Niles, MI  | Hunter Ice Festival                                            | The festival showcases more than 150 ice sculptures situated all over the downtown area and created on site by well known ice carvers from near and far. The weekend festivities include a timed sculpting competition held at the Riverfront Amphitheater and sanctioned by the National Ice Carving Association (NICA), a special historical Hunter Brothers History Exhibit held at the Niles District Library, a reproduction of the famous Hunter Ice Cream to tempt your taste buds and a fun filled Kids Art Activities Warming Station with awards, face painting, crafts, balloon animals and more. |
| January 25-26
Buchanan, MI | Thrill on the Hill 2013                                         | Better than Ever!
Big changes are in store for this year's Thrill on the Hill.
Better ice, a new ramp, and a variety of activities will make this year's event even more fun for the whole family!
In addition to tubing down the big hill, there will be music, food and refreshments. Contests and competition will add a sense of fun for all ages. |
Thrill on the Hill is a great way to lose those wintertime blues. You won't want to miss all the fun and the wonderful sense of community that goes hand-in-hand with this event.

There's plenty of parking, lots to do, and it's all right here in Buchanan, where life is better!

General Sabbath School presentation by Sean Swaboda

The Star of Bethlehem

Scholars debate whether the Star of Bethlehem is a legend created by the early church or a miracle that marked the advent of Christ. Is it possible that the star was a real, astronomical event? From producer Stephen McEveety (The Passion of the Christ) and distributed by Genius Entertainment comes an amazing documentary on the Star of Bethlehem. This presentation, as seen by tens of thousands in the U.S. and in Europe, explores the exciting truth of scripture and reveals the evidence for God's existence as seen in the stars above. | More than 19 million people in the U.S. suffer from depression and during the winter months, the symptoms can intensify. Anxiety often co-occurs with depression. Many factors can lead to depression including | unrealistic goals, financial stress, family expectations, and change of schedule or eating patterns. But the cure may not be as difficult as you might think. Actually, just a few basic lifestyle changes may help you drastically improve your brain health and eliminate your depression. Directed by Mary Flaim, PhD, the $140.00 fee covers the material, Depression Evaluation, Dr. Neal Nedley DVD Presentations, Individual and Group Support. Attend the free introductory session on January 8 at 6:30 pm to see if this program is right for you. For more information, contact the church office, Monday, Wednesday or Friday at 574-234-3044 or email firstsda@sbcglobal.net.

For the Beauty of the Earth: A Christian Vision for Creation Care

Sabbath, Jan. 26

3:30 p.m., Garber Auditorium, Chan Shun Hall

Adventist Forum presents "For the Beauty of the Earth: A Christian Vision for Creation Care." Presented by Dr. Steven C. Bouma-Prediger, Professor of Religion and Director of the Environmental Studies Program at Hope College in Holland, MI. This discussion is Sabbath afternoon at 3:30 pm, January 26, 2013, in the Garber Auditorium in Chan Shun Hall, on the campus of Andrews University.

Dr. Bouma-Prediger holds degrees in mathematics/computer science, philosophy, and theology, as well as a Ph.D from the University of Chicago in religious studies. He has published numerous articles, reviews, and books dealing with theology, ethics and ecology. His book "For the Beauty of the Earth: A Christian Vision for Creation Care" received a Christianity Today Award of Merit as one of the best books of the year. At Hope College, he chairs the Religion Department and directs the Environmental Studies Program and teaches theology and ethics.

His book "For the Beauty of the Earth" provides a thorough evangelical treatment of a theology of creation care. He writes, "Authentic Christian faith requires ecological obedience." He urges Christians to acknowledge their responsibility and privilege as stewards of the earth.

His wife, Celaine, is a marriage and family therapist, a spiritual director, and an ordained minister in the Reformed Church in America. They have three daughters (and numerous pets).

Adventist Forum is open to the public. All are welcome. For information, contact Art Robertson at robertsa2@earthlink.net or call 269-471-7150.
