Home and School

Here are some ways you can show support for our Church School:
- Save your box tops and labels for Education.
- Purchase 2013 calendars (they make nice Christmas presents) from a student
- Save your pop cans - give to student
- Contribute a food item to school functions
- Attend school functions
- Most important pray for our teachers and students

Berrien Springs, Mich.—As part of the James White Library’s 75th anniversary celebration, all are invited to attend the unveiling of a new James White portrait by Andrews University’s own Harry Ahn. The unveiling will take place at 5:30 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 18, 2012, at the James White Library on the campus of Andrews University.

Earlier that same day, Oct. 18, the public is invited to meet artist Harry Ahn and watch him create during a brown bag lunch from 12–1 p.m., also in the James White Library.

Harry Ahn is an internationally respected portrait artist and long-time contract professor at Andrews University. He is widely known as one of the leading portrait artists in the United States and is a member of several professional societies, including the American Society of Portrait Artists and the New York Society of Portrait Artists, to name a few. Ahn was recently awarded the 2010 Grand Prize Award for the International Portrait Competition hosted by the Portrait Society of America.
