Amazon Smile Now Supports Andrews University!

Do you shop at Amazon.com? Now you can support Andrews University when you do! Click the link below for more information on how you can support Andrews University every time you shop:

https://smile.amazon.com/ch/38-1627600

If you're not already familiar with AmazonSmile, here is some additional information:

Q: What exactly is AmazonSmile?
A: AmazonSmile is a simple and automatic way for you to support your favorite charitable organization every time you shop, at no cost to you. When you shop at smile.amazon.com, you'll find the exact same low prices, vast selection and convenient shopping experience as Amazon.com, with the added bonus that Amazon will donate a portion of the purchase price to your favorite charitable organization. You can choose from nearly one million organizations to support.

Q: So, what does it mean that Andrews is now on AmazonSmile?
A: It means that the Andrews community, whether alumni, friends, faculty/staff or students can support Andrews University every time they shop at Amazon!

Q: Why does Andrews need donations?
A: Andrews University is a non-profit educational organization. Tuition only covers 65% of our operating costs, and we rely on donations from a variety of places, including our amazing Andrews community, to make up that difference. Giving back through AmazonSmile is an easy way to help support Andrews University!

Q: Is there a catch?
A: No! The only thing to keep in mind is that you MUST do your shopping through smile.amazon.com instead of the regular amazon.com.

Q: How much does Amazon actually donate?
A: The AmazonSmile Foundation will donate 0.5% of the purchase price from your eligible AmazonSmile purchases.

Q: Can I receive a tax deduction for amounts donated from my purchases on AmazonSmile?
A: Donations are made by the AmazonSmile Foundation and are not tax deductible by you.

Q: That all sounds great. Where/how do I sign up?
A: Follow this link: https://smile.amazon.com/ch/38-1627600

We hope you'll think about signing up (it takes two seconds!) and supporting Andrews University in this way. After all, every donation makes a difference!

If you have any additional questions about AmazonSmile or other ways you can help support Andrews University, please visit the Andrews University Office of Development webpage.

Career Services Department Directory

On Andrews’s campus, the career services are divided into two areas: Career Development, and Career Placement. Each area covers certain aspects of establishing and finding a career, and is provided by different departments.

Career Development covers areas in the first stage of development, such as: identifying your life calling, personal mentoring, career assessments, career counseling, and career planning. It also includes the next step such as resume building, cover letter writing, developing professional etiquette, practicing interview skills, graduate school assistance, and job search preparation. Help in these areas are provided to you through the Counseling and Testing Center and are a useful tool in getting started on the road to your career. Connect with a counselor or the career coach to start developing a plan for your career.

The Career Placement aspect is currently covered by the different Academic departments, and includes the final step in transitioning from college to career. This area covers things such as; help in finding internships and fellowships, networking and connecting with employers, career fairs, job search assistance, professional mentoring, and other employer relations. Connect with your department representative to see what opportunities and assistance they can provide as you move forward with finding a career.

Now, many students may still be undecided in a major, and find that they are unsure what they want to do for a career. A new program here at Andrews University, Explore Andrews, is designed to meet the needs of these undecided students. Connect with this department to find out how they can help you explore more of options and opportunities.

Above you will find a department directory that will help you identify the person in your department, as well as Explore Andrews and the Counseling and Testing Center that can help you move forward with planning your career.
Festschrift Presented to George Knight

The chapel of the Andrews University Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary was packed with guests, faculty, staff and students on Tuesday, April 21, for the presentation of a Festschrift to George Knight, professor of church history, emeritus. The recently released book, "Adventist Maverick: A Celebration of George Knight’s Contribution to Adventist Thought," was given to Knight in honor of his distinguished teaching, research, editorial and publishing career. The volume, published by Pacific Press Publishing Association, is a collection of writings by 19 colleagues and students, edited by Woodrow W. Whidden and Gilbert Valentine.

Denis Fortin, professor of theology and former dean of the Seminary from 2006–2012, welcomed everyone and invited God’s presence at the joyful occasion.

Reflecting on the methodology Knight used in writing his books, President Niels-Erik Andreasen said, "He [Knight] has written a good many books about early Adventist history, and he told me once that he wrote these books the same way the pioneers wrote their books, using pen and paper… I suspect that not a single [Knight] has written a good many books about early Adventist history, and he told me once that he wrote these books the same way the pioneers wrote their books, using pen and paper… I suspect that not a single...

Festschrift tributes were given by Gilbert Valentine, chair of the Department of Administration and Leadership, La Sierra University; Jerry Moon, chair of the Department of Church History, Andrews University; and Woodrow Whidden, professor of religion, emeritus, Andrews University. Brian Strayer, professor of history, also gave a tribute to the late Gary Land, whose scholarly contributions in the area of Adventist history are notable.

