THE UPPER ROOM
Study of the Bible often results in the realization of a chiasmic pattern. This is the dynamics of the rise, closure, and repetition that flows from the first book of Genesis to the last book of Revelation. This pattern is then repeated again many times in each book individually. The book of Acts seems to follow a different pattern, with a beginning, an incredible story, and an ending that is yet another beginning.

ADDING TO THE BEAUTY OF CHRISTMAS
On Sabbath, Dec. 11, approximately fifteen members of The Well, the downtown church plant of the Collegedale Church, participated in the Calvin Donaldson Elementary Christmas party by helping over 150 children and parents piece together floral arrangements to take home for the holidays.

PRAYERFULLY CONSIDER AUDITIONING FOR SONRISE
The SonRise team wants to invite our members, not just Southern students, to audition for SonRise, an interactive walk-through resurrection pageant.

HELP WANTED
The K.I.D. Center (Kids In Discipleship Ministry) is looking for a full-time office manager that is highly organized, loves people, has great computer skills and loves God with all their heart. Applicants should have a passion for local and international mission.
Not spam
Forget previous vote