Greetings,

I am sending out the ASRS Call for Papers, 2014 once again. As you will see below or may recall from earlier emails, our topic is "Ecclesiology in Doctrine and Practice." Let me prompt you further, however, with a few sub-topic areas that have come up in the process of discussions thus far.

- The Emergent Church and Ecclesiology
- The One Project and SDA Ecclesiology
- SDA Healthcare and Ecclesiology
- SDA Education and Ecclesiology
- Pastoral Practice as a means of shaping Ecclesiology
- Professionalism in Academic, Pastoral, and Administrative ranks
- Institutionalization of Adventist Ecclesiology
- How mission effects church structure and practice.

Please do not hesitate to offer your thoughts on what might make for a great paper. The official call is here:

ECCLESIOLOGY
DOCTRINE AND PRACTICE

The Society invites proposals for brief scholarly papers to be presented at the 2014 meeting in San Diego, CA. We look for a variety of approaches to the theme. Please focus your papers on the doctrine and practice of ecclesiology. Papers from all disciplines are elicited. The program format allows for a strictly limited, 15-minute, oral presentation. Prepare also for questions and discussion at the conclusion of your oral presentation. A 200-word abstract must accompany your proposal. Proposals should be submitted in MS Word format to Mark F. Carr at mark.carr@kc.edu no later than April 1, 2014. You will be notified if and when your paper is accepted for presentation. Final drafts of your paper must be submitted no later than one week prior to the November meeting or you will lose your slot in the program.

PLEASE CIRCULATE THIS CALL FOR PAPERS TO COLLEAGUES AND STUDENTS WHO MAY BE INTERESTED THOUGH NOT MEMBERS OF ASRS.
