Staff Moodle Session

Staff members, are you currently assisting faculty members and/or students with Moodle and would like to know more? You are invited to a Staff Moodle Session where you will get an overview of Moodle and a better understanding on how this tool can assist your department. Come with questions in mind and the willingness to learn!

Staff Moodle Session will be offered twice on October 8 and October 9, from 12:00-1:00pm, in rooms 123 and 125 of Griggs Hall. Choose one of those dates to join us and bring your own lunch! Dessert will be provided.

Please feel free to email bealmj@andrews.edu any questions or ideas you may have regarding Moodle.

Contact: Marsha Beal
bealmj@andrews.edu

Alumni Gala

Concert on Saturday, September 27 at 8:00 pm.

The Andrews University Alumni Association will present a Gala Concert in the Howard Performing Arts Center. The concert will feature the Andrews University Department of Music ensembles: the Wind Symphony, directed by Alan Mitchell, the University Singers, directed by Stephen Zork, and the Symphony Orchestra, directed by Claudio Gonzalez. This event is part of the 2014 Alumni Homecoming Weekend.

Howard Center Presents...Irish Folk & Celtic Duo Dana Lyn & Kyle Sanna

Concert at 7:00 pm on Sunday, September 28

Prepare to be caught up in the Celtic spirit with fiddler Dana Lyn and guitarist Kyle Sanna. Both are arrangers, composers, players and improvisers. Lyn has performed at "Saturday Night Live," the National Folk-life Festival, the Milwaukee Irish Music and Celtic Connections. She was also featured on "The Raw Bar" and "Geanntrai," documentaries on traditional Irish music that aired on national television in Ireland. Sanna has performed with some of today's greatest virtuosos, including Edgar Meyer, Yo-Yo Ma and Chris Thile; and with some of the greatest living interpreters of Irish music, including Kevin Burke and Martin Hayes.

TICKETS REQUIRED: $15 Reserved Seating, $5 Students

Purchase tickets online, or call our box office at 888-467-6442 for student discounts and more information.

Howard Center Presents....Telegraph Quartet

Concert at 4:00 pm on Sunday, October 12

In collaboration with the WAUS Second Sunday concert series, the Howard Center presents the Telegraph Quartet. The Telegraph Quartet, from San Francisco, California, won the Grand Prize and the Gold Medal in the Senior String Division in the 2014 Fischoff National Chamber Music Competition. This ensemble includes a first and second violin, a viola and a cello. Founded in 1987, the Fischoff Grand Prize is an esteemed award given at the largest chamber music competition in the world. As part of the prestigious honor of winning the competition, the Telegraph Quartet is touring America's Midwest region, stopping at the Howard Performing Arts Center along the way, and will eventually go on to tour in Italy's Emilia Romagna Festival in 2015.

AFIA Rice Run to Benefit MRSA

With the endorsement of the Michigan Governor’s Council on Physical Fitness, Health and Sports and the Michigan Fitness Foundation, Andrews Filipino International Association (AFIA) of Andrews University has partnered with the MRSA Survivors Network for the 2014 Rice Run: a 5K run that aims to raise awareness of MRSA, Methicillin Resistant Staphylococcus Aureus, by encouraging the community to get involved in physical activity.

AFIA is a club on the campus of Andrews University that promotes Filipino culture, values, and traditions to the students of the campus and the people of the community. AFIA aims to create a diverse network of connections and relationships, bringing together anyone who may be interested in Filipino culture through a variety of events and programs. In addition to providing memorable experiences through fun events, AFIA also strives to inspire the spirit of love and support by bringing awareness to any struggles that some people in our community may be facing.

This year AFIA has collaborated with the MRSA Survivors Network in hopes of raising awareness and funds for this great organization. MRSA is an acronym for Methicillin Resistant Staphylococcus Aureus, a type of bacteria that causes serious infections, prompting more deaths than HIV. The MRSA Survivors Network is "the global leader and voice in awareness, prevention, support, and advocacy" of MRSA. To learn more about the organization, you may visit: http://www.mrsasurvivors.org/about.

