8 a.m., 1/8/15: Classes are cancelled through Friday, due to weather conditions. Only essential personnel required to report for work during this time. Classes will resume and offices reopen on Monday, Jan. 12.

Classes Cancelled Due to Weather
Due to dangerous winter weather conditions, classes have been cancelled from 4 p.m. today through Friday. Only essential personnel are required to report for work during this time.

Heavy snowfall is anticipated this evening, with high winds likely to cause significant drifting. This may make some local roads impassable for travel in the morning for commuting students, faculty and staff.

If possible, non-essential personnel should work from home during these hours. Please contact your supervisor to work out details.

Andrews Web Re-Engineering Project
We are rebuilding the Andrews website from the ground up and we want your feedback. For several months now, the campus Web Committee has been discussing and prioritizing how to best implement an overall update to the Andrews website. This significant update would represent a variety of benefits to everyone involved at Andrews, and its most direct mission would be to make the web experience a more engaging one, especially for future students to help improve our overall enrollment, as well as our campus community.

The provost has asked Integrated Marketing & Communication to spearhead the Web Re-Engineering project (working closely with Information Technology Services and other offices). Work began late last semester, and we are now hosting a set of town hall meetings in early January to both 1) inform the Andrews community about some of the details and specifics of the project (priorities, timeline, scope),

Have an Announcement?
Please submit information for the Andrews Agenda by visiting the Agenda submissions page and use your Andrews login and password.

To add an event to the AU Online Calendar, visit the Events submissions page and use your Andrews login and password.

Subscribe to the Andrews Agenda Email
If you would like to receive the weekly Andrews Agenda email, send an email to agenda@andrews.edu with "Subscribe" in the subject line.
and 2) receive valuable feedback from you as our campus community on the direction and alternatives for our website as it is reengineered.

Please join us for one of our town hall meetings to get involved; all take place in the Whirlpool Room in Chan Shun Hall (School of Business Administration):

- Monday, Jan. 12, 3:30–5 p.m.
- Tuesday, Jan. 13, 6–7:30 p.m.
- Wednesday, Jan. 21, 2–3:30 p.m.

Howard Center Presents...HIS Creation

Program showings at 6:00 pm and 8:00 pm on Saturday, January 10

Rich Aguilera, "The Mud Guy" from Guide Magazine and 3ABN's Kids' Time loves to talk to kids, youth and adults about God the Creator. His visual methods utilize a giant screen, interactive elements, and special effect surprises that will leave you amazed at how awesome the Creator of the universe is. Understanding the topic of Creation and evolution can be confusing, even for adults, but Rich's simple approach will have even kids understanding that we were lovingly designed and created by an all powerful and loving God.

TICKETS REQUIRED: $8 Reserved Seating, $5 Students & Children

Purchase tickets online, or call our box office at 888-467-6442 for student discounts and more information.

Second Sunday Concert
Concert at 4:00 pm on Sunday, January 11

The Second Sunday Concert Series is a collaboration between WAUS 90.7 FM, the Andrews University Department of Music, and the Howard Performing Arts Center. These afternoon chamber music recitals are a continuation of the Second Sunday Concerts held at Fernwood Botanical Gardens during the summer months.
The Second Sunday Concerts at the Howard Center run from October through April and feature Andrews University faculty and local musicians.

NO TICKETS REQUIRED

Howard Center Presents...The Filharmonic
Concert at 7:00 pm on Sunday, January 18

Featured on NBC's hit musical competition, "The Sing-Off," The Filharmonic is a six-member a cappella boy band from Los Angeles, California. They started by singing at competitions in college, and eventually solidified into a harmonious group as they discovered their shared genuine chemistry, unparalleled love of music, and undeniable musical talents. Their melodic vocal style exemplifies an urbanesque hip-hop sound with 90s nostalgia.

TICKETS REQUIRED: $15 Reserved Seating

Purchase tickets online, or call our box office at 888-467-6442 for student discounts and more information.
AU's Got Talent
Event at 7:00 pm on January 24

Andrews University’s annual talent show always promises a good time. Join us as students compete for the grand prize.

NO TICKETS REQUIRED

Howard Center Presents...David Phelps
Concert at 7:00 pm on Sunday, January 25

David Phelps, perhaps best known for singing in the Gaither Vocal Band, is a strong name in the gospel world. He has won two GRAMMYs and four Dove Awards. Though this concert will be the Christian favorites you know and love, he recently expanded his musical genre with Classic, his newest album which includes 13 arias, classical anthems and newly arranged pop songs with original compositions that exemplify his powerhouse tenor vocal prowess. He is excited to share a side of his talent that audiences may not be aware of, while exposing them to what may be a new musical style.

TICKETS REQUIRED: $30 Premium Reserved Seating, $25 Reserved Seating

Purchase tickets online, or call our box office at 888-467-6442 for student discounts and more information.
Sinfonietta

Concert at 7:00 pm on Saturday, January 31

The Andrews University Sinfonietta present their winter concert under the direction of Claudio Gonzalez.

TICKETS REQUIRED: General Admission $5, Faculty/Staff $3, Students & Seniors $3, Children 12 & Under Free

Purchase tickets online, or call our box office at 888-467-6442 for student discounts and more information.

CANCELLED: ChemSem: Sulfur-Containing Rings

Due to weather, this webinar has been cancelled.

What's so special about sulfur-containing rings? Does the ring size matter? Can they be used as pharmaceutical agents?

All are encouraged to attend and hear Dr. Lee J Silverberg's webinar lecture this Thursday, January 8, 2015 at 4:30pm in A-107 Halenz Hall on the topic: Sulphur-Containing Rings: Synthesis and Biological Activity.

This is the first Winter-Spring lecture in the annual Department of Chemistry & Biochemistry Seminar Series. Our guest speaker comes to us from Penn State University.

Attached is the lecture flyer in pdf and jpeg formats with more details about our speaker's educational and professional background.

If you can't be there in person, please join us online: http://andrews.adobeconnect.com/chemsem

Microsoft Office Support

Do you have questions about Microsoft 2013? Are you working on a project and would like more one-on-one assistance on how to complete it to better meet your needs? Do you have more general questions about Word, PowerPoint, Excel, or any of the other Microsoft Office applications?

