Dear Center for,

I'm busy. I'm pretty sure you are too. We all have something that occupies our time: family, work, hobbies, plans, dreams . . .

For those who are visually impaired, "busy" may take on a different look and feel. Depending on the degree of blindness, our clients may have that same list of busy items that we sighted individuals do. For others, days and weeks can drag by.

Why? Here are some possible reasons:

- Loneliness
- Depression
- Fear
- Income Limitations

Did you know that Christian Record's services and programs work to eliminate these?

- The antidote to loneliness is friendship; volunteers and representatives visit CRSB clients and form life-long friendships.
- A way out of depression is finding a purpose; quality reading and Bible studies offer hope and assurance.
- NCBC camps offer a safe way to conquer fear and lead to lasting friendships and cherished memories.
- All CRSB services and programs are offered at no charge to people who are blind or visually impaired.

This month's newsletter focuses on a critical need for the CRSB ministry. Read below to find out how you can make a

June Giving Emphasis:

Kodak/Creo Platemaker Upgrade

Printing is what makes our large-print magazines possible for the vision impaired.

A plate is what makes printing possible. (It goes on the printing press to carry words and pictures to paper.)

A platemaker is what makes a plate possible.

People like you can make the platemaker update possible.

Give to Lincoln Day Follow Up

Through the generosity of donors across the nation, Christian Record received more than $3,700 through Give to Lincoln Day.

This one day of giving emphasis, sponsored by the Lincoln Community Foundation, was designed to activate community members and their friends and families to give to registered non-profit organizations that are based in Lincoln, Nebraska and Lancaster County.

The overall event brought in more than $2.1 million dollars to more than 250 area charity organizations. CRSBs target project with this year's giving day was resource and services funding for the 80 Christian Record clients who reside in Lincoln and Lancaster County.

We are attempting to raise $23,895 for the critical software and hardware upgrade for Christian Record Production Department.

So far we have received pledges and gifts totaling more than $12,000. The amount remaining is just $12,000. We’re halfway there because of your help. Praise the Lord!

Kodak is graciously giving Christian Record until the end of June. This extension benefits us and them. The regular price for this upgrade would be $43,755, but through a special promotion, Kodak is offering a discount of $19,860.

The remaining $12,000 is a lot of money and it is not in the budget. If the funds are not raised, Christian Record cannot take advantage of this special June 2013 promotion.

The Kodak-Creo Trendsetter 4000 is the heart of Christian Record's Production Department. It produces the covers that print the covers for the Braille magazines, the large print magazine Light and more. More than 19 thousand people with visual impairment receive services as a direct result of this equipment each month.

Thank you for your gifts and support. Please consider giving an extra donation this month. It will be appreciated by people who live with low vision. Your gift of $100, $500, or more will help us purchase the needed upgrade from Kodak-Creo.