The 2014 5K Rice Run will take place on 5 October 2014 at 8 AM in St. Joseph, Michigan, starting at Margaret B. Upton Aboretum. Registration is now live at http://alumni.andrews.edu/events/afia-5k-run/, costing $25 for general registration and $20 for student registration. Participants can run or walk the 5K in St. Joseph, assured that they are creating awareness and raising funds for a great cause while participating in a quality physical activity event through the Michigan Governor's Council’s Pure Michigan FITness Series endorsement program. "Pure Michigan FITness events promote physical activity for individuals and communities while providing a fun way for us all to get moving," says Mike Maisner, Vice President of Active Communities. Runners will also be eligible to enter the Mackinac Bridge Labor Day Run Lottery. For more information about the Governor’s Council’s endorsement program, you may visit: www.michiganfitness.org/pure-michigan-fitness-series.

"Through this event, we hope to succeed in our goal of generating awareness and raising funds for the MRSA Survivors Network,“ says the 2014-2015 officers of AFIA. “But we also want to succeed in our goal of creating a diverse network of connections and relationships with our fellow students and with those in our community, further amplifying the spirit of love and support.” For more information about our sponsors for the event or AFIA, visit: www.andrews.edu/go/afia.

Following Faith Commitments: Successful Transition to SDA Higher Education

Andrews International Center for Educational Research (AICER) invites students and faculty to attend a research symposium on Wednesday October 1 at 5:30 p.m.

Presenters: Dr. Larry Burton (Professor of Curriculum & Instruction, and Editor of the Journal of Research on Christian Education, Andrews University); Josephine Katenga, Andrews University Curriculum & Instruction Graduate Student; and Christine Moniyung, Nursing Professor, Southern Adventist University

Following Faith Commitments: Successful Transition from Public High School to Adventist Higher Education

This study sought to understand the conditions under which public high school graduates were successful in Adventist higher education. Success is defined as both graduating with a Bachelor’s Degree from an Adventist college or university and having a positive attitude toward their Adventist college experience. The research findings indicate that public high school graduates who enrolled and graduated in an Adventist college or university share one central theoretical concern: “following faith commitments.” Because of their personal faith commitments made while in high school or shortly afterwards, these students share a common desire to study at a faith-based university. It appears the most important factor contributing to their successful transition is the individual student’s faith commitment at the time of college enrollment.

Title: Perceptions of Leadership Characteristics of Principals Who Influence Positive School Culture in Midwest Adventist Union: A Qualitative Study

The purpose of this study was to understand and describe leadership characteristics of principals who foster a positive culture in Adventist schools in a Midwest Seventh-day Adventist Union. Findings revealed principals influenced a positive school culture by embracing their multifaceted role as chief culture leaders in their schools. However, they also acknowledged that the task of maintaining a positive school culture required total dependence on God, and a pervasive attitude of continuous improvement, which could not be achieved without the co-leadership of teachers and collegial collaboration with all stakeholders, staff members and school board, primarily the board chair.

International Flag-Raising and Parade

If you're living/studying/working in the area and have international roots, you are invited to sign up to participate in two colorful and meaningful Andrews traditions—the International Flag-Raising and Alumni Parade, to be held this year on Friday, September 26. You're welcome and encouraged to bring your friends and family to participate with you. You may also carry your flag in the Alumni Parade, which will organize at 4:30 in the Andrews Academy parking lot.

The flag raising is IMMEDIATELY following the parade, organizing on the International Flag Mall between the library and PMC at 6 p.m., ceremony starts at 6:30 p.m. While it's ideal if you participate in both events, it is not a requirement to be available for both. Please keep in mind that flag-bearers do not need to be natives of the specific country. Also, if you have international dress, you are invited to wear it for both occasions.

