COR's New Face

CYE and COR have welcomed Kelsey Curnutt to their team. Kelsey is a graduate of Andrews University, with a BA in Art History. She has a passion for youth ministry, with hands-on experience as part of the youth ministry staff for a year at Stanborough Park Church in Watford, England, and as a Sabbath School teacher for the past two years at the Stevensville SDA Church in Michigan. You can view her full bio on the CYE Team page.

The former CYE/COR intern, Derrick Nelson, will be moving to California, where he will start dental school at Loma Linda University this coming fall.

CHANGE

A recent study found that 1 in 5 young adults may have high blood pressure. Hypertension is easy to prevent. However, it is the second leading cause of death in the United States. Here are a few things that you can do to encourage good health in your congregation:

- Schedule group activities such as basketball, softball, running, biking, hiking, etc.
- Encourage healthy, well-balanced diets
- Lead by example
