Adventist Society for Religious Studies

2014

Call for Papers

San Diego, CA

November 20-22, 2014

ECCLESIOLOGY

IN

DOCTRINE AND PRACTICE

The Society invites proposals for brief scholarly papers to be presented at the 2014 meeting in San Diego, CA. We look for a variety of approaches to the theme. Please focus your papers on the doctrine and practice of ecclesiology. Papers from all disciplines are elicited. The program format allows for a strictly limited, 15-minute, oral presentation. Prepare also for questions and discussion at the conclusion of your oral presentation. A 200-word abstract must accompany your proposal. Proposals should be submitted in MS Word format to Mark F. Carr at mark.carr@kc.edu no later than April 1, 2014. You will be notified if and when your paper is accepted for presentation. Final drafts of your paper must be submitted no later than one week prior to the November meeting or you will lose your slot in the program.

PLEASE CIRCULATE THIS CALL FOR PAPERS TO COLLEAGUES AND STUDENTS WHO MAY BE INTERESTED THOUGH NOT MEMBERS OF ASRS.
A few particular ideas:

-How does a theology of church affect a pastor’s sermonic schedule?

-How does ecclesiology influence financial decisions for church administrators?

-What specific elements of your time together in Church (the “practice” of ecclesiology) are influenced by your theology of Church?

For further information, please contact:

Mark F. Carr
mark.carr@kc.edu
(937.395.8601 ext 54913)
Chair and Professor,
Humanities and Social Sciences Dept.
Kettering College
3737 Southern Blvd
Kettering, Ohio 45429
USA