During the month of January we are offering a few opportunities for Microsoft Office Support in various buildings around campus (in the same fashion as "Moodling with Marsha"). These will be general help sessions (with no planned training agenda) opened to Faculty or Staff that have questions and would like some one-on-one support in Microsoft Office.

Advanced Connections for Student Employees--Tuesday Choices

The Office of Human Resources is excited to provide an opportunity for our student employees to participate in Advanced Connections for Student Employees training during Tuesday Choices/University Workshops this Spring semester, beginning on January 13.

Advanced Connections was developed with the intent of improving the quality of service provided to internal and external customers of an educational institution, and Andrews University has been offering this professional development opportunity to its faculty and staff for several years now. We recognize that a significant portion of our workforce on campus is student employees, with many of these students on the “frontlines,” providing customer service to many individuals here on campus.

In an effort to improve our culture of service, we are excited to be able to provide this opportunity for student employees to attend Advanced Connections training! Topics to be discussed will include building a service culture, overcoming barriers, effective communication, checking for customer satisfaction, meeting service challenges and more.

Student employees wanting to attend Advanced Connections training during Tuesday Choices will need to RSVP by emailing training@andrews.edu, and they will need to provide their full name, ID#, email address, and the department in which they work. Please note that in order for them to receive the certification, you will need to attend all 6 sessions being offered during Tuesday Choices. There are only 35 seats available for this training.

Faculty Book Club

Faculty, are you interested in exploring teaching strategies that can enhance your content delivery in ways that improve student outcomes? Have you ever wished to improve your teaching methods and practices while empowering your students during the learning process? Are you wanting to discover the joy of teaching, and learn how to bring energy and excitement back into the classroom?

The Office of Human Resources and the Department of Teaching, Learning, and Curriculum are excited to provide this opportunity to challenge faculty members to reflect on their current teaching practices and to move from simply delivering lectures to fostering active learning for your students.

Please join us in the upcoming semester for our first Faculty Book Club event. We will be reading Leaving the Lectern: Cooperative Learning and the Critical First Days of Students Working in Groups (McManus, 2005). Come and be inspired to grow professionally as we dive into this book and dialogue with colleagues about the journey of transformation in our teaching. Below are the times and dates that the Faculty Book Club will meet to discuss and process various chapters of the book:

- Tuesday, January 20, 2015, 12:00-1:00pm (Chapters 1-3)
- Monday, February 9, 2015, 12:00-1:00pm (Chapters 4-6)
- Tuesday, March 24, 2015, 12:00-1:00pm (Chapters 7-9)
- Monday, April 6, 2015, 12:00-1:00pm (Chapters 10-Conclusion)

To RSVP, please send an email to training@andrews.edu, and provide your full name, ID#, email address, and the department in which you teach. The first 30 individuals to RSVP will receive a free copy of the book. Also, please know that lunch will be provided during the learning events.

Howard Center Presents... Faculty Trio

On Saturday, February 14, at 8 p.m., the Howard Performing Arts Center will present Carla Trynchuk, violin; Chi Yong Yun, piano; and Stephen Framil, cello. They will perform Franz Schubert’s Piano Trio in B-flat major and Antonin Dvorak’s Trio in F minor.

Violinist Carla Trynchuk has performed as a soloist with orchestras throughout North America and Europe. A graduate of The Juilliard School, she is a professor of music at Andrews University. She will be performing with Stephen Framil, critically acclaimed cellist, who has performed as concert soloist in Carnegie Weill and Avery Fisher Halls and has appeared as a soloist with orchestras around the world. Joining them is Chi Yong Yun, currently the director of piano studies at Andrews University, who has performed as a recitalist, collaborative musician and lecturer around the world.

TICKETS REQUIRED: $10 Reserved Seating, Free for Students

Purchase tickets online, or call our box office at 888-467-6442 for student discounts and more information.
Music Materials Center Spring Hours

The Music Materials Center, a branch of the James White Library, announces its Spring hours!

- Sundays, 1:30-6:30pm
- Mondays - Thursdays, 8:25am-8:30pm
- Fridays, 8:25am-3:00pm

One of the University's hidden gems, we are located in the basement of Hamel Hall. Andrews University students, faculty, and community members are invited to visit us and check out a wide variety of printed music for piano, voice, and other instruments.

We also have many dictionaries and reference books on music, as well as hymnals for personal use or Friday night vespers!

Our professional music librarian is available for research consultations if your English, History, Religion, or other paper incorporates aspects of music, worship, or musical culture.

Also, many music resources are available online via the James White Library website, such as Naxos, RLIM, JSTOR, and Oxford Music Online. Access to these resources is FREE for Andrews University students and staff using university IDs and logins. http://www.andrews.edu/library/music/index.html

Marianne Kordas, the music librarian, may be contacted for more information at either kordas@andrews.edu or (269) 471-3114.
Mission Trip & Study Tour

Mission Trip to Middle East
Mission Study Tour - Lebanon 2015
If you are an undergrad student interested in a missions in the Middle East, consider the Lebanon 2015 Mission Study Tour sponsored by the Religion Department. During May 2015, the mission team will conduct campus ministry among the mostly non-SDA students at Middle East University and the local elementary and secondary schools. If you are interested in cross-cultural ministry, if you love living and sharing your faith, if you want to learn more about mission and culture in the Middle East, contact Dr. Glenn Russell (glenn@andrews.edu). The study tour requires enrollment in 5 undergraduate religion credits for the 2015 summer semester. Space is limited and will be filled by the end of January.

Contact Glenn Russell for more information at glenn@andrews.edu or by calling 269-876-7657.

Sulfur-Containing Rings: Synthesis and Biological Activity

Dr. Lee J Silverberg, is assistant professor of chemistry at Pennsylvania State University. His group investigates synthesis, chemistry, structure, spectroscopic properties, and bioactivity of novel sulfur containing rings. He routinely involves undergraduates in this research, in which some of them have already been published.