Let us know your interest by emailing your name and country you would like to represent to Rebecca May at rmay@andrews.edu, or you can call me at Integrated Marketing & Communication at 269-471-3345. Be in touch soon because the flags will be assigned on first-come, first-served basis, and will run out fast! We will provide further details upon receipt of your response.

Be sure to look over the complete listing of Homecoming events—it's a very fun weekend for the entire campus! Details available at alumni.andrews.edu/homecoming.

ChemSem News 3: the PADs Project

Chemistry delivers. For countries that lack resources, have inadequate healthcare and access to health care, chemistry is solving problems by delivering affordable and accessible diagnostics using inexpensive paper. The field of paper-based diagnostics is on track to revolutionize individualized point-of-care testing for both developed and underdeveloped countries. Chemistry is central and essential to this effort.

Come and hear how scientists and students in our local Michiana area are helping to solve some of our world problems designing and using paper analytical devices (PADs).

Ebola Virus Replication & Budding from Human Cells

Dr. Robert Stahelin
Adjunct Associate Professor
Dept of Chemistry & Biochemistry
University of Notre Dame
http://chemistry.nd.edu/people/robert-stahelin/

Dr. Robert Stahelin received his Ph.D. in chemistry from the University of Illinois-Chicago (UIC) studying the structural basis of lipid-protein interactions in health and disease. During postdoctoral work at UIC he investigated the mechanisms with which bioactive lipid signals recruit peripheral proteins in cell signaling and membrane trafficking.

Stahelin is Associate Professor of Biochemistry and Molecular Biology at the Indiana University School of Medicine-South Bend. He is also Adjunct Associate Professor of Chemistry and Biochemistry at Notre Dame. Since joining the faculty in 2006, Stahelin has received grants from the NIH, NSF, and American Heart Association. He serves on several journal editorial boards including Chemistry & Physics of Lipids, Current Drug Targets, and Journal of Biomembranes and Bioenergetics.

In 2013 he received an Indiana University Trustees Teaching Award and was named to the Michiana 40 under 40 class. His research group is currently investigating how the Ebola virus assembles at the plasma membrane of human cells to form the bud site for generation of a new viral particle.
Preach to Reach the millennial/mosaic generation
HMS Richards Lectureship on Biblical Preaching
October 19 & 20, 2014

Lecture 1:
You LOST Me!
In North America, the age group that is missing from church are the Millennials/Mosaics (18-29 yrs). This seminar will enlighten us on what we can do to open a dialogue with them.
Sunday, October 19 | 1:00 - 2:30 pm

Lecture 2:
You FOUND Me?
Nine characteristics of churches that are reaching the ‘Lost’ generation.
Sunday, October 19 | 3:30 - 5:00 pm

Sermon:
Who Are You Carrying? Mark 2:4
Monday, October 20 | 10:30 - 11:20 am
Lunch provided!

Pastor Laffit Cortes
From Bronx, NYC, he served as pastor in Greater NY Conference. He was the New Jersey Conf. youth director for eight years initiating teen, collegiate, young adult ministries and urban initiative: “The Ghetto Church.” He served as the Campus Chaplain of Pacific Union College and is presently the lead Pastor of Miami Temple, FL.

Free for pastors & elders.
Hotels & other accommodations are readily available.

Dr. Toni L. O. Barstis is Professor in Physical Chemistry at Saint Mary’s College and Affiliated Faculty of both NDnano (http://nano.nd.edu/) and AD&T (http://advanceddiagnostics.nd.edu/) at the University of Notre Dame. Dr. Barstis joined the Saint Mary’s faculty in 1993, and has taught majors and liberal arts general chemistry lecture/lab courses, life-science physics lecture/lab courses, physical chemistry lecture/lab courses, and senior seminar.

