Hello Everyone:

We had a good Camp Meeting experience with Derek Morris as the main speaker. Those who missed Camp Meeting missed a blessing with good speakers and seminars. The weather was pleasant. We had about twenty people at the Singles Potluck. There were the people who come regularly and we were happy to welcome two new people.

We will be having a “Corn Roast” on Sabbath, July 20th at the Chesapeake Conference Office. Please plan to come. See the directions in the announcement section.

We have arranged for a person to speak at the Fall Retreat. Elder Alphod Sinclair from Philadelphia who is a pastor with a degree in Social Work as well. He was recommended by one of the people who attended the Spring Retreat. He will be speaking on singles issues. I am looking forward to having him come as he will be talking about issues that singles face in their daily lives and ways to face life’s problems.

Please be sure to come to the retreat!

Fred Thomas