Silverberg completed his bachelor's degree in Chemistry with a minor in Journalism at George Washington University in Washington, D.C. He continued his studies at the University of Delaware, earning a Ph.D. in Organic Chemistry, where he was mentored first by 2010 Nobel Prize Winner Prof. Richard F. Heck and later by Prof. Douglass F. Taber. He then spent 18 years working in the pharmaceutical industry. His accomplishments include invention of new synthesis of anticancer drugs.

Afterward, Silverberg became an adjunct professor at Camden County College, then an Instructor at Penn State’s Schuylkill campus and in 2010 a tenure-track Assistant Professor of Chemistry.

ANDREWS UNIVERSITY CHEMISTRY & BIOCHEMISTRY
HALENZ HALL AMPHITHEATER (Thursday, January 8, 4:30 pm)
Classes Cancelled Due to Weather

Due to dangerous winter weather conditions, classes have been cancelled from 4 p.m. today through Friday. Only essential personnel are required to report for work during this time.

Heavy snowfall is anticipated this evening, with high winds likely to cause significant drifting. This may make some local roads impassable for travel in the morning for commuting students, faculty and staff.

If possible, non-essential personnel should work from home during these hours. Please contact your supervisor to work out details.

Academic Conference to be Held at Andrews

by Jenna Neil

The annual Michigan Academy of Science, Arts & Letters (MASAL) conference will take place on the campus of Andrews University on Friday, March 13, 2015. MASAL, an interdisciplinary academic conference, is held each year at a different university in Michigan.

"Being able to host MASAL is really an honor for Andrews University," says Sarah Burton, administrative assistant in the Office of Research and Creative Scholarship. "It means that we are recognized as a university with substantial research programs that produce excellent scholarship."

Conference participants, including undergraduate and graduate students, as well as faculty members, give presentations on their research, with time for questions and answers after each presentation. There is also a poster session where presenters can discuss their research with interested participants in a more informal setting.

With more than thirty parallel sessions, there is a session for just about any academic discipline, from Administration and Anthropology to Women's & Gender Studies and Zoology. Several of the section chairs for the event are from Andrews University, including Bruce Closser, associate professor of English, Brendan Cross, assistant professor of physics, Ryan Hayes, associate professor of chemistry, Shandelle Henson, professor of mathematics, Boon-Chai Ng, professor of engineering, Ryan Hayes, associate professor of chemistry, Krista Turner, masters student in English, and Rachel Williams-Smith, associate professor of communication.

The afternoon Keynote Address will be given by Andrews University faculty members James Hayward (biology) and Shandelle Henson (mathematics) on their ecological research on the effects of climate change on the behavior of seabirds. The deadline to submit abstracts for consideration for the conference is January 6, 2015. For more information on MASAL, visit andrews.edu/go/masal.

Five Questions With... Rich Aguilera
Rich Aguilera was a successful architect when he decided to make a change.

The Andrews University graduate, who now lives in Niles, realized that working in the architecture industry was just a career, while his real passion was serving as youth director at church and with children's ministries. So in 2008, he closed his architecture practice and opened One Mustard Seed, a ministry that finds fun, creative ways to explore nature and the biblical creation story.

Aguilera, “The Mud Guy” from Guide Magazine and 3ABN’s “Kids’ Time,” travels the world looking for evidence of creation and sharing his discoveries with kids and adults in his columns, books and speaking engagements. His latest interactive presentation, called "HIS Creation," takes place Saturday as part of Andrews University’s Howard Center Presents Series at the Howard Performing Arts Center.

Serving the World's Cities: An Andrews University Response
Cities have been interwoven in human experience from the beginning of time. Some will argue that humans prefer the gentle pastoral beauty and pace of life familiar to uncrowded rural settings, but the reality tells us otherwise. For whatever reason, we gather in cities. Today’s cities are larger, more creative, diverse and global than ever. In the mid-19th century less than 10 percent of the world’s population lived in a metropolis of 100,000 or more. By 1900 the urban population in the world had increased to 14 percent. Today, 60 percent of the human population is in the city, and in developed nations like Canada and America it is an astounding 75 percent. And the pace of migration to urban life is quickening. Today’s cities are the center of power, culture, economy and spirituality.

Christians bring their influence into the life of the city as they live there, work there, play there and socialize there. Most young adults leaving our colleges and universities establish careers in one of our world’s urban centers. They need support as they bring the presence of Christ into those cultures.

Recognizing this challenge, the Andrews University Doctor of Ministry program offers an Urban Ministry Concentration. The next cohort in this concentration will begin in March 2015 in Chicago. Skip Bell, professor of Christian leadership, leads the concentration.

Four Alumni Build Company
Founded by four alumni of Andrews University, Galileo’s mission is to create UAV systems that enhance human life and help solve critical health, logistics, security, and entertainment challenges.

The team realized that both professionals and consumers desire to interact with drones but are commonly faced with complexities that limit their use of the technology. Galileo is pushing to change this reality with... their motto: “Personality to make it yours. Apps to make it powerful. Hardware to make it happen.”

Galileo will launch the first of its two models, the Alpha, through crowdfunding in 2015. The Alpha will be designed for personal use with a simplicity tailored for the mass market.

Professor's Book Used in Romanian Ministry

Aventist students in Romania have decided to share a book of drawings with their classmates that place Jesus in New York in hope that the unusual illustrations will prompt people to reach for the Bible for answers.

The Romanian chapter of AMICUS, an organization that strives to share Jesus with non-Adventist students, chose the book, Jesus of New York: Premonitions of New York Teenager, as its main missionary tool for 2015, and demand has already exceeded the initial print run of 2,500 copies by the Adventist-operated Romanian Publishing House.

The 43 drawings by retired Andrews University professor Greg Constantine are replete with allusions to characters, situations, actions, dialogues, and objects from the gospel stories that the students hope will encourage readers to double-check their literacy of the Bible.

BERRIEN SPRINGS - Rich Aguilera was a successful architect when he decided to make a change.

The Andrews University graduate, who now lives in Niles, realized that working in the architecture industry was just a career, while his real passion was serving as youth director at church and with children's ministries. So in 2008, he closed his architecture practice and opened One Mustard Seed, a ministry that finds fun, creative ways to explore nature and the biblical creation story.