Her current research responsibilities include co-directing (with Dr. Marya Lieberman, University of Notre Dame) several undergraduate and high school students on the Paper Analytical Devices (PADs) Project and serving as a co-PI on the NSF-REU Grant titled “REU Site: Interdisciplinary Working Group for Chemical Analysis in Low-Resource Settings.”

The PADs Project (https://www.saintmarys.edu/chemistry/pads) is a collaborative, multi-disciplinary research project that designs and develops inexpensive paper-based devices for detecting and screening a wide range of chemicals and pharmaceuticals. She was awarded the Spes Unica award for excellence in teaching, scholarship, and service in 2013.

AFIA 2014 5K Rice Run

With the endorsement of the Governor’s Council on Physical Fitness, Health and Sports, the Michigan Fitness Foundation and the Pure Michigan Fitness Series endorsement program, Andrews Filipino International Association (AFIA), a student-led club at Andrews University, has partnered with the MRSA Survivors Network for the 2014 Rice Run, a 5K run/walk that aims to raise awareness of MRSA by encouraging the community to get involved in physical activity.

The 2014 5K Rice Run will take place on October 5 at 8 a.m. at Margaret B. Upton Arboretum in St. Joseph, Michigan. Register at alumni.andrews.edu/events/afia-5k-run. General registration is $25; student registration is $20. Participants may run or walk.

AFIA promotes Filipino culture, values and traditions to the students of the campus and the people of the community. The group aims to create a diverse network of connections and relationships, bringing together anyone who may be interested in Filipino culture through a variety of events and programs. In addition to providing memorable experiences through fun events, AFIA also strives to inspire the spirit of love and support by bringing awareness to struggles that some in the community may be facing.

This year AFIA has collaborated with the MRSA Survivors Network in hopes of raising awareness and funds for this non-profit organization. MRSA is an acronym for Methicillin Resistant Staphylococcus Aureus, a type of bacterium that causes serious infections, prompting more deaths than HIV. The MRSA Survivors Network is the global leader and voice in awareness, prevention, support and advocacy of MRSA. To learn more about the organization, visit mrsasurvivors.org/about.

"Pure Michigan Fitness events promote physical activity for individuals and communities while providing a fun way for us all to get moving," says Mike Maisner, vice president of Active Communities at Michigan Fitness. Runners will also be eligible to enter the Mackinac Bridge Labor Day Run Lottery. For more information about the Governor’s Council’s endorsement program, visit michiganfitness.org/pure-michigan-fitness-series.

"Through this event we not only hope to generate awareness of and raise funds for the MRSA Survivors Network," says Jon Remitera, 2014–15 president of AFIA, "but we also want to create a diverse network of connections and relationships with our fellow students and with those in our community, further amplifying the spirit of love and support."

For more information about event sponsors and to learn more about AFIA, visit andrews.edu/go/afia.

Alumni Homecoming This Weekend

This year Homecoming attendees will have the opportunity to reflect on a year of milestones: the University itself celebrates 140 years, FOCUS, the University magazine, celebrates 50 years, and the Alumni Association celebrates 100 years. Additionally, this year marks 20 years for Niels-Erik Andreasen, president of Andrews University.

"As the longest-serving president of Andrews University, we are honored to have him at the helm," says Tami Condon, director of Alumni Services. "He's personally an inspiration and mentor to me, as I know he is to many current students, faculty, staff and alumni. We look forward to experiencing many more milestones with Dr. Andreasen in the future."

Events over the weekend include a golf tournament, a campus bus tour, the homecoming parade and flag raising, lunch reunions, harvest tours and picnic, the alumni homecoming gala, alumni vs. students basketball game, the Harvest Run, and more.

“As the fall is marked by students arriving and alumni returning, we welcome you back home,” says Condon. “May your visit to campus be most memorable and enjoyable.”

To view a complete schedule of events, visit alumni.andrews.edu/homecoming/ .

