  - Award Of Excellence
    - Debbie Michel, editor

"I'm delighted that these awards acknowledge the talents of our student writers, designers and photographers," says Michel. "It validates and confirms that our students are ready to work alongside the best in the Christian publishing business."

Envision has received recognition for its quality in higher circles at Andrews as well. "Envision magazine is a gem at Andrews University," says Carey Carscallen, dean of the School of Architecture, Art & Design. "I am pleased to see its continued success." Keith Mattingly, dean of the College of Arts & Sciences, adds: "An award-winning magazine is a great credit to the Department of Communication and to the College of Arts & Sciences as a whole."

In addition to the awards received by Envision, the Associated Church Press also gave an Award of Excellence for Non-fiction Books and an Award of Excellence for PR Videos to "Born Yesterday: The True Story of a Girl Born in the 20th Century but Raised in the 19th," by Rachel Williams-Smith, chair of the Department of Communication.

Humberto M. Rasi, Special Projects, Department of Education, General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, was the keynote speaker for the 8:30 a.m. and 2 p.m. Commencement services with an address titled "On the Road to Success." University President Niels-Erik Andreasen presented him with an honorary doctorate for his contribution to Adventist education during the 8:30 a.m. service.

Rasi has worked as a teacher, author, editor and educational administrator for the church for almost 60 years. In the 1970s he served as a teacher, department chair and eventually dean of graduate studies for Andrews University, and from 1990 to 2002 he was director of the Education Department of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists. He has published, contributed to, or co-edited numerous books and articles, as well as cofounding the Institute for Christian Teaching and establishing the Adventus Editorial Consortium.

For Rasi, coming to Andrews University for Commencement was "moving." "It was a memorable experience," he says, "in terms of returning to the university where I worked for ten years, where we lived with our family in the 1970s. It was a high honor to receive an award from the oldest institution of Adventist education." This is Rasi's fourth honorary doctorate.

Martin Joseph Doblmeier, founder and president of Journey Films, spoke at the 11 a.m. Commencement service. His address was titled "Through the Lens of Faith." Doblmeier has been working in documentary filmmaking for three decades, producing and directing more than 30 films about religion, faith and spirituality that have had wide distribution and critical acclaim including an Emmy, three U.S./International Film Festival awards, and six Gabriel Awards for best film on a topic of religion in America. Notably, he directed a trilogy of films about Seventh-day Adventism: "The Adventists" (2010), "The Adventists 2" (2013), and "The Blueprint: The Story of Adventist Education" (2014).

"I am delighted to receive a degree from Andrews, a school with so many accomplished graduates," Doblmeier says. "But I am also grateful on behalf of all the filmmakers—particularly documentary filmmakers. Honorary degrees usually go to authors and writers but in making a serious documentary film I can spend between two to four years in research, production and presentation so it really is like an advanced degree when done properly. I feel a sense of pride on behalf of every serious documentary filmmaker and hope they have some sense of sharing in this."

Both Doblmeier and Rasi noted that they experienced a warm welcome at Andrews University and... appreciated the enthusiasm of the students, the hospitality of faculty and the beauty of the campus. “There is something special happening at Andrews,” Doblmeier says, “and I am delighted to play a small part in it.”

Rwandan Commemoration of 1994 Genocide

The Midwest Rwandan Community held the 21st Commemoration of the 1994 genocide against the Tutsi in Rwanda on the Andrews University campus, on Saturday, April 11, from 3–6 p.m. in Newbold Auditorium, Buller Hall. Held in the “Never Again” spirit of the United Nations policies, this annual Michiana area event was well attended by more than 200 individuals. The keynote speaker was Joe Richie, a Chicago area businessman who also serves as co-chairman of the Presidential Advisory Council (PAC) for Rwanda, to help facilitate private sector investment in the country.

This year’s program, emceed by Tabitha Mpamira, had the special focus of refuting persons who have denied or minimized the genocide of 1994. The program began with video testimonials from Rwandans who were there during the genocide. These people expostulated that what happened 21 years ago was not merely tribal conflict, but instead an attempt at ethnic extermination. There were several other elements, including a children’s candle lighting, and musical selections. During the candle lighting, there was a poem by Thomas Habimana, which portrayed the perspective of a Tutsi hiding out in a hole under a rock during the genocide, hearing dogs fighting over dead and rotting bodies. Lifase Bilima sang “It Is Well With My Soul,” accompanied by Robert Baleris on the piano, and at the end of the song transitioned into “When We All Get to Heaven,” encouraging the audience to join her.