Aguilera, "The Mud Guy" from Guide Magazine and 3ABN's "Kids' Time," travels the world looking for evidence of creation and sharing his discoveries with kids and adults in his columns, books and speaking engagements. His latest interactive presentation, called "HIS Creation," takes place Saturday as part of Andrews University's Howard Center Presents Series at the Howard Performing Arts Center.

Q First, I have to ask, how did you get the nickname "The Mud Guy"?

A About five years ago I started writing a monthly nature column for Guide Magazine (the Seventh-day Adventist magazine for children ages 10 to 14). When I was talking to the editor, we decided to call the column Mud. Since it's a magazine for kids, over the years the kids have just started calling me The Mud Guy. That's where the name comes from. My main interest is nature. I view it as God's other book. It's the one tangible thing we have and can study. Now that's started filtering over to television on 3ABN's "Kids' Time," which is a satellite channel, where I'm also known as The Mud Guy.

Q Tell me about "HIS Creation." Is this strictly about religion and the creation story?

Rich Aguilera, also known as The Mud...
It's more than that. There's really two explanations out there of where we came from and how everything started. The predominant view now, which has shifted in the last 100 years or so, is that it naturally happened by itself. Our event looks at both sides and evidence of both the evolution and creation claims. We'll look at science, logic, literature and various points of view. I've also done presentations on dinosaurs and how they fit in to the biblical view. I've looked at the great flood and did it really happen. Whether you believe in one or the other you have to have faith in your belief because there's no absolute proof for either one. There are clues out there, but no definitive answers. It's a slippery slope on both sides. Our goal is to bring that seed of doubt that Christians might have, bring it out in the open and explore it.

Q This isn't just an ordinary lecture. I've heard it described as more of a theatrical event, is that accurate?

A I do use a lot of props and special effects. I use a giant screen that's 18 feet tall with lots of audio sound effects and special effects that I surprise people with. There's a lot of audience participation to keep people engaged. It's a very fast-paced, visual presentation that keeps them on the edge of their seat. Although it's designed for kids, it's ended up being a great format for all ages.

Q So tell me about your background. Did you study a lot of science as well as theology to come up with these presentations?

A I grew up in New England. I actually studied architecture and practiced for 15 years. About seven years ago, I started the One Mustard Seed ministry to be a communication vehicle to teach children various things. I'm not a scientist, I'm a communicator. So I take research that other people have done and try to put it in a presentation that regular people can understand. That's what I've done with this topic and various other topics and areas. I want to give regular people a chance to explore complex topics instead of leaving them just to scientists and theologians.

Q Nature plays a big role in your work, and you travel a lot. Is that part of your exploration into these topics?

A When I was a kid, my dad got a month off for vacation every year so he made a point of tossing us all in the station wagon and we'd disappear for a month. My dad had a very adventurous, exploring approach to these trips. Let's go discover and explore. That carried over to when I grew up. Every chance I've gotten I've tried to do the same thing. I've been to 69 countries now on the six inhabited continents. I'm usually doing some kind of natural exploration like going on safari, or going diving with whale sharks. What I've discovered along the way is it gives you a very open-minded perspective of the world.

Cities have been interwoven in human experience from the beginning of time. Some will argue that humans prefer the gentle pastoral beauty and pace of life familiar to uncrowded rural settings, but the reality tells us otherwise. For whatever reason, we gather in cities. Today’s cities are larger, more creative, diverse and global than ever. In the mid-19th century less than 10 percent of the world’s population lived in a metropolis of 100,000 or more. By 1900 the urban population in the world had increased to 14 percent. Today, 60 percent of the human population is in the city, and in developed nations like Canada and America it is an astounding 75 percent. And the pace of migration to urban life is quickening. Today’s cities are the center of power, culture, economy and spirituality.

People continue to migrate to the city. There is an optimism people have about the city, although there are large portions of today’s cities marked by poverty. The reality remains that the city is the center of power and wealth, and those who live in the city seek to share in that economic opportunity. Cities will continue to provide the narratives of our human experience.

The reality is that the cities are a dilemma. Though they hold promise, they do not always satisfy human need. They drive cultural and ecological change, growth and pollution at the same time. Cities enchant us with possibility, but for too many the attraction of the city has been a deception, and the city a place of injustice. One can describe cities as flourishing, as providing abundance, and at the same time as broken, in trouble, even as places of despair.

The significance and challenge of the city for the Christian church is the question of how to go about sharing the Gospel there. Or one might say how to live as a disciple of Jesus in its midst. The city is a space for 21st century mission. It is an opportunity for the church to respond with love and care to the challenges facing urban populations and to transform the culture.

Christians bring their influence into the life of the city as they live there, work there, play there and socialize there. Most young adults leaving our colleges and universities establish careers in one of our world’s urban centers. They need support as they bring the presence of Christ into those cultures.

Recognizing this challenge, the Andrews University Doctor of Ministry program offers an Urban Ministry Concentration. The next cohort in this concentration will begin in March 2015 in Chicago. Skip Bell, professor of Christian leadership, leads the concentration.

The goal of the Doctor of Ministry Urban Ministries Concentration is to develop three areas in a person who serves in an urban context: being, knowing and doing. Being helps the doctoral students to experience transformative development in several areas including spirituality, discipleship, compassionate vision for the city and appreciation of diversity. Knowing develops students’ knowledge base in issues of urban society, how systems shape life and mission in the context of cities, and how to promote healthy cities. Doing cultivates skills including creating vision, identifying needs, community development, leading and managing specific ministries and managing change.

The curriculum is a rigorous four-year experience plus a transformative project. The program requires work with the best literature in the area of study, field research, theological and spiritual formation, relational learning with a cohort, dialogue and lecture with the world’s leading experts on urban culture and mission and immersion in three specific cities: Chicago (Illinois), Toronto (Canada), and London (UK). The participants will work with a variety of real urban issues including housing, poverty, justice, hunger, education, human conflict, health services and empowerment.
“This is an extraordinary formation and leadership opportunity for our church,” Bell states. “These Doctors of Ministry students will cherish a dream of Christ in the city, and of urban neighborhoods where the next generation of Christ’s disciples can thrive in faith and life.”

