TONIGHT: Follow Live Streaming of Doukhan’s Featured Address in English or Spanish at 7:30 pm.

The Adventist Theological Society invites you to follow live in English or Spanish Jacques Doukhan’s featured address “The Tension of the Seventh-day Adventist Identity: An Existential & Eschatological Perspective.” Felix H. Cortez, President-Elect of the Adventist Theological Society, will provide a response. These presentations will inaugurate the 2014 Spring Symposium of the Adventist Theological Society that is taking place at Southern Adventist University in Collegetdale, Tennessee. The topic is: “Adventism at the Crossroads: Adventist Identity and Eschatology.”

The symposium includes 11 plenary sessions and 15 breakout sessions, from a variety of disciplines and methodologies, and by speakers from 4 different continents. You can access the full program and breakout sessions at www.atsjats.org, Activities, Adventism at the Crossroads.

The Adventist Theological Society is very happy to announce that for the first time it will live stream the plenary sessions of this symposium on two channels, one in English and the other in Spanish. Abner Hernandez and Erick Mendieta from the Hispanic Adventist Theological Dialogue Center will provide the translation into Spanish. We are very thankful to them for making this possible. You can access the live streaming at www.atsjats.org, Activities, Adventism at the Crossroads.

We sincerely hope that you will be able to take advantage of this opportunity.

Grace and peace,

Adventist Theological Society
