“Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.” Philippians 4:8.

The Education Department of the Southeastern Field cordially invites you to a Church Camp to be held at the southern tip of Florida in beautiful Flamingo Everglades National Park (see photos on this page). This camp is especially dedicated to children, youth, and families!

Come with us and enjoy the beginning of the spring season in communion with believers, nature, and especially with the Lord on March 26-29, 2015.

To secure your camping site, make your reservation directly with the National Park. Call 1-800-365-2267 or 1-877-444-6777, or make your reservation online at www.reserveamerica.com. If you wish to have more information, the park’s website is http://www.nps.gov/ever/planyourvisit/flamcamp.htm.

Please let us know how many people will be coming with you and whether or not you will need a tent (six tents are available). Space is limited, so make your reservations soon! For any further information you may need, contact us at familyamericanunion@gmail.com or 770-715-0419. A program with more details will be sent to you.

Good Samaritan Corner:
Help for Cameroon
Verica Dering, AU Good Samaritan Leader,
Cameron Park, CA

The Good Samaritan Department donated $1000 to help the missionary efforts that Sister Elizabeth Sona has begun in Cameroon. The following is a letter she wrote to the Good Samaritan Department explaining what has been done there. If you would like to give contributions for her ministry in Cameroon, please donate through your local church and mark it for Sr. Sona’s work in Cameroon. God bless you richly!

It is with thanksgiving and joy that I give this little report of all that the Lord did in Cameroon during my trip there.

The study of the human body should always be a search after the will of God—with obedience as the purpose, which makes the restoration of character the goal. This is why “teaching and healing should not be separated.”—The Ministry of Healing, p. 141.

I reached Cameroon on July 23, 2014, and came back to the US on January 13, 2015. Within this period of time I held a three-week seminar for lay medical missionaries, two three-week sessions about caring for the sick, two public health lectures, plus cooking demos and cooking classes with the guests before the end of each session. I also visited sick brethren and encouraged the discouraged. I had one-on-one Bible studies. There were eight brothers and four sisters who attended the seminar, but not all finished and not all are in the photo. Eleven finished the course. The students now have an idea of evangelism and helping humanity spiritually and physically.

The two public lectures took place in Kumba, where I also did witnessing and where there are interested souls now who need follow up.

The first session had three guests who were in-patients, while the second session had six guests who were all out-patients. These sessions were all blessed as the guests’ vital signs changed for the good and joy filled their hearts. Our first guest was overweight and had a blood sugar level of 552. By the time she left, she had lost 22 pounds and her blood sugar level was under 100.

The doctrine of the state of the dead was one of the main topics for our study, as most of the patients were Catholics. They learned how to bake their own bread and how to cook vegetables in a better way.

The last session was blessed with a tub for hydrotherapy treatments. Some of the guests were blessed to receive treatment before I left.

The work has begun, and I pray that the Lord will touch His children’s hearts to continue to support this work as we continue to reach and prepare souls for the kingdom of heaven.