Sung Kwon, director of Community Services for the North American Division of Seventh-day Adventists, has led an initiative of the NAD to provide two scholarships for these doctoral students in each union territory in North America. Interested students or church administrators can inquire about those scholarships from the Doctor of Ministry program.

The application deadline is January 16, 2015. Instructions, information and a DMin application package link can be found at the Doctor of Ministry website. The cohort is limited to 25. For more information, call 269-471-3544, or email the DMin program at dmin@andrews.edu.

With his permission, the report paraphrases and borrows broadly from his written works on urban culture and mission.
Galileo is launching a crowdfunded campaign in 2015

droneblog

Founded by four alumni of Andrews University, Galileo’s mission is to create UAV systems that enhance human life and help solve critical health, logistics, security, and entertainment challenges.

The team realized that both professionals and consumers desire to interact with drones but are commonly faced with complexities that limit their use of the technology. Galileo is pushing to change this reality with their motto: “Personality to make it yours. Apps to make it powerful. Hardware to make it happen.”

“We want to take the drone industry in an entirely new direction by creating a UAV that could save lives during an avalanche, protect your business, or even root for your favorite team; not just carry a GoPro.” –Joshua Sanabria, CEO

Galileo will launch the first of its two models, the Alpha, through crowdfunding in 2015. The Alpha will be designed for personal use with a simplicity tailored for the mass market. Through an expanding supply of software apps and swappable hardware peripherals, Galileo’s future customers will be able to upgrade their drone’s capabilities and accomplish virtually any task.

“Once you own an Alpha, the possibilities will be limitless.” –Rodney Allen, COO

Galileo is already seeing a lot of demand from businesses and consumers through a growing list of pending pre-orders for the Alpha, which is almost ready for demonstrations.

“I look forward to providing the industry with a drone that respects design and has an unmatched level of versatility.” –Christopher Bannister, CMO

Dolores Slikkers Passed Away

On Thursday, Dec. 18, Dolores Slikker, current board member and long-time Andrews supporter, was in a car accident in Holland and was rushed to the hospital, where she passed away.

Dolores was also an honorary degree recipient. In 2007, both Dolores and her husband, Leon, were awarded honorary Doctors of Law for their significant business accomplishments and their philanthropic endeavors. In 1969, the Slikkers, together with John Freeman, established Maranatha Volunteer International, a non-profit Christian organization that mobilizes volunteers to help in communities around the world.

The Slikkers family is well-established at Andrews; they have had family members involved on campus since the 1960s, and are well-known to many.

A Dolores Slikkers Memorial Fund has been set up at Holland Adventist Elementary School. The family asks that in lieu of flowers donations be made to this fund.

CARD SHOWER: Members of the Holland SDA Church have started a card shower for Leon Slikkers. Their goal is for Leon to receive 2000 Christmas or New Years cards—the number of birthday cards Dolores sent each year. If you were personally touched by Dolores' life in some way please put a message in the card stating in what way she effected your life. This is a surprise for Leon, so please keep it under wraps.

Cards can be sent to:
Leon Slikkers
A-5228 147th Ave.
Holland, MI 49423

Please remember Dolores' family and friends as they mourn her loss.

Robert & Ilea McDaniel Passed Away

We are saddened to share that Robert and Ilea McDaniel, long-time Andrews community members, were killed in a car accident on Monday morning in Newton County, Indiana. Ilea may be remembered from her work in Custodial Services here on campus; Robert was long known as "Barber Bob" in the barber shop next to the University Bookstore.

Information on funerals or memorial service(s) will be shared as it becomes available. You can read a news report on the accident here. Their obituary is here, and service information will be added at a later date.

Thank You from the Gonzalezes

Dear Andrews Family,

As many of you know, we lost our 14-month-old granddaughter, Emma, in a tragic car accident in October. Over the past several weeks, many of you at Andrews, in addition to others from our church family and the community at large, have reached out to us in significant ways. These gestures of compassion and love have meant so much to us. We would like to express our sincere, heartfelt "Thank You." May all of you be as richly blessed as you have blessed our family with your kindness.

Death of Thesba Johnston

Thesba Johnston, professor emerita of counseling psychology, died on Thanksgiving morning, November 27, at the age of 96 years, in Berrien Springs, Michigan. Dr. Johnston served in the School of Education from 1978–1998, and maintained a private practice as a licensed psychologist in Berrien Springs. She was the first female licensed psychologist in Berrien County.

Visitation will be from 6–8 p.m., Tuesday, Dec. 2, at Allred Funeral Home, Berrien Springs. There will be a private graveside service December 3. Online messages for the family may be left at www.allredfuneralhome.com or in the Comments section of this posting.
Robert and Ilea McDaniel
Date of Death - January 5, 2015