Frances Faehner & Marcia Kilsby Receive Awards
by Jenna Neil

During the summer commencement held on Sunday, August 3, 2014, Marcia A. Kilsby, associate professor of medical laboratory sciences, emerita, and Frances Mae Faehner, vice president for Student Life, received the J.N. Andrews Medallion.

“I was reminiscing over the 30 years of summer graduations I had attended, rejoicing in the accomplishments of all of our students, knowing this one would be my last one before retirement, and was stunned to hear my name announced,” Marcia says.

She was involved at the very beginning of the medical technology program at Andrews University in 1988. One of the original goals of the program was to educate young people from developing countries to take the knowledge and clinical experience they learned back home to their own countries to upgrade the level of diagnostic care available. Unfortunately, she says, “the vast majority of graduates stayed to work in the United States.” Faculty looked for a way to keep the sense of mission before their students and got involved with a portable laboratory system called Lab-In-A-Suitcase, that could be used where electricity was unavailable or unreliable.

Kilsby involved her students and gave them the task of identifying key illnesses in different countries to determine if this system would be beneficial and utilized their different language skills to translate a user-friendly manual.

“Expertise in grounded clinical diagnostic knowledge, creative application of problem solving, compassion and a willingness to serve in places that are outside the usual to take help, hope and healing to the suffering in this world are what I prayerfully aspire to exemplify,” Marcia says.

Marcia graduated with a BS in biology from Andrews University in 1981 and with a Master of Science the following year. She went on to complete an internship at South Bend Medical Foundation School of Medical Technology, a Master of Science in medical technology, became a specialist in blood banking, studied transfusion medicine, and in 2005 completed a doctorate in educational leadership at Andrews.

Marcia says, “There are so many people who have accomplished so much that to be selected to receive the award is very humbling and I am very honored.”

Frances Faehner was cited for her compassion and skill as a counselor and communicator, her creative leadership and expertise in strategic planning and crisis management in Student Life.

She earned a Bachelor of Social Work from Andrews University in 1976, then went on to complete a master’s in counselor education from Loma Linda University and a PhD in leadership from Andrews in 2007. After earning her bachelor’s degree, she gained five years of professional residence life experience on the secondary level as dean of girls, first at Bass Memorial Academy and then at Shenandoah Valley Academy. In 1981 Frances joined the Loma Linda University/La Sierra Campus student services team as associate dean of women. There she caught a broader vision of the vital role that Student Services can play in the restoration of young men and women in a total educational process. She accepted an invitation to serve as...

Scholars Discuss Interplay of Faith and Science

Dr. Deborah Haarsma stood in front of the audience at Granger Community Church and described the layers of glaciers that have preserved evidence of 720,000 winters. She presented layers of sedimentary rock that go back millions of years and radiometric dating that puts some earthly rock formations at 3.6 billion years old.

She described her own work as an astronomer, where she studies distant galaxies over a billion lightyears from Earth.

Speaking to a sold-out crowd attending Michiana Forum on Wednesday evening, Sept. 17, Haarsma was one of four panelists invited to speak about scholarship and reconciling Christian faith with scientific evidence that appears to contradict Biblical teachings.

Other panelists took different approaches, but also spoke of reconciliation between science and faith.

Dr. Roy Gane, a professor of Hebrew Bible and ancient near eastern languages at Andrews University, spoke of the importance of recognizing both the Bible and scientific evidence as legitimate sources of knowledge.

Dr. Deborah Haarsma stood in front of the audience at Granger Community Church and described the layers of glaciers that have preserved evidence of 720,000 winters. She presented layers of sedimentary rock that go back millions of years and radiometric dating that puts some earthly rock formations at 3.6 billion years old.

She described her own work as an astronomer, where she studies distant galaxies over a billion lightyears from Earth.

Speaking to a sold-out crowd attending Michiana Forum on Wednesday evening, Sept. 17, Haarsma was one of four panelists invited to speak about scholarship and reconciling Christian faith with scientific evidence that appears to contradict Biblical teachings.

