2,000 BOOKS HIT NEWBOLD LIBRARY SHELVES [Natacha Brown/BUC News]

In a very generous gesture, Sharon Cress, widow of the late Ministerial Association Director, James A. Cress, donated over 2,000 books to the Roy Graham Library at Newbold College. Speaking at the official hand-over at Newbold Church Centre on Sabbath, 9 July, Sharon spoke lovingly of her husband, former Ministerial Secretary for the Seventh-day Adventist World church. He sadly died at age 60 on 26 November 2009. She then spoke with affection about her 'alma mater' – a college that for her always brought back positive memories. Pastor Cress had also visited the college on numerous occasions to run intensive courses for students and pastors.

Mark Kellner, Adventist Review news editor stated that "Pastor Cress always considered himself to be a 'pastor on loan' to the world church headquarters, where he led out in training, encouragement and mentoring of pastors, elders, deacons and deaconesses around the world. He travelled to many countries around the globe, holding seminars, preaching sermons and working with local leaders and pastors to promote excellence in ministry." Pastor Cress also built up an extensive library of books centred around practical theology, leadership and ministerial practice.

Those books are now part of the extensive collection of the Roy Graham Library. Head Librarian, Per Lisle is delighted that the collection will strengthen and further develop the library holdings in the area of Pastoral Studies. These include books on homiletics, Christian counselling, church growth, church administration, church leadership, stewardship, personal life of the clergy, sex and gender issues and Evangelism. While many of the books are now available for loan, a few have been added to the heritage collection as Adventist books of special value.

Take a look at what is being added to the Roy Graham Library collection by clicking on 'New Titles' on the Newbold library homepage and selecting 'Dr James A. Cress Donation'.

ADRA ASSISTING IN HORN OF AFRICA FAMINE [ADRA International/BUC News]

"There is no food to take care of our needs and water is scarce," says Fatima with tears streaming down her face. She is one of the thousands of internally displaced people flocking to camps for food, water, and hope.

More than 5 million children are now close to starvation in the Horn of Africa. The worst drought in 60 years is drying up water points and destroying crops. Food prices are soaring making it impossible for parents to even buy what little food is available for their children.

There are already 10 million people in crisis in Somalia, Ethiopia, Kenya, Uganda, and Djibouti. The number is increasing on a daily basis with no hope of letting up until 2012. ADRA is already supplying food, water, shelter, and livestock feed.

Fatima is a 39-year-old widow and mother of eleven children. She lives in eastern Kenya on the border of Somalia. In 2005 Fatima's family was very wealthy according to Somali standards. Her husband, Alkadir had camels, sheep, cattle, goats and donkeys, and he was one of the key decision makers among the elders in the district. During this time, a severe drought struck and he lost three quarters of his flock.

"My husband was in shock and he almost went mad from this loss," Fatima shares while sobs rack her body. "My husband and his friend decided that they wouldn't wait until their entire flock was gone. So they crossed the Ethiopian border in search of pastures and water only to meet a worse situation there. The remaining livestock died and they both came back with just their walking sticks."

Fatima's eyes seem to be watching the past where hopelessness, pain and anguish seem to be engulfing her. With tears furiously streaming down her sun-scorched cheeks she continues, "When my husband came back, he fell into a severe depression that later developed into a stroke and after five years of struggle he died. After his death, his friends and relatives gave 5 camels, 10 cattle, 30 goats, 20 sheep and 5 donkeys to my children and I. We struggled with life on our own without our breadwinner, and we managed to recover almost a quarter of the flock we used to have. However, as fate would have it, the same "Satan" has mercilessly struck again with another worse and severe drought." Fatima then breaks down into an anguished cry of hopelessness and through heavy sobs says, "We have lost half of our flock, we have no means to take care of them and there is no food to take care of our needs and water is scarce."

Fatima is single-handedly taking care of her children. Currently they are blessed when they have one meal a day and are too often going without out any food for days at a time. Fatima sent her livestock to Ethiopia in hope of pasture and water. Now she cannot even get a goat or one of her livestock to sell so that she can buy food for her family.
ADRA is providing food, water, and emergency non-food items to families like Fatima’s. You can help now by making a gift that will save lives. Your gift will help individuals in Kenya, Somalia, Uganda and other countries around the world. For more information visit: <www.adra.org.uk>.

