shall not extend further than removal from office, and to disqualification to hold and enjoy any office of honor, trust, or profit under the Association.
ARTICLE IV. THE EXECUTIVE

Section 6.

The constitution shall be regularly reviewed at least once every five (5) years for organizational effectiveness and balance. The constitution shall be regularly reviewed at least once every five (5) years for organizational effectiveness and balance.

6 Ways To Improve Your Balance

By Sarah Mahoney

It's always been a family joke that I inherited my dad's klutziness, and he and I have endured our fair share of Three Stooges moments. But these days, no one's laughing: At 87, my father has begun falling, one of the most serious medical problems facing older people.

In fact, grace is a crucial survival skill, but it's also perishable. Ever so gradually after we hit 30, muscles we use to stand tall weaken. The length of our stride shortens, the pace of our steps slows, and vision—critical to coordination—becomes fuzzier. Even menopause can make our gait a tad more wobbly. "Aging, however, isn't the only reason people lose their sense of stability," says A. Lynn Millar, PhD, a professor of physical therapy at Andrews University. "Balance is really 'use it or lose it.' You can maintain it if you stay active."

How well we keep our balance now, in midlife, can protect us from what lies ahead: One in three adults over age 65 takes a serious tumble each year. Avoiding falls means a longer life: About 20% of women who fracture a hip become permanently disabled, and another 20% die within a year. In fact, health problems linked to hip fractures result in more women's deaths each year than breast cancer does.

But an enhanced sense of stability doesn't just help protect you from future falls. There are immediate health benefits—better mobility, fewer injuries, greater capacity to push yourself harder during workouts—that increase overall fitness, says Fabio Comana, an exercise physiologist with the American Council on Exercise.

The problem is that people are often unaware that their coordination is slipping. While there are hallmarks of clumsiness—such as poor handwriting and constantly banged-up shins and knees—even naturally agile people need to work to boost balance with age. (To see where you stand, try our quiz above.) "Balance is a separate system, just like strength or flexibility. You can improve it if you continue to challenge it," says Edward Laskowski, MD, codirector of the Mayo Clinic Sports Medicine Center in Rochester, MN.

Here are six strategies to help strengthen the core and lower-body muscles that keep you steady on your feet:

Stand on one leg. Try to do this while you are washing the dishes, suggests Laskowski. When you can hold the pose for 30 seconds on each side, stand on a less stable surface, such as a couch cushion; to increase the challenge even more, do it with your eyes closed.

Take a tai chi class. A recent study of tai chi practitioners in their mid-60s found that on measures of stability, most scored around the 90th percentile of the American Fitness Standards. Yoga works too: According to Temple University research, women 65 and older who took twice-weekly yoga classes for 9 weeks increased ankle flexibility and showed more confidence in walking. That last part is important, says lead researcher Jinsup Song, PhD, "because when people are fearful of losing balance, they tend to do less to challenge themselves." That fear doesn't plague only the elderly: A Howard University study found that among those 65 and older, 22% had already become fearful of falling.

Walk heel to toe. The same sobriety field test cops give drunk drivers also improves balance. Take 20 steps forward, heel to toe. Then walk backward, with toe to heel, in a straight line.

Do squats. Sturdy legs can help prevent a stumble from turning into a fall, says Comana. To build quads, start with a simple squat: With feet hip-width apart, bend knees and hips and slowly lower yourself as if sitting in a chair behind you. Keep arms straight out, abs tight, back straight, and knees above shoelaces. Stop when thighs are parallel to the floor (or as close as you can get), then contract glutes as you stand back up. Aim for 3 sets of 10, with a 1-minute break after each.
Practice the force. It takes muscle strength to get out of a chair, but it takes muscle force to do it quickly. "That force—the ability to get your leg in the right place in a nanosecond—is important in preventing falls," says Comana. We lose muscle force faster than strength, and according to new research, it takes older women longer to build it back up. Try this move: Instead of gingerly rising from a chair, once in a while leap out of it so forcefully that you need to take a few running steps after you do so. (You can use your arms to gain momentum.) "The explosiveness of that action builds power," says Comana. Side-to-side and back-to-front muscle movements have the same effect, such as when you play tennis or basketball.

Balance on a wobble board. It's one of a few gym gizmos designed to challenge your stability. Stand on the board, feet shoulder-width apart, abs tight, and rock forward and back and side to side for a minute at a time. (Hold a chair for support, if needed.) Work up to 2 minutes, without holding on or letting the edges of the device touch the floor. "Keep injecting novelty into your routine," says Millar. "Push yourself to try something new and you'll boost both balance and overall health."