Haarsma admitted many scientific observations contradict the religious beliefs she learned as a child from her church and her family, both of which believed in a literal interpretation of the Bible and adhere to the idea that Earth is just a few thousand years old.

“Well, when I first learned about this, I was flummoxed,” Haarsma said, referring to the scientific observations that suggest the world is actually quite old. “But once I learned to understand what the Bible was teaching us, and that it wasn’t teaching scientific information, I began to see this as God’s way of showing us how and why he went about making the earth.”

Haarsma, a MIT-trained astrophysicist, said her belief in the biblical account of creation went unchallenged until she signed up for high school biology.

“I brought home the textbook and I talked to my dad about it, and asked him, ‘Okay, what’s wrong with this evidence? It looks like there’s a case here for evolution,’” Haarsma said.

“And we talked about it for a long time, and he finally said, ‘I don’t know.’

“And he kind of gave me permission then to explore it on my own and figure out what I thought. He was showing me it wasn’t essential to my faith in Jesus Christ, what I thought of evolution.”

Haarsma said she has maintained her strong faith even as she’s explored evidence that contradicted the biblical account of creation, explaining that she believes nature and the data extracted from it is as much a part of God’s revelation as the Bible is.

Other panelists took different approaches, but also spoke of reconciliation between science and faith.

Dr. Roy Gane, a professor of Hebrew Bible and ancient near eastern languages at Andrews University, spoke of the importance of recognizing both the Bible and scientific evidence as legitimate sources of knowledge.

“The Bible provides an authoritative framework, but when it leaves something open, science can help us decide something,” Gane said, noting that a close reading of Genesis leaves open the possibility that the universe is much older than life on earth.

But Gane acknowledged there are times when the Bible and science come into conflict and suggested the faithful learn to accept that contradiction.

“The evidence of each is limited. They have different epistemologies, that is, approaches to knowledge, but they have overlapping scope," Gane said. "Harmonizing into a coherent picture is elusive due to insufficient information, but we can live with the mystery as we live with other mysteries such as the Trinity and the incarnation."

Dr. John Walton, a professor of Old Testament at Wheaton College, stressed that biblical studies is largely a field of interpretation — even if one accepts that the Bible is divinely inspired, there is no guarantee that the person reading the text understands it in the same way as the writer.

He suggested Adam and Eve were meant to be human archetypes, not prototypes, meaning their story was chronicled because it was significant and exemplary of humans as a whole, not because they were the only two humans living on earth at the time.

"The idea that there were other people makes some sense in the Biblical text," Walton explained. "Remember, Cain finds a wife in Genesis 4. We have Cain afraid that anyone who finds him will kill him. We have Cain build a city. For whom? You can’t build a city for yourself.

"The implication is that there were other people around."

Walton went on to explain that many of the words used to discuss the creation of Adam and Eve in early Hebrew versions of Genesis would have been used almost exclusively in spiritual contexts, not medical or physical descriptions. For example, the text states Eve was created from Adam’s rib, but the Hebrew word translated as “rib” could more accurately mean “side,” as in an entire side of a building or half of a pair.

"If Genesis 2 has an archetypal focus, then there is no biblical account of material human origins," Walton said. "If the Bible does not have any claim to make about material human origins, then we are free to go to the sciences and take a look at what it offers. The Bible is not making a contrary claim."

Dr. Todd Wood, a biochemist and president of the Core Academy of Science, discussed his belief in "the God of the impossible," and said he accepts aspects of the Bible that seem preposterous.

"I believe in Creation not because I can prove it, but because that creationist perspective, the absurdities of very short chronologies and the ridiculousness of giant floods and arcs that seems so impossible makes my world work and makes my world exciting," Wood explained.

Jason Miller, teaching pastor at Granger Community Church and the event’s moderator, ended the event with questions suggested by audience members, including the classic, "Really? We came from monkeys?" and, perhaps more importantly, "Is that a problem?"

