On Feb. 10, at 7:30 p.m., a benefit concert for Invisible Children, featuring Christian recording artist Andrew Peterson, will take place in the College View Church. The concert was organized and promoted by Michelle Mesnard’s Advanced Communication Seminar. “Everyone in the class has definitely put their hearts into this project. I’ve been inspired by their hard work and dedication to Invisible Children,” Michelle said. “It’s rewarding to help an organization like Invisible Children while you’re in the process of learning.” Tickets for the concert are on sale now through the Union College Campus Store and are $10 for individuals or $8 for groups of 10 or more.

The Studio for Writing and Speaking is sponsoring a nature photo contest. Photos must be black and white 8 x 10s and printed on photo paper with a maximum of two entries per person. All entries will be exhibited in the library gallery and the winners will be voted on during the Studio’s open house on Feb. 12. Prizes will be given for first, second and third places. Completed photos should be turned in by Feb. 8 to Tanya Cochran’s office on the fourth floor of the Dick Building in the Division of Humanities.

Want to show someone on campus adoration, gratitude or appreciation on Valentine’s Day by sending a rose, carnation or chocolate kiss? Visit the Career Center to place your order between Feb. 4-11. Deliveries will be made on Feb. 12 due to winter break. Prices: Rose—$2.50 Carnation—$1 Hershey Kiss—$.25

The Golden Cords String Quartet is looking for a Christian visual artist willing to tour with the group this semester. The trips are free and feature the opportunity to be involved in evangelism and gain exposure for artwork. Interested artists should be able to draw or paint portraits or scenes from the Bible in as little as one hour during Golden Cords concerts. Contact Frank Restesan for more details at ext. 2332.

Have you been scarred by a difficult divorce in your family? Come learn how to heal and break the cycle of divorce on Sunday evenings from 6-7 p.m. in the Spring Room of the Student Center. Meetings begin on Feb. 3.
The Division of Science and Mathematics has started a recycling program in Jorgensen Hall under the leadership of Don Abbey. Don, along with help from the Greener Living Recycling Club is hoping to expand the program campus-wide. For more information contact Darla Peterson at ext. 2515.

With the support of Campus Ministries, two new student-led prayer groups have formed this semester:
- “Breath of Fresh Air,” led by Lauren Lombard and Sanna Reeve, meets every Monday and Thursday morning at 7:30 a.m. in the Ortmier Center. The meetings last for 10-15 minutes and focus on praying for the spiritual well-being of our campus.
- “Prayer Circle” meets Monday through Friday at 5:30 p.m. in the Ortmier Center lobby. The group come together to pray for the spiritual encouragement of students on campus.

Specific prayer requests can be emailed to Pastor Rich at ricarlos@ucollege.edu

“Something on Sabbath” has an exciting schedule of Sabbath afternoon activities in February:
- Feed the Homeless: A group will be going every Sabbath in February from 3:45-7 p.m. to help make supper at the People’s City Mission. A max of 10 people can go each week so make sure to stop by Campus Ministries early in the week to sign up.
- Random Acts of Kindness: Every fourth Sabbath of the month, a group led by Ashley Richards, will be doing different acts to witness to the community. Come to the Ortmier Center lobby at 3 p.m.
- Current Truths: On Feb. 9 and 23 at 3 p.m. a film series will be shown in the Student Center. The series centers on world events pointing to end times.
- Singspiration: A group will be going to Union Manner to sing and socialize with the residents. Meet at Rees Hall every Sabbath at 3 p.m.
- Bible Study: Every Sabbath, a group will be going to Orchard Park Retirement Home to give Bible studies. Meet at Prescott at 2 p.m.

The IRR faculty invite all students who are interested in international and domestic employment or internship opportunities to attend Union College’s First International Career Fair. It will be held in the Don Love Building on Feb. 6 from 3-5 p.m. Agencies such as ADRA, the Peace Corps, Quiet Hour and the U.S. Navy will have booths.

This semester, Melanie Gabbert has joined the psychology faculty in Division of Human Development. Her position is new in the division and marks a milestone in the growth of the psychology program. Previously, Melanie worked for Cedars Youth Services and taught part-time at the University of Nebraska. Melanie is a graduate of Union and brings knowledge from applied settings in the Lincoln community. “I’m excited to have the opportunity to broaden my work in the field of psychology into the teaching arena,” Melanie said. “I’m excited to teach what I have learned in the field.”

Currently the gallery features posters from Bruce Forbes’ spring ‘07 graphic design class. The posters were featured in a diversity contest sponsored by the Multicultural Committee last year.

Beginning on Feb. 17, Claudia Pech, senior graphic design and communication major, will be showcasing her graphic design work.

In what year was it voted to permit a young man to escort a young lady to her home in Lincoln on Friday and Saturday nights? (The rule was passed on the grounds that it wasn’t wise for her to walk home through town alone).

Have you seen ASB’s 2007-2008 Web site? It features the newest ClockTower articles, upcoming events and other useful information. Visit the site at www.ucollege.edu/asb.

The next deadline for submissions is Feb. 19.

Edited by Jimmy Phillips