46 AWARDS FOR NEWBOLD GRADUATES [Newbold Public Relations Dept.]

The annual Newbold College Awards Ceremony took place on Sunday, 10 July in a packed church centre. Amongst the audience were a considerable gathering of local dignitaries including mayors, councillors, local politicians and police representatives.

As the UK degrees are accredited by the University of Wales Trinity Saint David, many students, staff and well-wishers had journeyed to Lampeter in North Wales for the Degree Ceremony on Friday, 8 July. As usual, Newbold College staff took part in the academic procession and were on the platform to witness various awards and degrees in Theology and Business Management being conferred on Newbold College students – in Welsh and in English!

The Newbold College ceremony two days later recognised the achievements of these students, as well as those who had completed their degrees through Andrews University in Michigan, USA.

For a small higher education institution, Newbold College offers wide academic provision. This was underlined as the College celebrated the success of students from over twenty countries in Behavioural Sciences; Diversity Studies; Arts & Humanities; Business Management; and Theology – from Bachelor's degrees through Graduate Diplomas to Master's degrees.

In his final role as interim principal, Dr Svein Myklebust presided over the occasion. He emphasised to graduates that, "Degrees and certificates open doors and lead to new opportunities, but the extent of your success will depend on your ability to make use of your acquired learning in a work-place setting and a life-long commitment to education in its widest sense.” On behalf of all the College staff who have invested in the students he added, "As you take on new challenges, we wish you success and blessings from above.”

The speaker for the ceremony was Pastor Wim Altink, President of the Netherlands Union Conference of Seventh-day Adventists. An alumnus of Newbold College who is currently completing his PhD studies at the College, Pastor Altink reminded students of the need for them to be qualified for their profession, their faith and their community.

Many of those graduating with Bachelor's degrees or with Graduate Diplomas will be continuing their studies at Newbold College as they enter the realms of postgraduate work.

THIRD SIMPLE CHURCH FOR SEC [Morgan & Sarah Buwu]

For over a year now the Lord has impressed an Epsom couple to be more available to Him as His hands and feet in a lost world instead of being pew warmers! Through a lot of prayer Morgan and Sarah Buwu felt God leading them to start a 'Simple Church' in their home. Although they are still in training God has used them to connect with unchurched people who are being blessed through their ministry. Theirs is the beginning of a third simple church in Southern England. This is their report:

"We have been led to be part of one lady's life who was terminally ill through alcoholism. Her local hospital had given up on her, so we encouraged the family not to give up on her but to trust God. Through some known contacts we arranged with the family for her to be admitted outside London. Amazingly, she recovered and returned home where we continued to visit and develop a deeper friendship with her. Later we prayed, worshipped and held Bible studies with her twice a week, as well as giving her as much support as we could. It is now over a year since she last had a drink of alcohol! She is now part of our group and we have Sabbath worship with her in our Simple Church.

"She has introduced two of her former drinking friends to the group and these are now part of our lives. She told them: 'You don't need any rehab just come to Sarah and Morgan who will pray for you and you will be helped as I have done!' We help one another; we pray and worship together as well as have Bible studies. One of the ladies has shown so much progress with her alcohol problem that she has been moved from a sheltered accommodation to a bedsit and we are all now having a good time furnishing the place. She has promised us all a meal and for the Simple Church to come in her home and worship one Sabbath when it's all done! These are people who were telling us in the beginning that there were atheists saying, 'I do not do God and the Bible!'"

This is just one story of several that this family can tell. They rejoice as they see God moving in their lives and in the lives of others. For more information on Simple Church please visit <www.simplechurchathome.com> and contact Pastor A Vontzalidis, SEC Church Growth Director: avontzalidis@secadventist.org.uk, 01923-232728 or 07941-094219.

MUSLIM MAYOR IN 'HOUSE OF GOD' FOR INVESTITURE  [Seleamah John-Jules]

A parade through the streets followed by a drilling and drumming display in a nearby park touched the lives of the local community in the climax of a high day for the North Wembley Community Seventh-day Adventist Pathfinder Club, Sabbath, 9 July. During a march supported by the Holloway Drum Corp, the children were amazed at how many people stopped their cars and came out their houses and shops to video, take pictures, and cheer them on. The parade ended at The Vale Farm Park where residents enjoyed watching their drilling and drumming displays.