The general consensus from the panelists was no, genetic similarities between humans and other animals hardly disprove the existence of God.

"The thing to think of is how distinct we are as humans," Haarsma said. "I think underlying that question is that we’re just monkeys, that’s all we are. Well, clearly, we share a lot — you don’t need evolution to tell you that we share a lot of biology — but we clearly have a lot of differences in our capabilities for language and thought and caring for each other.

"Ultimately, I think the difference comes from God, from how he views us, not from how related we are to the animal kingdom."

Prayer for LaRonda Forsey’s Hospitalized Son

Update: You can keep up to date with everything going on with Drew’s progress on the Pray 4 Drew 4C Facebook page.

Drew, son of La Ronda Forsey, associate dean for the School of Distance Education and K-12 principal for Gripps International Academy, was in a bicycle accident on Tuesday evening, July 22. La Ronda and a friend drove through the night to get to the hospital to be with him. Drew sustained serious head trauma and broken scapula. His lungs were bruised from the impact so he is on a ventilator but at times breathing on his own.

It is believed that Drew’s bicycle tire malfunctioned throwing him over the handlebars landing on his head. His helmet was smashed and pushed off to the side of his head, so he received some abrasions. Cyclists happened upon Drew lying in the ditch and called 911. One was trained as a first responder and was able to assess Drew’s condition and inform the ambulance team when they arrived.

Currently Drew is in Erlanger hospital in Chattanooga Tennessee. While it has not yet been determined what

        Jill Dodge, President
        473-2658

The monthly meeting of the Berrien Springs Camera Club will take place on Wednesday, Oct. 1, at 7 p.m. in the Berrien Springs Public Library at Cass (Old 31) and Union. This month’s program consists of a competition of prints and projected images, submitted by members, the first competition of the current season.

As usual, there will be two select topics for the month. In addition, "Nature" is always an acceptable category, as are "Open" (any subject) and "Portraits." The two select categories for the October competition are "Rocks" and "Marinas." The former could include rocks of any size or substance, but must be the main focus of the picture. The latter can bring out visits to marinas around the world or close to home, overviews or close-ups. "Nature" photos are to show nothing from human hands (no wires, fences, cultivated flowers, etc.). Thus a member can submit images in any of five categories or a combination thereof, though extra points are given for acceptances in the two select categories.

Prints, at least 5" x 7" in size, should be mounted, with the title and photographer's name on the back. Digital submissions, however, need to be sent in ahead, with instructions for submitting them on the club's blog site: http://berrienspringscamerclub.blogspot.com/

Any member may submit up to 10 projected images and/or 10 prints for the competition, but no one is obligated to do so. Pictures are shown one at a time, and three judges score them by machine. The total points determine whether a photo is rated "honor," "acceptance," or "out." From the "honors," a Slide-of-the-Month and a Print-of-the-Month are selected. Photographers' names are not revealed for the "out" category. No one need feel embarrassment; this is a group of friends sharing experiences and tips for better photography.

All are welcome, either to observe or to join. Refreshments will be served.

Howard Center Presents...Jars of Clay
Concert at 7:00 pm on Sunday, October 19

Jars of Clay presents a mostly acoustical evening of Christian music from their new album, Inland. Their music has cinematic quality marked by lush keyboard melodies, strong acoustic rhythm guitar, serpentine bass lines, ambient melodies and rich lyrics that attest to two decades of creativity. Jars of Clay has written more than 100 songs, made 10 studio records, won three GRAMMYs, toured internationally and created Blood: Water Mission, an organization dedicated to providing clean blood and water for African nations suffering from the HIV/AIDS crisis.

AFIA Rice Run to Benefit MRSA

With the endorsement of the Michigan Governor’s Council on Physical Fitness, Health and Sports and the Michigan Fitness Foundation, Andrews Filipino International Association (AFIA) of Andrews University has partnered with the MRSA Survivors Network for the 2014 Rice Run: a 5K run that aims to raise awareness of MRSA, Methicillin Resistant Staphylococcus Aureus, by encouraging the community to get involved in physical activity.