Test Your Balance
1. On both feet Stand with feet together, anklebones touching, and arms folded across chest; then close your eyes. Have someone time you: Though it's normal to sway a little, you should be able to stand for 60 seconds without moving your feet. Next, place one foot directly in front of the other and close your eyes. You should be able to stand for at least 38 seconds on both sides.
2. On one foot Stand on one foot and bend other knee, lifting nonsupporting foot off floor without letting it touch standing leg. (Do this in a doorway so you can grab the sides if you start to fall.) Repeat with eyes closed. People age 60 and younger can typically hold the pose for about 29 seconds with their eyes open, 21 seconds with their eyes closed. People age 61 and older: 22 seconds with eyes open, 10 seconds with eyes closed.
3. On ball of foot Stand on one foot with hands on hips, and place nonsupporting foot against inside knee of standing leg. Raise heel off floor and hold the pose—you should be able to do so for 25 seconds.

Bonus Balance Tip: Sleep more than 7 hours a night. Sleep deprivation slows reaction time, and a study at California Pacific Medical Center shows that it's also directly related to falls: Researchers tracked nearly 3,000 older women and found that those who typically slept between 5 and 7 hours each night were 40% more likely to fall than those who slept longer.
Northfield, ILL.—The College of American Pathologists (CAP) awarded Alfred Lui, MD, FCAP, a pathologist from Torrance, Calif., with the CAP Distinguished Service Award at a special ceremony October 12, 2013, in Orlando, Fla., at CAP '13 — THE Pathologists’ Meeting™.

Dr. Lui was recognized for his leadership in the successful promotion of private pathology practices and his ongoing contributions to organized pathology at the local, state and national levels.

"In these uncertain and turbulent times, it is easy to forget that our primary opportunity and responsibility is to provide each patient we diagnose or treat with the highest level of care," Dr. Lui said. “I firmly believe that continually working to improve our own skills is the best route to ensuring that the value of pathology services is recognized and that our profession survives and thrives. I am honored and grateful to be recognized by my peers with the CAP Distinguished Service Award."

Among his many contributions to the pathology specialty, Dr. Lui has held multiple roles in professional societies, often simultaneously, all while developing one of the largest and most successful private medical practices in California. His leadership roles include service to the CAP Councils on Education, Membership and Professional Development, and the CAP Publications Committee. In addition, he is past president of the California Society of Pathologists (CSP), where he currently serves on the CSP Education Committee.

Dr. Lui is currently chief medical officer and chairman of the board of Pathology, Inc., an independent anatomic and clinical laboratory in Torrance, Calif. He is the cofounder of four pathology and independent laboratory companies, of which two are still in operation. In addition to Pathology, Inc., Dr. Lui cofounded the Affiliated Pathologists Medical Group, which has grown from a two-person group to 37 pathologists providing services to 14 hospitals and three independent laboratory locations in California, Oregon, and Arizona. Pathology, Inc. is the largest independent laboratory in California with close to 400 employees and a focus on women’s health testing.

Dr. Lui graduated summa cum laude from Andrews University in Berrien Springs, Mich. A member of the Alpha Omega Alpha Honor Medical Society, Dr. Lui earned his medical degree at Loma Linda University and completed his pathology residency at Harbor–UCLA Medical Center. Dr. Lui’s particular professional interests are liver and gynecological pathology, as well as process and quality improvement. He is a certified consultant for the Birkman Personality Assessment method, which focuses on team building, executive coaching, leadership development and conflict resolution.
Pathologists are physicians who use laboratory medicine and technology to identify and diagnose disease. They work with primary care physicians and others on the patient care team to guide treatment plans. In fact, more than 70 percent of all decisions about diagnosis, treatment, hospital admission, and discharge rest on the pathologist's report.

About the CAP
As the leading organization for board-certified pathologists, the College of American Pathologists (CAP) serves patients, pathologists, and the public by fostering and advocating excellence in the practice of pathology and laboratory medicine worldwide. With more than 18,000 physician members, the CAP has led laboratory accreditation for more than 50 years with more than 7,500 CAP-accredited laboratories in 50 countries. Find more information about the CAP at cap.org. Follow CAP on Twitter: @pathologists.