Obituary

Robert L. McDaniel, 86, and his wife, Ilea A. McDaniel, 77, of Berrien Springs, died Monday, January 5, 2015, in an auto accident in Newton County, Indiana. Memorial services will be announced at a later date. Allred Funeral Home in Berrien Springs is serving the family, and online messages may be left at www.allredfuneralhome.com. Memorials may be made to Your Story Hour, where Bob was a frequent contributor. Bob and Ilea married in 1961. He had two daughters (Sherry and Janice), and he adopted Ilea's two children (Kevin and Karen). Surviving are Janice (William) Watts of Washington, Illinois; Kevin (Susan) McDaniel of Montana; Karen McDaniel of California; six grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren. Sherry McDaniel preceded them in death in 2009. Bob was born November 27, 1928, to Ray and Fannie McDaniel in Petersburg, Illinois, where he graduated from high school in 1947. In 1950 he went to barber college and began barbering in 1951. After losing his job in 1953 because he had become a Seventh-day Adventist and would not work on Saturday, he moved his family to Berrien Springs. He served his residency, wrote the Michigan barber exam and went to work with Charlie Martz in 1954. In 1959 he was offered the operation of the Barber Shop on the campus of Emmanuel Missionary College (now Andrews University), which he operated until 2007 when he sold, and he worked part-time until February of 2008. Bob liked sports, and while working at the university, he played softball, volleyball, basketball, racquetball and golf. As he got older, he gave up the fast sports for golf, which he enjoyed playing well into his mid-80s. He and Ilea both enjoyed gardening and sharing their produce with neighbors and friends. In addition to his children, he is survived by a sister, Lois (Kenny) White of Petersburg. He was preceded in death by his parents; a brother, Gerald; and a sister, Carol Haynes. Ilea was born February 18, 1937, in Madison, Wisconsin, to Harold and Solane Ahlers. She graduated from Wisconsin Academy in 1955, and shortly after, her father sold the farm and moved the family to Berrien Springs for education. Ilea worked at VM in Benton Harbor, and later at Andrews University in the Library and for Custodial Services. She completed her pilot training and soloed, and earned her pilot's license. Additional survivors include her brothers, Floyd (Irene) Ahlers of Berrien Springs and Larry Crawford of Owosso; sisters, Joyce Shepard of Owosso and Bonnie McGowan of McLaughlin, SD. She was preceded in death by her parents; her stepmother, Dorothy; and brother, Lloyd Ahlers.

Grow Michigan

Grow Michigan, a conference-wide evangelism initiative, will be introduced by Elder Jim Howard, MI Conference Evangelism Coordinator, on January 10, 3:30 p.m. in the Sanctuary, to all area churches and pastors. Grow Michigan is the former Praise and Report annual meeting of the District 9. He will also be preaching during both worship services here at Village. Plan to come to this important event and see how the Lord has blessed His work through evangelism. There will be a reception following, sponsored by the MI Conference.

Berrien Springs Camera Club Jan. Meeting
The Berrien Springs Camera Club will meet on Wed., Jan. 7, at 7 p.m. in the Berrien Springs Community Library at Cass and Union. The program will be an inwardly focused one, trying to improve the images submitted for the club’s competitions every other month.

One of the stated goals of the club is to help members improve their photographic skills. Three judges from outside come to judge the competitions, and members often wonder why a particular photo was rejected, or given fewer points than anticipated, or perhaps given an “honor” status. On the other hand, it is well recognized that judging art is very subjective. Most club members have had the experience of later resubmitting a rejected image and having it win honors.

In January three artists/photographers will critique pictures and give reasons for how they would judge them if this were a competition. Members will join in and offer their observations and suggestions, too.

Nathan Greene, world-renowned painter who lives and works locally, will be one of the judges. Another will be Breanna Bell, a Michiana photographer specializing in seniors, families, and babies. The third will be Emmanuel St. Cloud, a Berrien Springs photographer who specializes in events, portraits, and weddings.

Each member may submit five images ahead for this critiquing session. Submission guidelines are on the club’s blog site:  http://berrienspringscameraclub.blogspot.com/

All are welcome. Refreshments will be served.

2015 Praying & Fasting Initiative
Join us for Revival, Fasting, and Special Prayer
ASAP Ministries and the Fairplain, Coloma and Indonesian Seventh-day Adventist Churches are partners in the 2015 Praying & Fasting Initiative, January 7–17.

We will meet Monday–Friday, 12:15–12:45 p.m. in the ASAP Meeting Room (105 S Cass St in Berrien Springs, 269-471-3026) and also nightly at 7 p.m. at the Fairplain Seventh-day Adventist Church (140 Seneca Rd in Benton Harbor, 269-926-8891).

In the evenings, Pastor Dan and Rose Augsburger will share their “Messages on Revival.” Participants will be encouraged to fast corporately for 77 hours from noon on January 13 to 5 p.m. on January 16 (you can choose to fast from food, unhealthful food, media, etc.). Come pray with us!

Room for rent! (Female)
Roomate needed

I'm a seminary student looking for a roomate (males only), to share a room and split the rent. The room has two single beds and a closet, a desk and a chair. It's part of a house where we share livingroom, bathroom and kitchen with another male student. There is washing machine and dryer, heating, power and all utilities included. Walking distance from Andrews. The rent already split would be $200, month to month and the deal is directly with the landlord. Quiet place. $200 deposit.

Missing Dog

Dog Name: Payton

Additional information: When lost the dog was wearing a purple collar. The collar had a name tag for the dog. The tag had her name on it (Payton Tucker) and also had my phone number, 269-277-2706. Also the dog had a metal chain type leash about 3 feet long.

Location Lost: At about 530pm on Saturday October 11-2014 I was with the dog at the dog park in Kiwanis in St. Joseph near Langley and Pearl Street. Payton got away and went up the wooded hill that ends up in the sub-division on the Langley side of the park.

Free Cat-looking for home

I took in a stray cat a little while ago to get it out of the cold. Then I ended up not being able to keep it and gave it away to someone and they ended up taking it to the pound. It was a really nice adolescent, female cat. Never scratched. I put rubber nails on her front paws to protect my furniture so she won't damage anything. All her shots have been paid for and fleas removed. Services were done at the 2-by-2 vets office.

If she wasn't such a good cat I wouldn't be going through the effort of finding her a home. Her favorite thing to do was lay on top of my lap or chest anything time I got on the couch. She is very gentle. She kind of just lays around and loves being pet. Sorry I don't have a better picture of her.

The pound might ask for a fee. I am not quite sure yet I am in the middle of talking to them. Let me know if you or someone you know is interested!

Prison Ministry Internship Opportunity

Once again we are recruiting for our exciting Summer Internship Program! Thirteen summer internships are available for the summer of 2015 with Prison Fellowship, a Christian ministry, at our National Office located in Lansdowne, Virginia, 25 miles outside of Washington, DC. Each of the National Office internship opportunities (see attached listing) are offered at $7.25 per hour with local housing available for a limited number of students from outside of the area.

Prison Fellowship internships encompass a variety of fields of study including:

- Marketing
- Business Administration
- Communications
- Events
- Journalism
- English
- Liberal Arts
- Public Policy
- Criminal Justice
- Research
- Political Science
- Finance
- Information Technology

Our program provides students with practical work experience in a Christian environment, while structuring the internship to meet the students' academic requirements. All interns also participate in stimulating events such as visits to Capitol Hill, meetings with Christian political leaders, and worldview Bible studies.

