Andrews University Policies for Gift Giving & Donations
- HOLIDAY GIFT-GIVING is just around the corner. Please keep in mind the gift policy: Gift Receipts submitted for reimbursement must include the name and social security number of the gift recipient if value is $50 or higher. Gift Cards are discouraged, however if you choose to purchase gift cards, this same information is required for ALL gift cards, regardless of dollar value. Gift cards given to International individuals have a 30% tax added which will be charged to the department. These are requirements of the U.S. Tax Law. (For more info see Gift & Gift Card Processing on our website)
- PHILANTHROPY AND A GIVING SPIRIT is abundant on our campus. If your department feels moved to donate to a project or cause, please take up a collection for this. The use of departmental funds that have been budgeted for the direct operating needs of your department are not to be used in this manner.
- SOLICITING DONATIONS of University departmental funds is against policy. Requests from individuals, external entities, departments or clubs should be directed to the University Advancement Office which has an allocated budget for such requests. Policy can be viewed on our website: http://www.andrews.edu/services
Semester Hours are the same throughout the year, except during breaks and holidays. Check back often to get the most current hours for the Terrace Cafe and Gazebo.

The Speech-Language Pathology Program at Andrews University, as part of its application for candidacy for accreditation from the Council on Academic Accreditation (CAA) in Audiology and Speech-Language Pathology invites the public to provide input to our site visitor’s regarding our proposed program. Those wishing to provide input about our program may do so in two ways:

1. By submitting written comments prior to the accreditation site visit in accordance with the procedures as specified in the CAA’s Policy on Public Comment, or
2. By providing comments to the site visit team during the program's scheduled site visit public meeting:

   December 16, 2013
   4:00—5:00 p.m.
   Andrews University Campus
   Buller Hall
   Newbold Auditorium

Comments should relate to our program’s compliance with the CAA’s published Standards for Accreditation of Graduate Education programs in Audiology and Speech-Language Pathology. Written comments should identify Andrews University’s Speech-Language Pathology Program as the program seeking candidacy.

Both the Standards for Accreditation of Graduate Education Programs in Audiology and Speech-Language Pathology and the CAA’s Policy and Procedures on Public Comment are available on the ASHA website (http://www.asha.org). These documents also may be obtained by sending a written request to the accreditation Office at ASHA, 2200 Research Boulevard #310, Rockville, Maryland 20850, by calling ASHA’s Action Center at 800-498-2071, or by sending an e-mail to accreditation@asha.org.
AFIA Fundraises for Philippines
During the week of Nov. 11-15, AFIA made over $1,000 from sales of club sweatshirts and beanies. All proceeds were sent to aid in Philippines relief through ADRA (Adventist Development & Relief Agency) International. They also collected cash and check donations to be used for the same purpose by the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists. <<< Read the full story >>>

SciFEST 2013
From November 14–17, Andrews University hosted the first annual SciFEST weekend, put on by the Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) Division in the College of Arts & Sciences. The event celebrated science and gave high school students a taste of what goes on around campus. For this first-ever SciFEST, Seventh-day Adventist academies within the region were invited to visit Andrews and participate in science-related events and activities along with the University community and the public. <<< Read the full story >>>

Practical Place-Making
On Thursday, Nov. 7, students in the Andrews University place making studio class had the opportunity to present their ideas for the redesign of the front grounds of the Krasl Art Center in St. Joseph, Mich. Special guest Lorna Jordan spoke on the principles and philosophy of place making that have influenced her award-winning projects throughout the United States. <<< Read the full story >>>

Professor Publishes Textbook
Thomas Michaud, assistant professor of web design at Andrews University, published his first textbook, Foundations of Web Design: Introduction to HTML and CSS, in August 2013 through Pearson Education. The textbook focuses on the fundamental skills necessary for writing, or coding, a website using the core languages of HTML and CSS for any student pursuing a career in web design, front-end developing or any other design-related job. <<< Read full story >>>

Student Writes on Learning from Holidays
Katelyn Ruiz, communications graduate student, writes for U.S. News & World Report

As an international student, I miss my folks, but being away from home over the holidays makes the distance between us seem much greater.

To combat this calendar-induced bout of seasonal homesickness, I committed to celebrating in my own way with whatever traditions I could sneak across the border.

First, I realized that I was not alone in feeling lonely. Many of my fellow international students, whom I came to know through classes or campus-sponsored activities, also missed their own holiday celebrations. <<< Read the full story >>>

Professor Speaks on Retention in the Church
Spectrum Magazine

With one third of baptized Seventh-day Adventist church members slipping out the back door, officials at the General Conference have decided it is time to address the issue in a major way. To do so, academic researchers and church administrators are meeting this week in Silver Spring to discuss the data and suggest a strategy to reverse the trend during the “Summit on Nurture and Retention, 2013: Discipling, Retaining, and Reclaiming.” … Andrews University Professor David Sedlacek provided the literature review of why Christians leave the Church, particularly young people. <<< Read the full story >>>

Live-In Men's Dean Needed

We need a live in dean for our 6 adult men. He would need to get them up in the morning, have morning and evening worship with them, check to make sure their rooms are clean, have them load their laundry, but turn the washer and dryer on for them (they are not allowed to add the detergent, the dean does that), client supervision. The present dean also gets their breakfast and supper. With more help, that could change.

The pay is $300, per month.