Andrews University begins accreditation for Master of Public Health Program

April Bamburg

This summer, Andrews University applied to begin the accreditation process of their Master of Public Health in Nutrition and Wellness degree program, through the Council on Education for Public Health (CEPH). In late September, they learned that their request had been approved.

The accreditation process includes a two year self-study and submission of a self-study document, followed by an onsite peer review by an independent team from CEPH. In the Department of Public Health and Wellness, professors Gretchen Krivak and Fiona Lewis are conducting the self-study, along with faculty members in the Department of Public Health and the Director of Institutional Effectiveness. Five months after the self-study document is submitted, the CEPH site visit will occur.

In 2012, Andrews University created the School of Health Professions. Not long after, said Emmanuel Rudatsikira, dean of the School of Health Professions, the leadership decided to start a Master of Public Health degree program, in order to meet the high demand for public health professionals in the workforce.

The U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics reports that public health employment is expected to increase by 37 percent from 2010 to 2020, which is above the 14 percent growth average of most occupations. Adding 23,200 new jobs in a 10 year span, these statistics are part of the reason, Rudatsikira said, that the school’s leadership chose to create the MPH program.

In the fall of 2013, the first cohort of students in this program began their studies. The first group includes 25 students and they come from Barbados, the United States, Guadeloupe, Sweden and Trinidad. "Enrollment for the current cohort exceeded our projection by 108 percent," Rudatsikira said. "We thank God for blessing the joint effort of three schools: Andrews University’s School of Distance Education, School of Graduate Studies & Research, and School of Health Professions."

Offered entirely online and at a 50% tuition discount, the MPH program requires completion of 42 credit hours and students can complete their studies in just three years. The degree program is a result of a partnership of three schools within the university: the School of Distance Education, the School of Graduate Studies and Research, and the School of Health Professions.

The program at Andrews University stands out from others offered online across the country, university representatives say, because the program emphasizes a vegetarian lifestyle and wellness. Rudatsikira said that this program is the first of its kind in the United States, offered entirely online and focusing on nutrition and wellness.

"This program will prepare health professionals for service in the community and church by building knowledge and skills necessary to enhance the health of human populations and promote a healthy lifestyle through personal and community efforts," Rudatsikira said.
Andrews University is a private Christian School in Berrien Springs, Mich. It is affiliated with the Seventh Day Adventist Church. It was founded in 1874. “U.S. News and World Report” ranked Andrews University as one of the Best Colleges in 2010. The online graduate business and graduate education programs were also ranked in the top 150 schools in the nation that same year.

Help Verlyn Benson

Verlyn Benson (former Dean of College of Technology and now Assistant to Provost and President) has been stricken with a rare and very serious form of liver cancer. The tumor is large and invasive. He is going to Mayo Clinic weekly for chemo treatments and blood work. This is expensive and there have been a number of requests from those who would like to help with his heavy travel costs. On a website for donations, "Give Forward", a page has been set up for contributing to Verlyn's expenses: http://gfwd.at/1d8Cy9e. He also is blogging at: http://www.caringbridge.org/visit/verlynbenson. (You may make donations to the Caring Bridge but they are to support that website and not Verlyn's medical travel expenses.)

Raku Firing Workshop
BUCHANAN ART CENTER OFFERS HANDS-ON RAKU FIRING WORKSHOP

On Saturday, October 26, the Buchanan Art Center will offer a Hands-on RAKU Firing Workshop from 8 AM – 4 PM. Potters and clay students with any level of expertise are invited to join in this exciting, immediate firing experience. Please be aware that this is a HANDS-ON WORKSHOP, not a public walk-through fund raising event. Participants are expected to assist in setting up kilns, glazing, firing and cleaning up after the firing, so dress for action outside, and plan to attend all day. Bring your own bisque-fired ware and lunch. Special Note: Raku ware is not food safe or water-tight.

COST: $25* BAC member / $30* non- BAC member. The price of the workshop covers the cost of glazes and firing. Registrations and payment are required NO LATER THAN FRIDAY, OCTOBER 25th -- Call 269-697-4005.

The Buchanan Art Center is located at 117 West Front Street in Buchanan, Michigan. The Center features three galleries with rotating exhibits of regional artists’ works, a program of educational art classes for all ages, and a gift shop offering works of local artists. Current hours are Monday – Thursday 10:00 am-6:00 pm, Friday 10:00 am–5:00 pm, and Saturday 10:00 am–4:00 pm. Closed Sundays. More information, including a schedule of classes, can be obtained at the Center by calling 269-697-4005, or by visiting their website at: www.buchananartcenter.org.