We highly recommend and encourage you to share the attached summary of our 2015 Positions Available List with all Christian students and encourage your students to visit our website at www.prisonfellowship.org/internships. If you know of any current undergraduate or graduate students interested in one of our internship positions, please have them e-mail their cover letter and resume to internresumes@pfm.org. Visit our website at www.prisonfellowship.org for a complete description of the purpose and vision of the ministry as well as news and current events.

Customer Service Representatives Opportunity ¿Hablas Español?
Adventist Information Ministry is looking to hire temporary, dedicated Spanish Customer Service Representatives for an outbound calling campaign. AIM is a ministry of the North American Division which answers the toll-free numbers for many of the church’s media ministries. Because of this we are looking for people with a strong dedication to the soul-winning mission of the Adventist church.

Job Description

Base Pay: $9/Hour

Employment Type: Part-Time/Temporary (2–3 weeks)

Job Type: Customer Service
Internships Available
Summer 2015 • Northern Virginia

Founded by Chuck Colson in 1976, Prison Fellowship has become the world’s largest outreach to prisoners, ex-prisoners, and their families. We believe that no life is beyond God’s reach and that communities can be safer through a more restorative approach to all those affected by incarceration. Prison Fellowship works with prisons, churches, and legislators toward this vision.

Prison Fellowship has several exciting internships available for undergraduate and graduate students. By offering the enclosed list of dynamic internships, we invite you to apply your academic experience in a Christian ministry environment in our national office. Our headquarters is located in Lansdowne, Virginia, and its proximity to Washington, D.C., makes it a wonderful place to spend the summer. Apply now to make a difference as we help to restore lives, families, and communities broken by crime and incarceration.

Email your resume and cover letter to internresumes@pfm.org and list the position(s) you have specific interest in. A minimum commitment of eight weeks is required, and affordable housing is also available for out of town students. Visit www.prisonfellowship.org/internships for more information about these impactful opportunities!

TRAINING ASSISTANT (40 HRS/WK)

Prison Fellowship’s Training and Learning Services Department (TLS) is responsible for a wide variety of training and educational program initiatives that range from traditional leader-led to advanced technology-based courses and support materials. Based on skill sets and interest areas, you will participate in various aspects of the instructional design and development process to include research, needs assessment, instructional design, writing, multimedia production, program authoring (e.g., Captivate or other authoring tools), quality assurance, and evaluation. These efforts support various training courses, programs, and projects, for both employees and program volunteers. You must have a strong level of PC proficiency (MS Office), strong written/oral communication skills, the ability to work with limited supervision, experience with research techniques, and strong Internet research skills. Biblical teaching and leadership experience a plus. Any combination of instructional design, educational technology, multimedia production and/or authoring or programming skills is preferred. Experience in mobile app development and social network learning is a plus. Suggested Major(s): Instructional Design, Education Technology, Educational Psychology, Audio/Visual Communications, Computer Science (with an emphasis on web design, mobile applications and/or social networking), or Christian Ministry.

ONLINE COMMUNICATIONS ASSISTANT INTERN (40 HRS/WK)

College students with a commitment to promoting biblical principles in all aspects of life and online communications are encouraged to apply. You will be a part of the Prison Fellowship Web Team, with far-reaching opportunities that include daily tasks for editing and managing web content, monitoring interactions on social media, email marketing via the weekly e-newsletter, and contributing blog posts and/or feature articles as requested. The qualified individual will possess strong PC proficiency and experience with MS Office, strong knowledge of HTML, web analysis skills, strong social media skills, and strong research/writing skills. Previous hands-on experience with web content and managing social media is preferred. Suggested Major(s): English, Journalism, Political Science, or Communications

PROGRAM DEVELOPMENT: WARDEN EXCHANGE ASSISTANT (40 HRS/WK)

Come and be a part of the Program Development Team and gain experience in a wide range of projects, including working on our exciting new warden’s program, as well as efforts related to research, outreach, mailings, and materials development. The qualified individual will possess PC proficiency, strong organizational skills, the ability to multi-task/prioritize, and have an orientation toward ministry to incarcerated persons and their families. Suggested Major(s): Law, Political Science, Journalism, Marketing, Business, Communications, or Business Administration
PROGRAM DEVELOPMENT ASSISTANT  (40 HRS/WK)

Be a part of the Program Development Team where you will help research customer trends and analyze data to help shape our various programs to meet constituent needs. Compile much needed resources used by staff, volunteers, churches, and partner ministries to improve program effectiveness. Suggested Major(s): English, Journalism, Sociology, Marketing, Business, Communications, or Business Administration

STRATEGIC INNOVATION AND PROGRAM ASSESSMENT ASSISTANT  (40 HRS/WK)

Put your analytical skills to great use at Prison Fellowship and have a major impact on prisoners and their families. As part of the Strategic Innovation Team, you’ll play a key role in building a new database to house all of the ministry’s program assessment metrics. In addition, you’ll have the opportunity to help shape the ministry’s strategic planning by assisting with the analysis of organization-wide assessment data and research needs. The qualified individual will possess excellent quantitative and analysis skills, a basic understanding of research protocols, effective oral/written communication skills, strong organization skills, the ability to multi-task/prioritize, PC proficiency (Excel and PowerPoint, Access a plus), and the ability to work independently. Suggested Major(s): Marketing, Business, Communications, Business Administration, or Public Policy.

DEVELOPMENT ASSISTANT: RESEARCH AND EVENTS  (40 HRS/WK)

Support the work of Prison Fellowship by initiating and strengthening relationships with the ministry’s largest financial supporters. This is an exciting opportunity to gain experience with high-level fundraising efforts to include donor research, donor events, foundation relations, and planned giving. The qualified individual will possess strong oral/written communication skills, strong attention to detail, the ability to multi-task/prioritize, strong Internet research skills, PC proficiency (Excel specific), and the ability to work independently. Suggested Major(s): English, Journalism, Communications, Public Relations, or Business.