Valentine began by noting the significant impact that Knight’s scholarship has had on the Seventh-day Adventist Church. He said, "It’s not an exaggeration to say that apart from Ellen White, Professor George Valentine began by noting the significant impact that Knight’s scholarship has had on the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Brian Strayer, professor of history, also gave a tribute to the late Gary Land, whose scholarly contributions in the area of Adventist history are notable.

Valentine began by noting the significant impact that Knight’s scholarship has had on the Seventh-day Adventist Church. He said, "It’s not an exaggeration to say that apart from Ellen White, Professor George Valentine began by noting the significant impact that Knight’s scholarship has had on the Seventh-day Adventist Church. The statistical evidence is astounding: 42 books (36 of which have been translated into a wide variety of foreign languages), the preface/forward or introduction to 21 more books, 43 full-length articles in other influential scholarly publications, general series editor for four large series volumes— comprising 36 other books authored by others. Add to that 150 articles he wrote for scholarly journals and 76 published book reviews and, as Valentine put it, "Dr. Knight is certainly the most prolific author that Andrews University has produced, and is its most widely read scholar."

Knight’s ability to address theological issues in a way that engages the whole church is a particular gift. He has addressed the issues of philosophy of education, Adventist history, Adventist theology, ecclesiology and mission, and biblical exposition. Valentine went on to say that another of Knight’s distinctive contributions has been to encourage and enable other writers to find their voices and an audience. He concluded his remarks with "As a writer, as a mentor of other writers, Andrews University and the wider Adventist church have been incredibly blessed and we are deeply grateful towards you."

Jane Thayer, associate professor of religious education, emerita, shared Jerry Moon’s tribute, which focused on Knight’s role as a teacher. Moon was unable to attend the event due to a family emergency. Moon wrote, "Forty plus years of distinguished teaching and publishing have made George Knight a magisterial figure in Seventh-day Adventist education. He has taught in Adventist colleges and seminaries all over North America and literally from Australia to Zimbabwe. For many years he spent as much as four months each year teaching in remote places where pastors did not have access to an Adventist seminary." That means thousands of pastors and teachers took his classes, exerting an enormous influence on the thought leaders of Adventism.

Moon provided an example of what a student could expect when taking one of Knight’s classes, based on his firsthand experience, "Students of today, accustomed to lectures presented in PowerPoint and classrooms wired for the Internet, might be surprised to see Knight stride in carrying a sheaf of yellow paper covered with handwritten notes." He continued, "Knight’s persona in the classroom was confident, exuberant and unsympathetic to slackers. His keen mind, vast knowledge and perfect confidence made him a fearsome and fascinating figure."

In 2003 Knight was the first recipient of the Daniel A. Augsburger Excellence in Teaching Award, as well as the Teacher of the Year Award. He was honored as: "A riveting lecturer; a rigorous, prepared dissertation advisor; a scholar whose publishing productivity outstripped the rest of the department combined; and whose students hold influential positions all over the world."

Whidden spoke of Knight’s role as an editorial impresario—someone who conceives, directs and casts "operatic dramas." In this category of literary productivity are doctoral dissertations he directed (13 listed),..."
the Bible Amplifier Commentary Series, the Adventist Pioneer Series of biographies, and the Ellen White Encyclopedia, which he launched. Then there were also countless informal manuscript reviews. As director of doctoral dissertations, his requirements included a rigorous "first eight-page edit rule" that demanded not only "clean copy," but, more importantly, the expression of a clear purpose for the research. That rigorous attention to detail has resulted in, as Whidden put it, "a body of literature that has made lasting, often path-breaking contributions to the fields of Adventist history (particularly in Ellen White studies), biography, biblical commentary, educational philosophy, devotional uplift and theological discourse (both historical and systematic)."

Before the formal Festschrift presentation took place, Valentine explained that the book had its origins in 2009, at a landmark conference on the study of Ellen White which was held in Portland. At that conference it was noted that quite a number of the scholars that had contributed had been students of Knight. Others there were his colleagues. Valentine continued, "This is a distinctive kind of Festschrift. One that we hope will make for a good read. Nineteen colleagues or former students of George Knight have contributed, reflecting and critiquing on the wide array of topics that Knight has written on. We then asked Knight to respond to those reflections/critiques, thus getting both sides of the conversation in this really enjoyable volume."

Valentine then read a letter of congratulations from Dale Galusha, president of Pacific Press, while a framed copy of the book cover was unveiled. Galusha wrote, "On this occasion, Pacific Press is proud to offer its congratulations to an Adventist original, an Adventist maverick, Dr. George Knight.... May his spirit of unswerving dedication to the church he loves inspire us all to be the best Adventists and best disciples we can be."

"It's kind of like going to your own funeral...before you die...and I'm very appreciative of everything that's been done," George Knight joked as he started his short response and homily. He spoke of the need for perspective and humility after listening to what had been said. Knight particularly singled out Bonnie Beres, his former secretary, for her role in typing up his handwritten manuscripts through the years. "Without her there would be no books," he said.

