Letter from Fred Thomas - President/Treasurer/Editor

Well, we had our campmeeting potluck, with a good turnout and enjoyed good food and fellowship. The whole campmeeting experience was wonderful, with Dick Duerkson as the main speaker. He had an excellent sermon on the dividing of the sheep and the goats at the end of time. Dick also told stories about Maranatha and the way God is leading in opening the way for projects that they are working on. It is almost unbelievable to hear about how God is opening the way for Maranatha to do it’s work.

Our next event will be a corn roast at the Howard and Shirley Bankes’ house in Columbia. It will take place on the second Sunday in August that is August 14th. At 12:00 noon. The address is 6555 Cedar Lane in Columbia MD.

Please RSVP. Call Shirley Bankes at 410-531-3192. We need to know how much food to make.

I hope to see you there!

On another note, we are planning a Fall retreat, October 7-9, 2011. We have two psychologists from Michigan who are going to be the speakers. They are going to speak on issues that concern single people.

Please plan on participating in a Talent Show on the Saturday Night of the retreat. Come to the retreat, and encourage any singles that you know to come also. I am also going to reduce the fees for the retreat which I hope will enable more people to attend.