One of the highlights of the program was the testimony of Consolee Nishimwe. She told the story of her experience, which she wrote about in her book titled, "Tested to the Limit: A Genocide Survivor's Story of Pain, Resilience, and Hope" (Balboa Press, 2012). Nishimwe was a girl of 14 at the time of the genocide. She remembered hearing the killers shouting, “Any Tutsi cockroaches hiding in there? Show yourselves!” Her father and her younger brothers were killed in the genocide. Although she was raped and tortured, Nishimwe survived, along with her mother and a younger sister. At the end of her speech, the entire audience rose in silent respect.

Richie, the keynote speaker, was another highlight of the program. Originally, the speaker was supposed to be the Rwandan State Minister and Ambassador to the United Nations, His Excellency Eugene Richard Gasana, but he could not make it due to windstorms that canceled his flight. Considering his proximity to Berrien Springs (Chicago), and his experience with the people in Rwanda, Richie was an apt replacement. He read the ambassador’s remarks, and added some of his own. Richie has served as CEO of the Rwandan Development Board, aiding in economic development in the wake of the genocide, and continuing to work for the PAC. He has been instrumental in getting large corporations like Starbucks and Costco to help in the development of the nation, and his work has been recognized on CNN.

The Midwest Rwandan Community is led by president Louis Ruhaya, who spearheaded this event. The organization is responsible for representing the Rwandan community and celebrating Rwandan history. Every year in April, the Rwandan community holds an event to remember the genocide against the Tutsi that happened in Rwanda 21 years ago. The Rwandan Community members use this event to raise awareness, and promote peace in spite of communal differences. It is in conjunction with the mantra “Never Again”—the idea that this type of atrocity should never again take place in the world.

In the words of Jean Hakiza, a Tutsi and a survivor of the genocide who helped in the organization of the event, "This (event) reminds the world that we've had a terrible war, or genocide that shouldn't have taken place. This is what happened to Rwanda. Take notes so it doesn't happen here or in any other country." He continued to say, "I was a target, but miraculously God saved me. However, I lost my family, I lost my parents, I lost relatives, I lost so many people. And that's why I'm involved, because I'm a part of the story."

Festschrift Presented to George Knight

The chapel of the Andrews University Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary was packed with guests, faculty, staff and students on Tuesday, April 21, for the presentation of a Festschrift to George Knight, professor of church history, emeritus. The recently released book, "Adventist Maverick: A Celebration of George Knight’s Contribution to Adventist Thought," was given to Knight in honor of his distinguished teaching, research, editorial and publishing career. The volume, published by Pacific Press Publishing Association, is a collection of writings by 19 colleagues and students, edited by Woodrow W. Whidden and Gilbert Valentine.

Denis Fortin, professor of theology and former dean of the Seminary from 2006–2012, welcomed everyone and invited God's presence at the joyful occasion.

Reflecting on the methodology Knight used in writing his books, President Niels-Erik Andreasen said, "He [Knight] has written a good many books about early Adventist history, and he told me once that he wrote these books the same way the pioneers wrote their books, using pen and paper... I suspect that not a single chapter in the celebratory volume has been written that way. That's a mark of distinction!"

Festschrift tributes were given by Gilbert Valentine, chair of the Department of Administration and Leadership, La Sierra University; Jerry Moon, chair of the Department of Church History, Andrews University; and Woodrow Whidden, professor of religion, emeritus, Andrews University. Brian Strayer, professor of history, also gave a tribute to the late Gary Land, whose scholarly contributions in the area of Adventist church history are notable.

Valentine began by noting the significant impact that Knight's scholarship has had on the Seventh-day Adventist Church. He said, "It's not an exaggeration to say that apart from Ellen White, Professor George Knight is probably the most prolific author the Adventist church has seen. He has achieved an exceedingly wide readership, and as a result has become one of the most influential voices in the contemporary Adventist church." The statistical evidence is astounding: 42 books (36 of which have been translated into a wide variety of foreign languages), the preface/forward or introduction to 21 more books, 43 full-length articles in other influential scholarly publications, general series editor for four large series volumes— comprising 36 other books authored by others. Add to that 150 articles he wrote for scholarly journals and 76 published

Shari Smoot Graduates with BS in Liberal Arts

"When I came to work for Andrews University in July 2012 finishing my degree was the furthest thing from my mind. I thought it would take me 30+ hours and at my age that was too daunting of a task! Within a year, at the suggestion of my boss, Dr. David Faehner, I checked into getting a BS in Liberal Arts and discovered it was doable. After 30 years and returning to college 3 times I finally graduated on May 3, 2015. Many thanks to Dr. Faehner for encouraging me and providing the time away from my work so I could finish. Also, thanks to all the many, many people who also encouraged me and supported me including my children for picking up the slack at home. I'm so thrilled to have this degree and to have finished with high marks."

