Werner W. Lehmann

Werner W. Lehmann, 81, of Eau Claire passed away Thursday, Feb. 26, 2015, as a result of a massive stroke. He was born Feb. 4, 1934, in Rosthern, Saskatchewan. His parents were grain and dairy farmers and gave Werner an appreciation for an honest work ethic that followed him the rest of his life. He was a member of the Seventh-day Adventist Church, where he faithfully served in various capacities throughout his lifetime.

His early education began in a little country school in the town of his birth. He graduated from La Sierra University in California in 1970 with a B.S. degree in biology and from Loma Linda University in California with a master's degree in public health.

In 1995, he and his family moved to Eau Claire, where he worked for Plant Services on the campus of Andrews University. After retirement, he spent many pleasant hours composing music to honor his precious Savior.

He is survived by his loving wife of 45 years, Shirley (Oetman) Lehmann; daughter, Leandra Block of Bullhead City, Ariz.; daughter, Jennifer Wittum of North Carolina; son, Kevin (Linaea) Lehmann of Granger, Ind.; daughter, Karyn (Zach) Owen of Loveland, Colo.; four priceless grandchildren; and a sister, Ellen (Lyle) Thunstrom of Abbotsford, British Columbia.

The funeral service will be at 3 p.m. Tuesday, March 3, at Eau Claire Seventh-day Adventist Church, 6562 Naomi Road. Viewing will be from 1-3 p.m. at the same location. Allred Funeral Home, Berrien Springs, is serving the family. Online messages may be left at www.allredfuneralhome.com.
