Letter from Fred Thomas, President

Hello Everyone,

Well, Camp Meeting is now over and the people who attended were blessed. About fifteen people enjoyed a potluck meal in the Science Lab of the academy. We moved indoors because the weather on Sabbath was threatening rain, and also we didn't have chairs for people to sit on at the picnic table. Our usual place of potluck was unavailable due to the fact that flooding had washed out the road.

Elder Karl Haffner was the featured speaker for the weekend, and he illustrated his sermons with interesting stories and illustrations. The most interesting time for me was at Sabbath School. The Sabbath School featured people in the Conference who were involved in evangelism. Some new members and interested non-members were also introduced. One man was baptized during Sabbath School.

Camp Meeting time is a happy time for the kids of the Conference because many activities were planned for them. They enjoyed skiing and hiking and many other activities.

I stayed in a tent for Friday and Saturday nights and ate in the cafeteria at the academy. If a person goes to Camp Meeting only for the day, they miss the Friday night and Saturday night meetings. I am glad that Camp Meeting has been re-instated after being discontinued a few years ago.

Elder Eli Rojas, the Family Life Director of the Chesapeake Conference, will be our speaker for the retreat. The retreat takes place on the weekend of October 10-12, 2014. Please plan to come and bring a friend. See you there!

Fred Thomas