AFIA is a club on the campus of Andrews University that promotes Filipino culture, values, and traditions to the students of the campus and the people of the community. AFIA aims to create a diverse network of connections and relationships, bringing together anyone who may be interested in Filipino culture through a variety of events and programs. In addition to providing memorable experiences through fun events, AFIA also strives to inspire the spirit of love and support by bringing awareness to any struggles that some people in our community may be facing.

This year AFIA has collaborated with the MRSA Survivors Network in hopes of raising awareness and funds for this great organization. MRSA is an acronym for Methicillin Resistant Staphylococcus Aureus, a type of bacterium that causes serious infections, prompting more deaths than HIV. The MRSA Survivors Network is “the global leader and voice in awareness, prevention, support, and advocacy” of MRSA. To learn more about the organization, you may visit: http://www.mrsasurvivors.org/about.

The 2014 5K Rice Run will take place on 5 October 2014 at 8 AM in St. Joseph, Michigan, starting at Margaret B. Upton Aboretum. Registration is now live at http://alumni.andrews.edu/events/afia-5k-run/, costing $25 for general registration and $20 for student registration. Participants can run or walk the 5K in St. Joseph, assured that they are creating awareness and raising funds for a great cause while participating in a quality physical activity event through the Michigan Governor’s Council’s Pure Michigan FITness Series endorsement program. “Pure Michigan FITness events promote physical activity for individuals and communities while providing a fun way for us all to get moving,” says Mike Maisner, Vice President of Active Communities. Runners will also be eligible to enter the Mackinac Bridge Labor Day Run Lottery. For more information about the Governor’s Council’s endorsement program, you may visit: www.michiganfitness.org/pure-michigan-fitness-series.

“Through this event, we hope to succeed in our goal of generating awareness and raising funds for the MRSA Survivors Network,” says the 2014-2015 officers of AFIA. “But we also want to succeed in our goal of creating a diverse network of connections and relationships with our fellow students and with those in our community, further amplifying the spirit of love and support.” For more information about our sponsors for the event or AFIA, visit: www.andrews.edu/go/afia.

Birth Doula

Are you expecting a baby?! Getting a birth doula for you and your family should be next on your to-do list!

Having a birth doula is becoming recognized as a game changer in improving physical outcomes and the emotional well-being of mamma and baby.

A couple of services provided include: teaching grounding techniques for early labor, hand/foot massages for early and active labor, teaching excellent movement and positioning techniques for labor, helping to relieve back labor, breastfeeding tips/advice...and much more!

Come on, I know you're just a tad bit curious. So let your curiosity get the best of you and look into it!!

The initial consult is complimentary so you have got nothing to lose.

Visit my website for some good information: www.facebook.com/supermammabirthservices (no Facebook account needed, just type in the URL)

Or if you would like me to mail you an informational pamphlet email me your address!

Affordable Massage Therapy

Are the stresses of work and study getting to you? Would you like to boost your athletic performance? Do you have a muscle ache that just won't go away?

Ray McAllister, an Andrews alumnus who despite total blindness is now a licensed massage therapist, invites you to visit Healing’s Rays Massage. Proficient in deep tissue, sports, and relaxation massage, Ray can relieve aches, help you tone muscles, and give you the energy boost to finish studies. He also offers hydrotherapy, hot stone massage, reflexology and now hot bamboo and Himalayan salt massage. His wife, Sally, is a certified aromatherapist and will be present for female clients. She sells home-made aromatherapy blends.

Introductory cost is only $25 for your first hour, $15 per half hour, for students all the time. Contact Ray for regular, competitive rates. Ask about free, limited-time massage doula services to reduce the pain, stress, and length of labor in childbirth. 30 no-cost massages of any type are available for those with Adventist Risk