Knight quickly put the focus on Jesus Christ, stating, "That's why we're here today." Speaking about his life, he said that it has been a "search for meaning." He learned that servanthood in every area was what Jesus' life was all about, and his death was about our salvation. During a particularly difficult time period of his life, Knight shared how "a man he never wanted to see again," his first Bible teacher, Robert Olson, was invited to his house. Olson knew of Knight's struggle, but he didn't say anything about it. He spent a day "just exuding the sweet love of Jesus," and when he left the house, Knight told his wife, "I met Jesus today, in Robert Olson." Knight continued by stating, "I was an Adventist for 14 years before I became a Christian. My life since that day has been dedicated to helping other people understand who Jesus is... Let's never forget who we are in relationship to Jesus Christ and what he has done for us."

The closing prayer was offered by John Matthews, a former student of Dr. Knight's and current professor of educational foundations and religious education at the Andrews University School of Education, who asked God to bless Knight with "wisdom, insight and good health so that his ministry among us will continue for many years to come."

The Berrien Springs Adventist Book Center offered a book signing following the program. If you wish to view the entire program, go to andrews.edu/go/youtube.

Students will now be able to complete the MA in Communication with 33 credits instead of the previous 40. The reduction will allow students to complete the degree in less than two years at a lower cost. In addition, students will also automatically receive a 45 percent tuition discount on graduate Communication coursework for the next two years.

The department has also added a live synchronous online option that allows students some flexibility in location. Concentrations such as communication management, international communication and interdisciplinary communication are available, but not required. Finally, a dual degree option is available with a Master of Divinity and Master of Arts in Communication. This program is designed to take three and a half to four years and has two optional Communication concentrations: media ministry or interdisciplinary communication.

The department has acquired and renovated a media center and studio facility. Furthermore, the program and curriculum have been revised to strengthen the research component of the program and add key courses to the curriculum. In addition, the goal for the 2015–16 school year is for all graduate faculty to have terminal degrees in communication or a closely related field.

“Our goal in making these changes,” said Rachel Williams-Smith, chair of the department, “is for several purposes:

- To produce graduates who easily obtain jobs and careers in well-known and respected organizations,
- To produce graduates who can improve the effectiveness of Christian Adventist media programming in reaching young people,
- To make the program as affordable as possible, and
- To cultivate a departmental team of faculty experts who are well equipped to train the next generation of communicators.

We want to become the premier program option for students from both Adventist and public colleges and universities who wish to earn a master’s degree in Communication.”

House for Sale: 622 Lynn Drive

Do you like that very contemporary "IKEA Look?" Then this 3BD/2BA open style and impeccably maintained house with vaulted ceilings is made for you! This home was completely remodeled in 2007 with very nice quality materials including beautifully finished "real" hardwood floors.

The huge windows let in an abundance of light and look out onto the professionally landscaped yard (lilacs, dogwoods, rhododendrons) that backs up to private wooded land that is landlocked--so NO neighbors in back. The large fenced in backyard has a wonderful deck located right under a shady maple tree just waiting for you to come and relax. The .28 acre lot also has an extremely well built 12x10 shed with concrete floor. Home is located within walking distance of downtown Berrien Springs and Andrews University.

Kitchen appliances and washer and dryer included.

Female Roommate Wanted

For next school year, August 1, 2015–April 30, 2016, I am needing a female roommate. Small apartment in Berrien Springs a little over a mile away from campus.

Would get your own room, sharing a kitchen, bathroom, living room, and storage closet. There is a place to park your car, and rent is relatively cheap. Only need to pay for rent on the first of each month, and electric and Internet!

MUST be female, preferably quiet, friendly, clean, considerate, and nice :)

I am graduating in spring 2016, so if you wanted to continue living in the apartment, you could work that out with the landlord, but I'd be moving out (most likely).

Christian Nanny Available

My name is Tanya and I am looking for a full-time nanny position. I am CPR (Infant/Child/Adult) / AED Certified and First Aid. I am comfortable with pets, as I am a pet owner myself. I am happy to provide light housekeeping, cooking, pet care, etc. I have been laid off from my full-time job with the hospital that I have been with for 4+ years, due to budget cuts. Working in the Emergency Room, I helped children of all ages and needs. And being a single mother, I am looking for a nanny position or a personal assistant position, that I can either do from home or take my daughter with me (So that I can spend more time with her and avoid outrageous daycare costs and illnesses). I have been a nanny for a good friend of mine, who is also the Medical Social Worker at the hospital and I have also helped with Vacation Bible School for three summers.

If you are interested in me nannying for you, please let me know. Attached is the link to my Care.com profile, which goes more in depth about my experience, pay, etc. https://www.care.com/p/tanyat686/cc
