Letter from Fred Thomas, President

Hello Everyone:

We had a good retreat. A large number of people who do not usually attend our retreats came, and we all enjoyed excellent talks by Elder David Newman. The topic of Forgiveness was timely and well presented. Elder Newman talked about forgiving God, forgiving yourself, and forgiving other people. At lunch time on Sabbath, we had over 65 people, which is a number that we rarely have.

In the evening we enjoyed a campfire and sang songs and told riddles, until everyone wanted to go to bed.

On Sunday morning we heard the final talk, and then ended the weekend with a Friendship Circle and benediction by Elder Newman.

I want to especially thank Elder David Newman and Forest Randall for their talks, and Kerry Gordon for her help with the retreat.

If you missed the retreat, you missed a blessing.

Our next event will be a potluck lunch at Camp Meeting time. It will be at the Fleagle Pavilion. Please bring food to share. Camp Meeting is on the weekend of the 15th of June.

Fred Thomas
