American Union Conference Invitation
August 14-18, 2013

Every two years a special event occurs. Believers from around the country meet together for a period of several days. They share their burdens, victories, and joys. They share experiences they have made with Jesus. They learn, recharge their spiritual health, and renew their commitment to follow Jesus to the end. When the time for departure comes, they leave more blessed than when they arrived.

This year the American Union Conference will be held at Pine Springs Ranch Christian Camp and Conference Center in Mountain Center, California. Nestled in the San Jacinto Mountains, the conference center is approximately 100 miles east of Los Angeles and located at an elevation of 5,200 feet with miles of nature trails to explore.

The Ranch’s lodging facilities include 20 cabins and a lodge. The 20 cabins are equally divided into two villages, each with a central bathroom facility. All of the cabins are insulated and heated and can accommodate 10 people per cabin. The lodge has 79 motel-style rooms, each with two queen beds, two trundle beds, and a private bathroom. See pricing on the last two pages of this newsletter.

It is very important that you register as soon as you can. There is a lot of planning to be done, and your timely cooperation provides the coordinators the information they need to get things running smoothly.

The American Union Conference in Mountain Center, California, will be a blessing to all who attend. Make your travel plans today, and be sure you are one of the blessed recipients!

Hello! I am a former student of Bethsaida Missionary School. First, I would like to say that there is no better decision to make than to accept Jesus Christ as your personal Saviour. He is the “One Solitary Life” that has changed earth’s hopelessness and continues to transform all who accept Him.

My experience at Bethsaida Missionary School was a blessed one. The professors were always willing to answer questions and pack our heads full of essential information. They shared knowledge about practical things, as well as in-depth theological truths. At times it seemed like too much! But with some personal study we were able to finish our courses feeling intellectually privileged. In short, there is no better missionary school than Bethsaida. I encourage anyone considering this Institution to consider no further.

Don’t be afraid to step out of your comfort zone, or you will never learn. Beseech God in prayer before taking this or any new step. Prayer is the most powerful weapon in our spiritual warfare. Prayer is mortal man connecting with the infinite God as son to Father, friend to Friend. God honors those who honor Him. At the end of the day, all the earthly riches, fame, and power you accumulate mean nothing. Living without Jesus Christ is meaningless. May God bless you! –Adrian Lowe

The Bethsaida Missionary School was truly a blessing to me. I learned more about the Bible and Spirit of prophecy in six months than I ever imagined I would, and my walk with the Lord became more firmly established.

The classes and habits I formed there helped strengthen my spiritual walk. We were given much time for personal prayer and Bible study. We had the opportunity to canvass and give Bible studies. Sharing the truth with others helped reinforce what we had learned and further strengthened our faith. Through our health classes I learned much about the human body and the way it functions. I learned about what the Bible and Spirit of prophecy say about how to achieve optimal health.

At Bethsaida I also had the opportunity to spend time with other young people who share my beliefs and values. Through Christian fellowship I felt spiritually rejuvenated. Volunteering at Cedar Christian School as a PE teacher twice each week taught me a lot about having patience and how rewarding it is to work with children and young people.

Bethsaida Missionary School was life changing, and I wouldn't replace the experiences I made there with anything else in the world. –Richard Eaton