DEVELOPMENT ASSISTANT: MID-MAJOR PARTNERS  (40 HRS/WK)

The Strategic Gifts Team raises support for the work of Prison Fellowship by building and strengthening relationships with donors. In the position, you will work directly with the Director of Partner Development to research prospective donors and develop engagement strategies for mid-major donors. Using your skills to impact the ministry, you will work on the overall communications strategy and help to prepare specific letters, newsletters, invitations, etc. The qualified individual will possess strong Internet research skills, excellent writing/editing skills, PC proficiency, strong oral/written communication skills, the ability to multi-task/prioritize, and the ability to work independently. Suggested Major(s): English, Journalism, Communications, Public Relations, or Business.

DIRECT RESPONSE MARKETING INTERN  (35-40 HRS/WK)

Our Direct Marketing Team is seeking an individual that has the natural skills and intellectual curiosity to help us develop new supporter and engagement strategies, as well as research donor trends to report to the team. The ideal intern will propose and research new strategies to engage the millennials, as well as help develop an innovative archive system for direct marketing communications. Suggested Major(s): Marketing, Communications, or Business Administration.

INSIDE JOURNAL ASSISTANT  (40 HRS/WK)

Work directly with the editor of Inside Journal, Prison Fellowship’s newspaper for America’s prisons, in all aspects of its production and circulation. Specifically, the intern will research and develop original articles, respond to reader correspondence, help manage circulation, and other projects related to the newspaper’s success. The successful applicant will possess outstanding writing and editing skills, the ability to work independently, excellent research skills, and a personal desire to minister to the incarcerated population. Fluency in Spanish, work on a college or community newspaper, or previous familiarity with issues related to the criminal justice system are desirable, but not required. Suggested Major(s): English, Journalism, Communications, or Spanish.
BREAKPOINT EDITORIAL ASSISTANT (40 HRS/WK)

To honor our founder’s teachings, Prison Fellowship equips Christians to apply the biblical worldview to every aspect of life. Our BreakPoint program provides a Christian perspective on today’s news and trends via radio, interactive media, and print. You will assist the BreakPoint editorial staff with daily tasks for the web, to include managing web content, securing reprint permissions and review copies, monitoring interactions on social media, writing copy for various BreakPoint efforts, and contributing blog posts and/or feature articles as requested. The qualified individual will possess strong PC proficiency and experience with MS Office, strong Internet and social media skills, and strong research/writing skills. Previous hands-on experience with managing social media and web content is preferred. Suggested Major(s): English, Journalism, Political Science, or Communications

RESEARCH ASSISTANT: RESTORATIVE JUSTICE (40 HRS/WK)

Assist in the reformation of the criminal justice system to reflect biblically based principles of restorative justice! Interns will work in Lansdowne with the advocacy staff focusing on various criminal justice issues and reform projects, including a focus on alternate courts in the criminal justice system. Duties will include researching, writing, drafting reports, and performing administrative tasks related to restorative justice. Additional aspects of this position include handling correspondence from subscribers and supporters and assisting with clerical tasks as needed. Qualified individual(s) will possess strong research and writing skills, strong written and oral communication skills, computer proficiency including Internet skills, and familiarity with government. Minimum two years of college education completed. Suggested Major(s): Public Policy, Pre-Law, Criminal Justice, Sociology, Communications, or Political Science.

FINANCE ASSISTANT (40 HRS/WK)

The Finance Department handles all areas of finance and accounting for Prison Fellowship. This includes corporate work for three separate 501(c)(3) corporations including daily revenue calculations, complete accounts payable functions including check and ACH preparation, bank reconciliations, investment accounting, monthly close and financial statement preparation, in addition to many other day to day tasks. This position will work closely with the revenue team and in the area of fixed assets. Joining us at year-end and audit preparation, the qualified business/accounting student would be able to work in all areas of the department depending on their skill level and willingness to learn. The qualified individual will possess PC proficiency, show strong organizational skills and the ability to multi-task/prioritize, be process-oriented, and pay strong attention to detail. Suggested Major(s): Accounting, Business Administration, Finance

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY ASSISTANT (40 HRS/WK)

We invite you to be a part of our highly skilled IT team and assist in various IT department functions to include configurations for hardware, networks, servers, client, voice over IP, and video streaming. You will assist with software development, maintenance, trouble shooting, and testing. You will also gain great insight into the project management cycle and provide general support of system and user documentation. The qualified individual(s) will possess a strong level of software knowledge, Office 2000 experience, Windows XP experience, good written and verbal communication skills, and the ability to work well in a team environment. SQL Programming, Visual Studio .NET, .NET (ASP, C#, Java), Visual Basic, Microsoft Project experience preferred. Suggested Major(s): Information Technology/Computer Engineering

Computer Repair
Virus or Slow PC? - I’m affordable!! Same Day Repair!!
- recover photos
- recover deleted files
PC Speed-Up + Virus Removal = $50
Complete Re-Installation of Computer (Like a fresh new PC with all user files deleted) = $80
Is your PC running Slow?
Do programs not open?
Are you getting a blue screen with a bunch of crazy words that halts your PC?
Is the thing just acting funny?
Before you spend $500+ on a new computer, let me see if it is worth repairing your old one.
Over time as you download new programs they will begin to affect your computer ever so slightly until you need to do some maintenance to speed it back up again.
Most computer companies charge around $80 to $100 bucks for this sort of thing.
Don’t think so? Call your local one up. If they say anything below $70 be at least prepared to wait a few days for pickup. I have your computer ready in the next 2 hours.
(If not that night)

So... how much do I charge to speed up your PC or fix a virus?

PC Speed-Up + Virus Removal = $50
Complete Re-Installation of Computer (Like a fresh new PC with all user files deleted) = $80

Some jobs require a complete re-installation of the operating system
( in this case all files will be deleted and your computer restored with a fresh copy of the operating system ) Of course this will not be done without letting you know first to make sure you back-up all necessary data beforehand.
For this I charge $80 for and includes free virus protection and software bundles to make life easier.
