Please Invite Your Online Adjuncts and Graduate Students to Andrews University Faculty Institute!

To all Andrews Online Faculty and Online Program Department Chairs and Deans:

Your adjunct and contract faculty, as well as your graduate students are invited to the first annual Faculty Institute.

Please share this notice with them.

You can attend one of three ways:

1. Onsite at Andrews University in Buller Hall (please RSVP)
2. Watch the worship and plenary sessions live streaming (August 16-17 8:15-9:45 am Eastern)
3. Watch select recorded sessions in September (we'll send a notice when they are ready).

Live Streaming Content

August 16 (Times in U.S. Eastern Time)
- 8:15–8:45 a.m.  Thursday Morning Devotions
- 8:45–9:45 a.m.  Plenary: Finding God at the University

  Kelly Monroe-Kullberg is the founder of the Veritas Forums and has authored several books, including Finding God at Harvard, Finding God Beyond Harvard, Faith and Culture, and A Faith and Culture Devotional. Her topic is Faith Development in College Students.

August 17 (Times in U.S. Eastern Time)
- 8:15–8:45 a.m.  Friday Morning Devotions
- 8:45–9:45 a.m.  Why does assessment matter (for everyone)? How can it help us?

  Susan Hatfield is a professor of Communication Studies at Winona State University and a Visiting Scholar at the Higher Learning Commission of the NCA. She is also a board member of the Association for the Assessment of Learning in Higher Education.

The live streaming link will be posted on the Faculty Institute website. Please check now to make sure you can access this page. If it asks for a login, use your Andrews username and password.

If you have trouble during the event, you can report a problem via email to janine@andrews.edu or text 269-845-0478.

We hope you can join us for this exciting event!

Questions? Contact Janine Lim at janine@andrews.edu or (269) 471-6546.