The newly appointed Mayor of Brent, Counsellor Aslam Choudry, attended their investiture service earlier in the day and was delighted to present the children with their certificates and honour badges. The children also learnt something about cultural diversity and respect: As a Muslim, the mayor referred to the church as 'a house of God'.

The 43 member club has children from 'Little Lamb' all the way up to 'Master Guide in Training' and involves children of every age group between 4 and 16+.

Also involved in the investiture was South England Conference Pathfinder Director, Nathan Stickland, who preached. He was joined by SEC Area Coordinators Kennedy Kundan and Noel Vernon, and local minister, Pastor Wilfred Blake. Sasha Jones won the Adventurer of the year Award. Elisha Burton won the Pathfinder of the year Award and Courtenay Greaves the Highest Achiever Award.
AMBASSADORS MINISTER IN ABERDEEN  [Pastor Lorance Johnson]

The Seventh-day Adventist church in Aberdeen was delighted to be the host venue for a three evening concert put on by the Ambassadors following their recent award of "Choir of the World" at the Llangollen International Musical Eisteddfod [See 15 July BUC News]. The choir, from the Adventist University of the Philippines, performed on Sunday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, with the concerts extremely well attended by both church members and the public on all three evenings. One person from the community expressed before the concert, "I have very high expectations after what I have been told about this choir," apprehension written all over her face. At the end of the concert she exclaimed with wonderment, I was blown away and my expectations were more than exceeded."

On Thursday the Ambassadors expanded their ministry by visiting members of a residential home in Aberdeen. After 40 minutes of singing and hearty applause they dispersed among the residents to talk and pray with them. One choir member stated that this was a very emotional time for them as their heart went out in compassion to these elderly folk.

As well as brightening up the city with music, this internationally acclaimed choir and their ministry gave additional opportunity to place the Aberdeen Seventh-day Adventist church on the map in this, the most northerly Adventist church in the British Isles.

DEATH OF MRS DOROTHY M TAYLOR

It is with sadness that we share the news of the passing of Mrs Dorothy M Taylor (aged 83) on Thursday, 14 July after a short illness. Dorothy gave 36 years of her working life to Adventist Education, from mission service in Ethiopia and teaching in Plymouth, Wimbledon and Stanborough Park schools to latterly serving as BUC Education Director, in addition to supporting her husband's work within the Voice of Prophecy (now Adventist Discover Centre). In her retirement, she was just as active working in the community as a volunteer driver, local school governor and for various local charity organisations. She also held several offices within the Kettering church.

Dorothy had a firm and sure faith in her Saviour, and is now sleeping and awaiting the call on His return. She is survived by her husband, Pastor Fretson Taylor, daughter Debbie Sanders, sister Margaret Shipton and brother John Hearne and their respective families.

The funeral will be held in the Kettering Seventh-day Adventist church on Wednesday, 27 July at 12:30, followed by a committal at the Kettering Crematorium. Due to the limited size of the Kettering church, this service is intended for the family and the local church.

In mid August, the family are planning a special service of celebration of Dorothy's life which will be held in Olney and cordially invite as many as possible to attend as an outreach opportunity to our local community. Details will follow in due course.

Donations in lieu of flowers should be made to ADRA UK: <http://www.justgiving.com/Dorothy-Taylor>. From the BUC media archive recorded in 1997, Dorothy's interview and contribution to the feature on Fretson's retirement is a charming and poignant reminder of loving and supportive wife and a deeply devoted church worker.
Thank you for remembering Dorothy's family at this time of loss.

ADVENTISTS IN THE NEWS

While many an Adventist church members get's involved in fundraising activities, it is a lesser number that manage to get their story in the local paper. Pastor Andrew Rashford-Hewitt is one of them, having interested the Sheffield Star in the 'Peddling Pastor' who, at age 43, is currently engaged in a bike ride from London to Paris. Sharing the story outside of church, family and friends means that his total on the Just Giving website is already 160% higher than his target – standing at just under £2,000.

BUC SESSION MESSENGER NOW ONLINE

The 22 July MESSENGER, reporting on the BUC Session and Day of Fellowship is now online and available at a church near you.