Death of Betty Colleen Weakley

November 5, 1928 – May 9, 2015

Betty Colleen (Collard) Weakley, 86, of Berrien Springs, passed away at her home on Saturday, May 9, 2015.

She was born on November 5, 1928 in Berrien Springs to Glenn J. and Mary H. E. (Kilpatrick) Collard. Betty grew up with her brother, Robert "Bob", and sister, Kathryn Joyce "Babe", in a house that their father built on the northwest corner of Garr and Snow Roads. At the age of four, Betty begged to go to school with her brother and sister at Burke School, so her mother decided to let her attend. The teacher would let Betty sit on her lap during classes. Burke School was a one-room school that was across the road from their home. After finishing elementary school, Betty attended Emmanuel Missionary College Academy, now Andrews Academy. During her academy years Betty learned to play one of her favorite musical instruments, the saxophone. She continued to play the instrument throughout her life. Betty graduated from Emmanuel Missionary College in 1949, with an Associate degree in Secretarial Science.

In the early years she worked as the Administrative Secretary for the Vice-President of Kellogg's Company in Battle Creek, Michigan. After her children had begun grade school, she became the Administrative Assistant for Continental Specialty Advertising and Sporting Goods Company in Berrien Springs. On May 12, 1949, Betty married John Edward Weakley on the national radio show "Bride and Groom" in Hollywood, California. During their early married years, John and Betty lived in a number of places including: an apartment in Battle Creek, a small house on the southwest corner of Garr and Snow Roads, and a house on Main Street in Berrien Springs. In 1955 John began building a new house one mile west of Berrien Springs on Snow Road in his spare time. They moved into the new house in 1957 and lived there for the next 41 years. In 1998 they moved to their current home on Lake Chapin Bluff.

John and Betty are survived by their three children: Michael Glenn (Alice) Weakley of Ottawa, IL, Jon Todd (Linda) Weakley of Berrien Springs, and Tamara Kay (Don) Jardine of Berrien Springs; seven grandchildren and two great-grandsons. She was a fabulous cook, and enjoyed camping, swimming, gardening, playing games and spending time with her family and friends.

A memorial service will be held at 4 p.m. Friday, May 15, at Pioneer Memorial Church, where Betty was a member. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to ADRA-Nepal, Your Story Hour, Amazing Facts, or It Is Written. Allred Funeral Home, Berrien Springs, is serving the family, and online messages may be left at www.allredfuneralhome.com.

Lakeland Offers Breastfeeding Class in St. Joseph
A breastfeeding class for mothers and fathers will be presented on Monday, May 18, from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m., in the Frederick S. Upton Education Center at Lakeland Medical Center, St. Joseph, 1234 Napier Avenue.

Lakeland Health’s certified lactation consultant will discuss breastfeeding from delivery room to postpartum, the use of breast pumps, weaning, returning to work, and other topics.

In addition to enhancing the bond between mother and child, studies have shown that breastfeeding offers many health benefits. For a new mother, breastfeeding leads to less postpartum blood loss, helps with postpartum weight loss, and lowers the risk of ovarian and breast cancer. For the baby, breast milk enhances cognitive development, helps to fight illnesses, and is more easily absorbed by the digestive system than formula.

The cost for the breastfeeding class is $30, due at the time of registration. For more information or to register, call (269) 556-2808 or (866) 260-7544.

Summer Rental Needed

My husband, myself, and our well-behaved cat are needing a place to stay for June through the middle of July as my husband finishes up his MDiv. Location preferably 10 minutes or less from the Andrews University campus.

Female Roommate Wanted

For next school year, August 1, 2015–April 30, 2016, I am needing a female roommate. Small apartment in Berrien Springs a little over a mile away from campus.
Would get your own room, sharing a kitchen, bathroom, living room, and storage closet. There is a place to park your car, and rent is relatively cheap. Only need to pay for rent on the first of each month, and electric and Internet!

MUST be female, preferably quiet, friendly, clean, considerate, and nice :)

I am graduating in spring 2016, so if you wanted to continue living in the apartment, you could work that out with the landlord, but I'd be moving out (most likely).

For more information, you can contact me at stotzj@andrews.edu.