Volunteers Needed for Senior Day of Action

The United Way of Southwest Michigan is in need of at least 100 volunteers for Senior Day of Action on Thursday, November 7.

On that day, teams of volunteers will go to the homes of senior citizens throughout Berrien and Cass counties to rake leaves, clean gutters, and apply plastic to windows in preparation for winter. United Way has partnered with Area Agency on Aging to identify some of our community’s most vulnerable seniors who truly need this kind of assistance. We especially need teams in St. Joseph, Dowagiac, and Cassopolis, but could also use one more team in Marcellus and one more in Coloma.

To sign up and volunteer, please visit United Way’s website: www.uwsm.org Click on the “Days of Action” tab at the top and click on “Senior Day of Action”.

The deadline for volunteer sign-up is Oct 18th.

"I Am the Greatest" Sculpture Bicycle Tour

“I Am the Greatest” Sculpture Bicycle Tour
Presented by Cycle Re-Cycle and Ars Gallery as well as the Boys & Girls Teen Center

OCTOBER 26, 1-3 pm

Free

Starting at Cycle Re-Cycle, 300 12th St., Benton Harbor

We are raising awareness about public art, and arts education, specifically the IATG sculpture which was inspired by Muhammad Ali, and used as a role model for our local youth, and to offer an after school arts education program at ARS Gallery. We are also raising awareness about safe, fun, family bike rides, which Cycle Re-Cycle is behind.

We will tour The "I Am The Greatest" Sculptures in Benton Harbor & St. Joseph, beginning at Cycle Recycle, and all the locations of the IATG sculpture, including the Boys & Girls Joel E. Smilow Teen Center. Maps with sculpture locations, and an itinerary will be passed out at Cycle Re-cycle with information about the details of the ride. We will end at the Livery in Benton Harbor, where we will talk about the ride, sculpture, and arts programming, as well as having Cycle Re-cycle share more on their bike tours and other programming as we enjoy Fall favorite refreshments.

Buchanan First United Methodist Church Volunteer Projects

Every year millions of volunteers participate in community projects on Make a Difference Day – the largest national day of service. This year volunteers from across Michiana are invited to Buchanan, MI on October 26th to participate in one of 2 projects.

Project 1: City of Buchanan – Plant for the Future!
Volunteers will plant 75 Heritage Trees along the McCoy Creek Watershed. These trees will protect the local water supply and keep the creek flowing. Sign up to volunteer from 9 a.m. – noon or 2:00 – 5 p.m.

Project 2: Buchanan Community Schools – Support Education!
Volunteers will do the fall landscaping clean up at Ottawa Elementary or do a painting project at the school farm. The School Farm is a unique educational asset for Buchanan Students.

For all activities volunteers should dress for the weather and, if possible, bring work gloves and tools in case extras are needed. Volunteers from across Michiana are invited, and needed, to accomplish these projects. Families are welcome!

For more information and to sign up to volunteer visit Make A Difference Buchanan on Facebook or email MakeADifferenceBuchanan@gmail.com.

Beechwood Apartment - Female Roommate Needed (Spring Semester)
I am in need of a female roommate for spring semester 2014 starting in January. I'm 24 years old and work at Andrews Academy while also working towards fulfilling the requirements for my master's program before I apply next school year. If interested, I would appreciate meeting with you before applying at the Housing Office.

It's an apartment right on campus, two-bedroom, shared living, bathroom and kitchen, laundry facility right next door (coin operated), storage room. Rent is $355.

I'm looking for someone who is Adventist and friendly (sociable). Also would be okay with having friends and family over occasionally. Willing to split the cost on common household items (e.g. cleaning supplies, etc). Respect of privacy and need to study academically.

Leaf Raking/Yard Work

Leaves are falling and your time is precious.

Need your yard raked? Do you need other yard work done to prepare for winter?

I have 12+ strong, energetic and hard working young men who are willing to do an incredible and thorough job for you. These young men are trying to raise money for a basketball youth ministry and are ready to make your yard leaf-free and beautiful all for a donation to the program.

Please contact me at jbmcmillen@gmail.com to let me know what you need done, the address and dates you have available for these young men to come work.

Please support this ministry and receive a beautiful, leaf-free lawn in the process.
