Enhance Touch Tour Opportunities for the Blind through Give to Lincoln Day

Hello Center for,

How does a person who is blind or visually impaired tour a garden? The best experiences come when guests can touch and smell (and sometimes taste) the garden plants.

Christian Record Services for the Blind has such a space at its headquarters in Lincoln, Nebraska. This garden, installed in 2011 through a local area contest, gives all visitors the opportunity to touch and smell a variety of plants.

You can help enhance these "touch tours" and also beautify the Christian Record campus. The best part? It's easy and you don't have to live in Lincoln, Nebraska to help.
Give to Lincoln Day is a special day dedicated to philanthropy. Christian Record will receive a portion of a $300,000 challenge grant, based on the total raised by all Lincoln, Nebraska, nonprofit organizations. Your gifts today will make a brighten the day of visitors to the CRSB campus!

NEW for this year:
An anonymous donor is offering up to $1000 in dollar-to-dollar matches. When you give to this project any time from 10 AM to 4 PM CDT TODAY, your gift will count as double, up to $1000.
