Bethsaida Institute Application

"The union of Christlike work for the body and Christlike work for the soul is the true interpretation of the gospel." – An Appeal for the Medical Missionary College, pp. 14, 15 (1902).

Missionary training offered by Bethsaida Institute at the General Conference headquarters in Cedartown, Georgia, U.S.A., will begin on Wednesday, October 9, 2013, and conclude on Sunday, April 6, 2014. In addition to doctrinal and Biblical subjects, medical missionary training will be a major component of the curriculum. All instruction will be in English.

Dedicated, spiritually-minded, hard-working young people who are faithful members of the International Missionary Society are invited to apply for admission to the program. Two forms are provided at the bottom of this page. One is the Application Form, and the other is a Reference Questionnaire. Three different Reference Questionnaires need to be completed, one each by a pastor or local church leader, a local church member, and a friend or family member. The forms in PDF format can be filled out on the computer and forwarded to info@sda1844.org. They can also be printed and completed by hand and mailed to Bethsaida Institute, P.O. Box S, Cedartown, GA 30125, U.S.A.

Individuals applying from outside the United States will need an invitation letter to apply for a visa. Request for the letter may be addressed to info@sda1844.org. Half of the total fees (US $1,550) needs to be paid before the invitation letter can be issued. If a visa is not received from the U.S. Foreign Service, 95 percent of the amount paid will be refunded.

The cost of participation is US $500 per month plus a one-time Admission Fee of $100 (total for the six-month training is $3,100). The cost covers tuition, materials, room, and board. As is shown on the Application Form, each person needs to obtain his or her own health insurance and supply proof of coverage.

Sponsors are encouraged to support promising students, and donations may be made directly to Bethsaida Institute. In cases in which the student is able to pay for only part of his missionary training, officers of the field or union where the applicant's local church is located are asked to work with the student and share the responsibility for the fees.

Feel free to forward this information to prospective students and sponsors. Address all communication concerning Bethsaida Institute to info@sda1844.org.

God bless the students and instructors here and in all other missionary schools all around the world!
